

FOR SALE.

120 acres of good timber land, 3 miles from Sherwood railroad station, 3 miles from Wilsonville and Willamette river. $15 per acre.
50 acres, all cultivated, new house and barn, on improved county road, one mile from Clackamas R. R. station, 10 miles from Portland. $75.00 per acre.

Built to Fit the Feet, Yet combining style with blissful comfort. Come in and look at our summer footwear. Late styles and better prices. KRAUSSE BROS.

How to Entertain Your Friends so they will enjoy every moment of the time. Take them to... The Wilhelm Tell House. Give them Cream Pure Rye Whisky and Gambrinus Beer.

ELECTION OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS There Are Six Candidates For the Position and Three Will be Selected. The annual election of the Oregon City school district for the election of directors...
Oregon City Market Report. (Corrected to Friday.) Wheat—No. 1, 60c bushel.

Teachers for West Oregon City. The election of teachers for the West Oregon City schools was held Tuesday night, with the following result: Prof. T. J. Gary, Jessie Grant, Jessie Humphrey, Margaret Goodfellow and Martha Strecher.

Stallion Notice BOB, the 7 Percheron, make the season of 1902. Oak Grove stock farm. Six dollars to insure. Money due when mare known to be in foal or parturient with it. J. W. DOWTY

A. S. HUNT, Willamette Falls. Fall Line of LADIES' and CHILDREN'S SHOES. Special Bargains in GROCERIES, PATENT MEDICINES.

THIRTY-TWO WERE SUCCESSFUL. Eighth Grade Examinations for May Ended and Diplomas Awarded.

County School Superintendent J. C. Zinser has awarded diplomas to the following pupils who were successful in the state uniform eighth grade examinations for May. These diplomas entitle the holder to admission into any high school in the state without further examination.

FIVE WERE GRADUATED. Commencement Exercises at the West Oregon City School.

The assembly halls of the West Oregon City School were well filled last Monday evening to witness the graduation exercises of the eighth grade. Bessie Stobe, Frances Wilkinson, Verne Batdorf, Donald Shaw and Robert Ingram were graduated from the eighth grade.

EXERCISES IN AUDITORIUM. Park Place School graduates Four Pupils Last Friday Evening.

The graduation exercises of the Park Place School were held in the auditorium at Gladstone Park last Friday evening. Six hundred and fifty people were present and many from Portland and Oregon City attended.

CLOSING OF MILWAUKIE SCHOOL. Eighth Grade Graduates Receive Diplomas Wednesday Night.

Leo Schneider, Louise Demonther, Zella Taylor, Jessie Squires, Harry West, Lucia Colfax, Martha Birkemeier and Lena Miller were graduated from the Milwaukie school Wednesday evening. The exercises were attended by a large audience.

Mrs. Gorbet was the guest of Mrs. Willson, of Pear Tree avenue, last Friday. The hay crop will be rather light in this vicinity this year, but fruit prospects are fine.

The James road is being opened, which is a great advantage to the residents of lower Colton.

Grandpa Plaud is in very poor health. He is staying at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Laflerty.

It is reported that one man in Colton, when he heard the election returns of his own precinct, was so delighted that he only got one third as much milk from his cows as usual.

Hay harvest is already closing; some have already cut their hay. Celena Jones took a ride in a new buggy through here this week.

Hall Emsley is painting his house, which improves its looks a great deal. Shannon Bros. passed through here last week on their way to bale hay for Jost, of Carus.

Mrs. Seely and young son, of Tacoma, are visiting Grandpa Seely's. A. S. Klinesmith has the material on hand for the erection of a new kitchen.

W. W. May has purchased six and one-half acres of land from F. A. Ely. Consideration, $650. S. M. Gillett put new windows in the north side of the postoffice, thereby greatly improving the light.

Miss Katherine McMillan and her mother went to Soda Springs Wednesday for the benefit of the medicinal water. F. M. Darling has sold the house formerly occupied by the postoffice to the city council for the use of Fire Company No. 4.

W. F. C. Guenther is much improved in health and seems to be in a fair way to fully regain strength to resume his former occupation. Miss Katherine McMillan went to Portland Friday evening to meet her mother, who arrived safely Saturday morning from Minnesota.

Mr. Duval was up from Sellwood on business Saturday. He and his three boys are all working in the woolen mills at that place, and are well pleased with their positions. Miss Myrtle Curran and Mr. Theodore Weed were joined in wedlock's holy bonds on Wednesday evening in the Presbyterian church in the presence of a large number of invited guests.

