CHAUTAUQUANS' 1902 ASSEMBLY

Gladstone Park in Holiday Garb From July 8 to 19 Inclusive.

ATTRactions BETTER THAN EVER

Henry Watterson, Prof. Hamill, Rev. Thomas McClary and Robert McIntyre are on the Program.

Chautauqua from July 8 to 19 inclusive. Last year and other years of Chautauqua are still fresh in the minds of those who had the pleasure of attending the sessions. The sunny days, the music of the band and the concerts, the orators ville Courier-Journal, will be one of the star speakers of the session. He will make two addresses, on the evening of July 10 and on the afternoon of July 11. Henry Watterson is known everywhere in this country by his pen and voice. His editorials are quoted wherever the English language is written and he is an orator of marked ability.

One of the most pleasing features of last year's session were the lectures on art by John Ivey, of Monterey, Cal. The ladies were especially attracted. As an artistic painter of water colors, of seas and skies, Mr. Ivey is unequalled. This year he comes again and will be at Gladstone the first week of Chautauqua. Something entirely new will be given for the ladies during the last week of the session, which will be of great interest to women's clubs. Mrs. Lillian Cole-Bethal will give a course of thorough drills in parliamentary usage and will have a tent on the grounds. This is her life work and she has given lectures on the subject in all the principal cities of the United States from New York to San Francisco. Club women are not likely to miss this opportunity to hear Mrs. Bethal.

Rev. Thomas McClary will be present most of the session. He will preach on Sunday, June 13, and will probably lecture the following Monday afternoon.

NOW FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY

Be Up and Doing and Celebrate With Enthusiasm.

GODDESS OF LIBERTY CONTEST

Ho, for the glory of Fourth of July! Get ready. Save your money for fireworks and red lemonade for that is the day we celebrate. Thousands of people will be here. Such a crowd will never have been seen before. People from all over Clackamas County, and other counties too, will join us in making this celebration the biggest and best ever known in the history of Oregon City. One thousand two hundred dollars has been subscribed and more is promised. The races alone would be worth coming a hundred miles to see. The firemen of the different companies are striving for speed and will set hot paces. The parade will be a grand spectacle. A number of Oregon City's handsome and popular young ladies have been entered in the contest for Goddess of Liberty and the fortunate winner will be gaily decked in gorgeous robes. Vote for your favorite, at five cents per vote. Tickets for seats at any of the stores. Ballot boxes at the postoffice and at Grace's store.

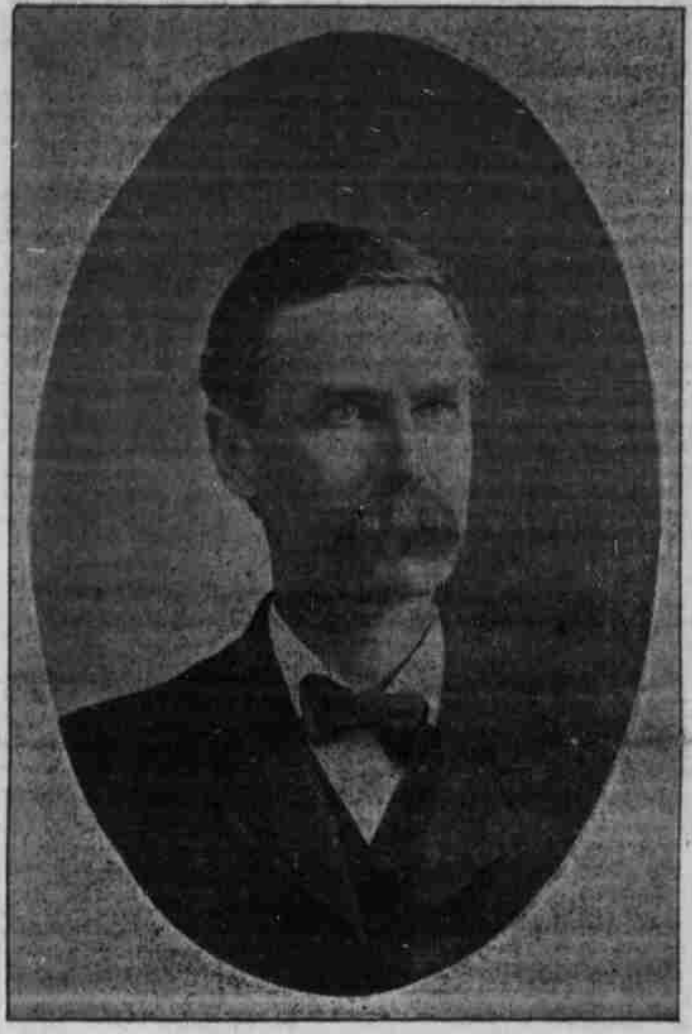

Celebrate with a will. Do not look on passively. Arouse some enthusiasm and tell your friends to go and do likewise. Make the celebration a success. The business men are doing their part. It is up to every individual to do his or hers. Commence preparations early and don't let up until the Fifth of July.

The general committee on the Fourth of July celebration met last Friday night and made an allotment of $1085 to the following funds: Program, $10; speakers, $25; special attractions, $150; firemen's contests, $175; fireworks, $200; grounds and decorations, $50; parade, $25; music, $200; sports, $125; baseball, $50; advertising, $75. The special committees have commenced the arrangement of the details of the celebration and the program will soon be complete. Last Monday morning the voting for the selection of a goddess of liberty commenced, and it is expected that a lively contest will result. Five cents will be charged for each vote. Ballot boxes have been placed in the postoffice and in G. W. Grace's store and tickets can be obtained at any store in town. The votes will be counted and the result announced daily and the contest will close at 6 P. M. Saturday, June 28.

