

Personal Mention

Wright, of Mackburg, was in Monday. George Robinson, of Clackamas, was in city Tuesday. Mr. Rudolph, of Viola, was circulating our streets Monday. G. Huntley and family left this for Government Camp. Mr. and Mrs. A. Hess, of Arlington, visiting friends in this city. Bert Hallinan, is spending his vacation in Oswego and in Polk county. Wetzler, of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City Wednesday on business. Mrs. W. H. Conyers, of Clatskanie, was Oregon City visitor Thursday. Mrs. Ed Shaw who has been very ill the past week, is much improved. Mr. Lippitt, of Colfax, Wash., visited daughter in this city last Sunday. Mrs. Sheehan left Wednesday for an in the vicinity of the Toll road. Master Charles Leland, of this city, is visiting friends and relatives in Oswego. Mr. Ed Shaw, who has been sick for some time, is reported to be convalescing. Mr. and Mrs. Petrol and family left on Monday. Mr. Fred Hedges, of Everett, Wash., is in the city visiting relatives for a short time. Mrs. Ethel Albright will leave next day for California to remain during winter. Mr. Fred Warner left Wednesday for a two week's outing at beach. C. R. Smith, a prominent politician Eagle Creek, was seen on our streets Saturday. Mrs. Schobel, postmaster at Shubel, in Oregon City Monday on a business mission. Mrs. Young, of Redland, a prosperous member of that section, was in Oregon City last Friday. W. Noblett, of Canby, was in the city last Saturday attending to business matters. Mrs. M. Bradley, Mrs. Taylor, and Mrs. Lena Graves left for Newport for an outing Saturday. Mrs. W. B. Wiggins and children, of Portland, spent the week in this city, visiting relatives. August Christenson, who lost his leg in the Crown Paper Mills is able to go on the street again. Mrs. Bishop, of Ely, entertained a few guests at luncheon Wednesday. A very enjoyable time was spent. Mrs. L. C. Caples, of Goldendale, who has been visiting in this city for some time, left for her home Monday. Henry Pape, one of Salem's printing firms, was in Oregon City for an hour or two last Friday evening. Herman Lee, recorder of the little city Canby, was in the county metropolis Monday on a mission of business. G. W. Steele and family and J. H. Hedrum and family are taking their trip in the vicinity of Mount Hood. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams and son, are spending a two week's vacation Long Beach, guests at The Newton. Miss Lulu Mortimer, of Portland, who has been visiting friends in this city for the past week returned home Wednesday. Henry Ganz, one of the most prosperous farmers in the vicinity of Oswego, is a county seat visitor Monday forenoon. D. C. Latourette and nephew, E. F. Sigs, of New York, returned Monday from Seaside, where they spent a few days. Miss Maud Warner, who has been at the sanitarium in Portland for the last two weeks is better and will return home next week. Miss Ethel DeParco, of Salem, who spent some time in our city visiting her grandparents, returned home last Sunday. Geo. Herrin, who is well known in this city is employed in Sellings' store during the absence of Mr. Selling in San Francisco. O. Genglebach, a prominent citizen of Clackamas, was in town Monday. The enterprise acknowledges a call from the gentleman. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grace visited M. Hess and family at Molalla over Sunday, returning Monday, spending that day with Geo. Ogle. Messrs. D. and C. Caulfield started on Monday for a ten or twelve day's outing in the vicinity of the Toll Gate road. They will devote their time to fishing and hunting. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce C. Curry and son, Mrs. J. P. Keating and Mrs. E. A. Sommer, left yesterday for an outing at Newport. They will remain about two weeks. Henry Hornschub, of Beaver Creek precinct, was in the county seat Monday looking after important business matters. Mr. Hornschub reports harvest in full blast and splendid prospects for an abundant yield of grain. M. D. Baum, who has been employed for a long time as salesman in Selling's store, and who has been seriously ill for several weeks, has been removed to the hospital, where he will receive the best attention. His friends hope soon to hear of his complete recovery. Rev. F. K. Hammond, rector of St. Paul's church, with his family is sojourning at the coast for some time. In consequence there will be no services for the next three weeks at the Episcopal church, but the rector will return and resume his labors on Sunday, August 31.

Local Events.