Born, June 7, to the wife of William Kandle, a daughter. Mother and child doing well. The Grange will give a public entertainment and Children's Day exercises in the Grange Hall Saturday, June 21.

Everybody glad to have fine weather. The cold rains damaged the fruit crop and it will not be more than half a crop in this vicinity. The fusionists got nearly one to sixteen and would not have had that if Governor Geer had done his duty and got out and canvassed for Farnish. It would also have put a feather in his cap for the U. S. Senate, but as it is, he is a political dead duck.

The Presbyterian Church observed Children's Day last Sunday. The little folks that took part in songs and recitations were: Linnie Roney, Ethel Lowellen, Lora Stormer, Willie, Grace, Ethel and Rosie Clausner, Edith Shannon, Awa Lovelace, Rosie Genserowky, Zoe Oglesby, Valna VanDyke, Gladys Baker, Eva Albright, Susie Reid, Johnnie Mager, and Miss Chiesmith. One interesting feature of the program was a missionary from Siam, Miss Hatch. She spoke and told of the ways of the people of Siam and sang a solo in their language.

One With Many Tones. Mr. Herman Anthony, of New Era, has just purchased from Eilers Piano House, 351 Washington Street, Portland, Oregon, one of the famous "Weser Orchestral Pianos" and expresses himself as delighted with it.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble. Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; heavy, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Black Hair

"I have used your Hair Vigor for five years and am greatly pleased with it. It certainly restores the original color to gray hair. It keeps my hair soft."—Mrs. Helen Kilkenny, New Portland, Me.

Ayer's Hair Vigor has been restoring color to gray hair for fifty years, and it never fails to do this work, either. You can rely upon it for stopping your hair from falling, for keeping your scalp clean, and for making your hair grow.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

here. It shows well for Brownell. The Grange is going to build a hall to hold its meetings in the near future, as the schoolhouse is too small now and there are several new members to come in soon.

Grange was organized at the Irving schoolhouse June 4, with 60 charter members. The officers were: Halder Family, 3; the Huxley Family, 2; the Yocum Family, 2; Krigbaum family, 2; Davis family, 1. E. Huffman and R. Crawford were elected by the vote of the members.

Mr. Axton has a hard time to get a crowd to talk to, as he always complains of having no hearers only as they turn out to pay their respects at funerals. As Garfield people are always good to go to hear preaching there is something wrong somewhere as G. P. Rich, of Kelso, always has large and very attentive crowds and good collections. Perhaps he tries more to emulate the great preacher, Jesus of Nazareth, and does not elab. those he was sent to call. That is why he gets the crowd and coin.

Our roads are getting good work done on them where they most need it, by the best supervisor this district has ever had. Had the voters known it would have been law to have written his name on the tickets themselves, he would have been re-elected to the office of road supervisor, as his work speaks for itself and he did not squander the people's money on by trails but put the work on the main roads where it will do the most people the most good. We are loth to see him go out as our roads are in need of just such a man to put them in a good shape.

Lockery Fruit is a month later this season, but the prospects are good. Mr. Honebone, our road supervisor, is doing some good work on the road.

Miller Bros' sawmill, four miles east of here, is the best in this end of the county. They manufacture the very best of lumber. R. W. Hardenbrook, of Portland, passed through here Wednesday on his way to the mountains to locate land.

King Spurgeon, superintendent of the upper Clackamas hatchery, passed through here on Thursday on his way to his station. Dover There was a good attendance at the meetings last Sunday.

Mrs. H. Ward, of Newberg, is here visiting her mother and brothers. The directors staked out the grounds for the new school-house Monday. Stuart Price and two girls went fishing last week. They caught five nice large fish.

Clarence Cassidy, from Pleasant Hill, was seen with his friends at Dover last Sunday. Mrs. Kofmiller and sister returned from the funeral of Mrs. E. Sherman last Sunday.

The Dover Sunday School will have their Children's Day exercises next Sunday, June 15. An interesting program has been prepared, commencing at 10:30 A. M. A basket dinner will be had that day. Everybody invited.

Fred Stevens was in Greenwood Sunday. Miss May Cahill has returned from Heppner. Mr. Blazier's family have moved into their new house.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kruger were visiting in Loggan Sunday. Harry Eastman expects to leave for Idaho Wednesday, with a surveying party.