Died On Memorial Day.

Archie Ross Pinkley, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Pinkley, died the morning of May 30, at Garfield, aged 21 years, 8 months and 20 days. Of a family of 11 children he was the next to the youngest. All but three of his brothers and sisters were present at his bedside when he passed away. His oldest sister, Mrs. Mandy was away; also two brothers, who had preceded him to the other shore in infancy. Deceased was a young man of very quiet habits and industries, well liked by all who knew him. He contracted a cold July 5, 1901, which terminated in quick consumption. He bore his suffering with great patience, never murmuring or complaining. He told his mother he had given his heart to God, and was ready to go, and wanted to be with the Lord. His last words were: "I am safe in the arms of Jesus." He never had joined any denomination—just simply a convert to God. He was buried in Mt. Zion cemetery June 1, the congregation being the largest ever attending a funeral at that place. The grave was a bank of flowers. Our loss is his eternal gain. Having helped to lift heavenward the very hearts that broke at his farewell he has gone from this world of suffering with so little knowledge of the sorrows of this world that as a bud bursting into bloom he was transplanted on the other shore to bloom on forever, not knowing a withering blast of disappointment.

FATHER OF THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

HON. W. S. U'REN.

No man in Oregon is more pleased over the vote on the initiative and referendum amendment than Hon. W. S. U'ren, of this city. For ten years he has worked unceasingly to accomplish the desired end which has now been obtained. He was the organizer of the original committee in 1892 and of the direct legislation league six years later.

Work for the passage of an initiative and referendum amendment to the constitution of Oregon was commenced in the autumn of 1892. Upon the invitation of the executive committee of the Farmer's Alliance, the Portland Chamber of Commerce, the State Grange, the Knights of Labor and Federated Trades were asked to appoint committees to advance the measure before the people. All of these bodies complied with the exception of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, and the joint committee lasted and worked for about six years. The most radical form of the referendum was demanded—that all measures should be submitted to the people. In 1898 the direct legislation league was formed and a larger committee was appointed without reference to any particular order. That committee worked for the constitutional amendment in its present form. From first to last nearly $1700 has been raised by voluntary contribution, $700 of which was spent in the last campaign.

Mr. U'ren has been secretary of the organization since it started. In 10 years there has been sent out, under his direction, over 250,000 pamphlets and folders to the citizens of Oregon advocating and explaining the referendum. Last month referendum literature was issued from his office to about 30,000 voters. He has attended every state convention of all parties in the interest of the measure during the past ten years. Since 1892 he has been present at every session of the legislature in the interest of the amendment, except the session of 1903. If any one man in the state of Oregon is entitled to the credit of the successful outcome of the movement it is W. S. U'ren, of Oregon City.

and the elocutionists, the special features and attractions all combined to make the Chautauqua successful in every particular. The multitude of camps—white tents dotting the grounds here and there, the lake, the evenings in hammocks, the tinkling of mandolin and guitar and the soft murmur of the summer breezes are all remembered.

Less than a month from today the Chautauqua of 1902 will be in full swing. The crowds will again be there. Every afternoon and evening better attractions will be presented than ever before. The Chemawa Indian Band of 22 pieces has been engaged for the whole session. The impersonator for the Chautauqua will be a celebrated New York City man. Every department of Chautauqua work will be covered, and every branch of the pleasure which accompanies the work will be represented. The management will give a baseball tournament in which five teams may compete. It will be left optional with the clubs as to the nature of the prizes. They will have the choice of a silver trophy cup for the winning team and $30 for each team for expenses, or a cash prize of $150 to the winning team and $25 to each losing club. This is an open proposition and the clubs have the choice of either prize.

Among the notable attractions at the Chautauqua this year will be Prof. S. S. Hamill, A. M., of Chicago, and his daughter, Miss Minnie Hamill. It was Prof. Hamill's other daughter, Alice Hamill Hancock, who delighted Chautauqua audiences several years ago and who was so popular then. Prof. Hamill and his daughter will be at Gladstone Park during the whole session. He is a teacher of elocution of national ability. William Jennings Bryan studied under him. Henry Watterson, editor of the Loui-

He needs no introduction to Chautauqua goers as he was here two years ago and was one of the most popular lecturers of that session. There are a very few men upon the lecture platform who have made as great a success as Thomas McClary. He has the humor of an Artemus Ward combined with the rare oratory and learning of a Wendell Phillips. He has done as much to make the lecture popular and at the same time instructive, as any man in the Lyceum field. Nature has endowed Mr. McClary with a face and figure like that of Sol. Smith Russell, and the same power with which to make an audience laugh or cry. His ideas are fresh, his illustrations apt and his wit keen.

The real orator of the assembly who will be heard on the evening of July 8, and on the afternoon of July 9, will be Robert McIntyre. He is called the "Great Word-Painter of the West," and the eloquence, humor and pathos of his lectures are undecipherable. Sam Jones, the evangelist, says that McIntyre is the finest popular speaker on the continent. He thinks in metaphors and paints in language by intuition. His oratory is matchless. The sentiments in his lectures range from grave to gay, from lively to severe, running over the gamut of human feelings. All who have been fortunate enough to hear him, pay tribute to the eloquent power and rare ability of this brilliant, earnest speaker.