Drs. R. B. and A. L. Beatie, Dentists, Weinhard Bldg. For views of the city and the Falls call on Snodgrass, the Photographer. Call on J. J. Cooke and get prices on Sun-Set City lots before buying elsewhere. Flowers, silks, frames, fancy trimming, special offering. Miss Goldsmith. Hats and pants at cost at G. W. Grace's store, head of Seventh street. The regular monthly meeting of the school board will be held next Monday night. For fine photos call on Snodgrass, 10th and Main Streets. All work strictly up-to-date. If you need a Hat, don't wait. Call early and get a Bargain. Miss Goldsmith. In Multnomah county Monday a license to wed was issued to J. M. Hayden, of this county, and Mrs. Anna Nelson. If you contemplate buying property in Oregon City, call on J. J. Cooke and get prices on lots in Sun-Set City, just across the river. The young daughter of Harry Mearns, while playing with other children a few days ago, fell, sustaining a fracture of the radius of her left arm. The only good printing in the county is found at the Enterprise office. Prices right. Stock, style and workmanship unequalled. Prompt printing. If our population continues to decrease by reason of people going to the coast and mountains, there won't be many of us left by another week or two. Only morning services will be held in the Congregational church during the month of August. The pulpit will be occupied by clergymen from other places. Sun-Set-City lots are the nearest the Mills of any that are on the market. Call on J. J. Cooke, president of the Sun-Set Land Company, and get prices. A large number of people from all parts of the country were attracted to the county seat this week to interview the board of commissioners on various matters. Valley hop growers are canvassing the country in a systematic manner, through agencies and otherwise, for pickers. They fear a great scarcity of help in the hop fields. Hon. Binger Hermann, commissioner of the general land office, is on his way to Oregon, from Washington, and will spend several weeks at his home in Roseburg. Orpheus temple of Rathbone Sisters, of Portland, will visit Oregon City next Thursday evening, coming by special car, and will indulge in dancing at Canemah Park. The Sellwood Hotel is soon to change hands. Anton Meyer, of the Sellwood market, is to be "mine host" there, and this alone is enough to insure the very best of accommodation. John Wilson, a Knight of the road, had a hearing before Justice Curry Wednesday for taking up his lodgings in a box car the night before. He was given 30 days in the county jail. A divorce suit was filed with Clerk Sleight Wednesday by Wallace W. Ayres, entering a plea of desertion and abusive treatment. The couple were married in 1899 in Kansas. Edward Olds, of this city, who has charge of the repair work on the bridge at Jones mill road, reports the improvements nearly completed. This attention has been demanded for some time. Frank Welch, a confectionery dealer on Lower Main street, had his place of business closed Wednesday by J. P. Lovett, of the ice works. Welch was unable to meet his financial obligations. The regular monthly session of the county commissioners is being held this week with a large volume of business to be attended to, a detailed report of which will appear in the Enterprise next week. A. J. Finch was released from custody Monday. He was arrested in Portland on the 26th of last month on a charge of embezzlement. His friends straightened up the matter and the affair was settled out of court. The will of Samuel H. Kennedy was admitted to probate in Judge Ryan's court Tuesday. The estate is valued at $4000 and is left to his four children, Sarah Hirschback, Jesse Kennedy, Tillie Ann and Samuel Kennedy. After an illness of a little over two years, J. F. A. Schraet died at his home at Damascus Tuesday. Deceased was a time-honored employee of the O. R. & N., having served for over 20 years as ship carpenter of that corporation. In Judge Stipp's court Monday the demurrer filed by the defendant in the matter of O. A. Cheney vs. W. W. May was argued, and demurrer sustained. The plaintiff was given until tomorrow to file a new and amended complaint. Senator Mitchell arrived home from the East Tuesday evening. He says there is no danger of the army headquarters being removed from Vancouver to Seattle. He will remain in Portland three weeks and then continue on to Hawaii. The Retail Clerk's Protective Association of this city is growing in popularity. At the meeting held Tuesday evening two new members were taken in. It was decided to hold the regular meetings on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Edward Scott and Miss Jeanette Fairclough were married at Newport on Thursday of last week. The groom is a prominent contractor of this city, and the young couple have a host of friends who wish them a happy journey through life. They will make Oregon City their home in the future.

Some very extensive improvements are being made on the electric road in the vicinity of Milwaukie. The steamshovel will soon be taken to Midrum's curve, and material taken to fill the trestle between this city and the Clackamas river. This undertaking will require much time.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, holds services in Red Men's Hall every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject for Sunday, August 10, "Mind." Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at 7:30 o'clock. Christian Science literature can be obtained before or after any of these services.

The contest for the prize offered by the merry-go-round people for the most popular young lady in town has been closed and the prize awarded to Miss Lottie Bingham, a native of this city. There were several competitors, and Miss Bingham had a number of close rivals. The prize was a gold watch, and the young lady is happy in the possession of her present.