George McCormack was at home Sunday. He is working in the sawmill at New Era. Mrs. William Jones has returned from San Francisco, accompanied by her sister-in-law.

Miss Etta McCormack returned home Tuesday. She has been visiting Miss Mabel Anthony in Oregon City. Mrs. Geo. Everett, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Kruger. She intends to spend the summer here.

Mrs. Laura McCormack and Misses Mary and Martha Rider spent Wednesday with Mrs. E. M. Waldron, of Oregon City. Gates Joshua R. Gorbett has a crew of men slashing for him. Jim Marrs, of Rocky Point, was a caller in Colton, June 7.

Burt Palmer went to Oregon City last Saturday with a fine beef cow. The Young Company's show was well attended last Saturday night at the city hall.

CORRESPONDENCE

Our correspondents will please send in articles before Wednesdays of each week, otherwise it reaches us too late for publication.

Eldorado. Mrs. F. Irish is on the sick list. A. L. Jones lost a valuable horse last week.

Mrs. Otto Striker called on Mrs. O. Adkins Sunday. The shingle weavers of Liberal are doing a rushing business.

Leon Jones and Sidney Smith went fishing the first of the week. Mrs. Minnie Fanton is staying at home during her mother's illness.

Fred Stevens has quit going fishing. He says they don't bite good. Mrs. J. J. Mallett was visiting her niece, Mrs. Pearson, Monday.

Misses Mary Molan and Veva Jones went to Canby one day last week. Otto Striker and George Helvey were breaking a new horse to work Sunday.

Clarence Mallett, of Maple Lane, was visiting friends here one day last week. Mrs. Goucher's sister and brother-in-law, of Ohio, are visiting relatives here.

A. L. and W. H. Jones just finished planting four acres of potatoes for the latter. There will be a dance at the old George Rauch house Saturday night. Everybody come and have a good time.

There was a dance at Mr. Pendleton's last Tuesday night and all who attended report having had a jolly good time. Dancing was indulged in until 3 o'clock when all departed for their respective homes. Coffee and cake were served at midnight. Those present were: Misses Aenes Wallace, Betha Herron, Verne Smith, Veve Jones, Sosie, Reta and Babe Bowman, Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. McDonald, Messrs. B. McDonald, J. Darnell, P. Pendleton, Harris, Jot Mallett, Ernest Davis, Frank Manning, Clyde Smith, Martin Christensen, and John Bonds.

Carus. Rev. Elmer preached Sunday. F. Vonderabe lost a valuable horse last week. Born, June 5, to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eaton, a daughter.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Tondon spent Monday with Mrs. Faust. Milton Mav, of Oregon City, spent Sunday with his cousins, Louis and Cora Jaggar.

The Misses Thomas, White and Dilla spent Sunday evening with the Misses Guyer. Albert and Clara Schoenburn and Bertha Spangler went to Highland to a picnic Saturday.

Boring. James Norris is improving his land here. Vetsch Bros. have purchased a new spring wagon. J. A. Richey is doing some carpenter work on his house.

Joseph Osborn and wife were guests of E. E. Richey Sunday. Mr. U. Ambsieger and wife made a trip to Portland last week. O. W. Boring made a flying trip to Portland in his buggy Sunday, June 1.

Mr. Kristerson is making quite a number of improvements on his land here. U. Burroughs has his new barn nearly completed, which is a great improvement. William Richey, of Sycamore, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Richey, Sunday.

Election over and the Republicans are wearing smiling faces, while the soreheads are drooping around in a most melancholy way. The West End road boss, J. A. Richey, has a crew of hands working on the Richey and Bradley road, so plank can be laid in low wear future.

The Damascus creamery, under the supervision of Vetsch Bros., is doing a rushing business. They have secured a cream route through Kelso and Sandy, and send a wagon every other day to gather cream. At present they are making about 1200 lbs. of butter a week.

Garfield. Pleasant weather this. Mrs. Monk, son and daughter moved to Molalla to live. Mr. Clapo was kicked by his horse and somewhat hurt at Mr. Haider's place, the evening of June 6.

Mrs. Annie Covey is no better. It is feared she will not be able to go to Dulur, as she had hoped, to regain her health. Miss Heensethem's school will close next week. She has advanced the scholars very fast. They hope to have her return this fall.

Almost everyone is glad election is over and that Brownell was elected, as quite a number of Citizens voted for him.

IN CUBA where it is hot all the year round Scott's Emulsion sells better than any where else in the world. Do not stop taking it in summer, or you will lose what you have gained.