Messrs. Freytag & Kramer opened their new cigar factory on Main street this week. The gentlemen are professionals in their line, and will endeavor to manufacture such a grade of goods that Oregon City smokers will no longer be required to import their articles of luxury in that line. We bespeak for the new firm a deserved share of the public patronage and predict a career of success for them.

J. J. Cooke has opened a Real Estate office in Oregon City, and will devote the principal part of his time to selling lots in Sun-Set City, which at the present are the most desirable lots in the city for sale, and on the most reasonable terms. This property is situated immediately across the river and is only five minutes walk from the mills. These lots can be sold on terms to suit the purchaser, ranging from $150.00 to $300.00. This property will double in value in a short time.

In Judge Ryan's court Tuesday morning the will of Samuel H. Kennedy, of this city, was admitted to probate. The administrator in the Boyer estate made his final report and was ordered to collect certain money due the estate and make a few corrections in his report before his discharge from duty. Notice was given that steps will be taken to have a further hearing in the W. F. Green estate over the sale of certain real estate some time ago. The heirs brought an action to have the sale set aside, but Judge Ryan refused to do so, and confirmed the sale.

A genuine, true fish story, all wool and a yard wide, emanates from the assessor's office. David Mathews, assistant to Mr. Williams, accompanied by Lloyd Williams, were fishing on the Clackamas, the particular point the boys refuse to reveal. It was Sunday when they made their extraordinary large catch. They declare they were successful in capturing 235 trout, and we have no reason to question their statement. They will no doubt pay frequent visits to that stream, but cannot hope to always have a monopoly on so good a thing. Somebody may spot them, and another case of "someone being there while they've been gone" will be a matter for record.

Ice Cream That Is—At Huntley's

Special Sale of Hammocks

They must all go during the next week. To make sure of it we offer 25 per cent discount from prices that are already below the market. 69 cents up.

Books for Vacation

Special sale of cloth bound books worth from 25c to 50c each. Your choice while they last, 15 cents. See them in the window. Paper bound books, all the standard novels, got copyright, 12 1-2 cents.

Why not get your Soda where pure cream is used--at Huntley's

Table listing various items and prices: Photo Supplies (Photo Albums, Trays, Rubber Roller), Knives Razors Scissors Hones, Fishing Tackle and Sundries (Jointed Pole, PLY Hooks, Reels, Lines), Kodaks and Cameras Special (Pocket Kodak, POCO, Brownie Camera, Cycle POCO), CARD MOUNTS, TRIPOD, DARK ROOM LAMP, MANICURE GOODS, FLY BOOKS, PLAYING CARDS, PING PONG, HAMMOCKS, CHASE MAGAZINE, VIVE, EUREKA JR.

C. G. Huntley W. A. Huntley Popular Price Druggists and Booksellers OREGON CITY.

FRANK BUSCH

THE HOUSEFURNISHER

An Economy.

We can't speak too strongly of the economy of having a refrigerator. These are substantially made, with extra thick galvanized iron lining, and are scientifically packed to insure perfect preservation of food and economical use of ice. Our regular size at $10.00 is a marvel of convenience.

Hammocks 90c up

Garden Tools.

It's time to buy a good supply of garden tools. We are making special offerings that should interest you on rakes, spades, spading forks, hoes, garden sets, shears, shovels, trowels, etc. They are the kind that do the work to your liking. Full size Hoe or Rake for 25c up.

Linoleum.

If you knew the cleanliness and comfort of a dining room floor covered with one of our linoleums in perfect imitation of carpet, you would not think of buying anything else under your dining table. A glance at the rich patterns is enough for the wise housewife. Good quality 65c per square yard.

Lace Curtains.

Here are novelties made to our order in exclusive designs. In the magnitude and variety of these Lace Curtains, in their artistic excellence and in their unusually low prices we present a sale that will be profitable and helpful to you in draping and adorning your home. Lace curtain material 12 1/2c per yard and up.

Coal Oil Stoves.

If you have a small room, with no way to put up a cook stove, you will be interested in one of those small oil stoves with large oven. They are highly recommended during hot weather, and more so for camping. They use little oil. Price with oven $2.50.

Croquet Sets.

More attention has been given to make these sets substantial. Balls and mallets are made out of hard wood, the handles tough and firm. Price $1.00 for a four-ball set.

Iron Beds.

There is so much more pleasure in the iron beds of to-day than in the old heavy wooden beds used in the days gone by. There is a beauty, grace and economy in these iron beds with brass trimmings. We furnish you the entire outfit, bed, spring, mattress and all, for $6.25.

Tents and Camp Furniture.

We have a good stock of tents, and sell them as cheap as $3.00.