Our correspondents will please send in articles before Wednesdays of each week, otherwise it reaches us too late for publication.

Molalla.

A decided change in temperature for the past ten days is very perceptible. Instead of registering around 100 in the shade, we now have 80 for the maximum number.

Grain is about all harvested, with threshing begun in earnest. The yield seems to be fairly good in well tilled fields.

Molalla now has three first-class threshing outfits, "Advance" separators driven by Russell engines. Vick & Schamel have been making a run near Hubbard, the Cole Bros. from here to Aurora, while the Shaver & Harless outfit confines itself to this locality.

The exodus to Willhoit keeps the air full of dust.

Molalla will soon have a grange hall. The outside work will soon be completed. It will be ready for No. 310 to move into about October.

W. O. Vaughn burned his 100-acre slashing last Saturday; likewise Anthony Moorer burned his 120-acre of felled timber, and many clouds of smoke were noticed ascending skyward from several localities; thus many acres in one day were shed of their virgin covering, to be replaced next year with grasses and golden grain.

Our merchant, Wayne Robbins, has just returned from a two week's trip to the Hot Springs.

Bert Perry had the misfortune to have his horse stray off in the mountains. He and his father have gone back to look for it.

Mrs. Stewart and son, of Seattle, who have been visiting their uncle, J. D. Jordan, for two weeks, returned home Monday.

Hop-picking will begin September 8. Pickers are scarce here. As usual, it is the lad to go off from home on this occasion that the whole family may have an outing of pleasure and profit.

John Bagby is on the sick list at John Stewart's with the "shingles."

Miss Belle Daugherty started for California Monday, where she expects to remain.

There will be preaching at the school house hall next Sunday at 11 o'clock by an able man.

Mrs. Bagby has gone to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Sanford, of Glencoe, Washington county.

Miss Mattie Leavitt expects to leave next week for Vancouver, where she has been engaged to teach in the schools for the year.

Mrs. Mary Brown and family, of Ilwaco, Wash., are visiting at the home of R. R. Thomas.

Smryna

Slashing fires have been the order of the day and night the past week.

Fred Watson's barn, with five tons of hay and some oats in shock in a field adjoining, were burned last Wednesday. The fire caught from a slashing fire near by.

Miss Ida Yoder returned from Seaside last Wednesday. She had been enjoying the sea breeze for the past six weeks.

Mrs. Sadie Scholl, of Hubbard, was visiting Miss Ida Yoder last Thursday, returning home Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Yoder and daughter, Effie, of Lexington, Ill., are visiting the former's brother, A. J. Yoder, and other friends and relatives here, arriving last Wednesday morning. This is Mr. Yoder's second visit to Clackamas county, he having made a tour of the coast in March 1890, right after the big wind storm of January 9th. He is very favorably impressed with the progress made in this part of the county in the time intervening between his visits.

A party of all ages and both sexes left here Tuesday morning for the huckleberry patch at High Camo, expecting to be gone the remainder of the week. Of course they don't expect to leave a berry on any of the bushes nor a fish in any of the streams. "But we shall see what we shall see" after they return. There were eleven persons, old and young, composing the party.

Black Hair

"I have used your Hair Vigor for five years and am greatly pleased with it. It certainly restores the original color to gray hair. It keeps my hair soft."—Mrs. Helen Kilkenny, New Portland, Me.

Ayer's Hair Vigor has been restoring color to gray hair for fifty years, and it never fails to do this work, either.

You can rely upon it for stopping your hair from falling, for keeping your scalp clean, and for making your hair grow.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Dover.

Two young men from Portland, Veri Bennett and George Kitzmiller, were out hunting, when the former was accidentally shot through the foot.

Robert DeShazer and company started out with their threshing machine. We wish them success.

Mr. and Mrs. Duesenberry are looking for a home. We hope they will settle here, as they seem to be the kind of people we want here.

Mrs. Price and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sirobridge last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bowman and Grandpa Bowman went to Salmon river last Tuesday. While on their return home they stopped at a stream to eat lunch. Their little girl accidentally fell in the creek, but as her grandpa was close by, he rescued the child.

Rev. Eason will preach his farewell sermon here next Sunday.

Central Point

The people are all busy at Central Point harvesting and threshing grain. This fine weather stimulates every man to put forth his best efforts. The wheat crop is not yielding very well. About two-thirds of the usual crop. Bartlett pears are almost a failure. The apple crop is fairly good. The dry weather will cut the potato yield short. Hops are very fine. Your correspondent was through the eighteen-acre hop yard of Geo. Randall & Son and found the hops in splendid condition. They are bright and large and the vines well loaded. There is every chance for pickers to make money. Randall & Son are expert hop-pickers. Picking will begin the 2nd of September in the Randall yard.

Aims.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bramhall attended the Soldiers' Reunion at Pleasant Home.

Several of our people will go hop-picking, owing to the high price reported.

L. C. Lowe cut oats on his ranch here, that stood nearly six feet high.

Mrs. W. D. Thomas will leave here Monday next for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Thomas, of Beaver Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Saylor, of Latourelle, are running the boarding house for J. V. Bramhall.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt. Jones, of Aims, visited their daughter, Mrs. Earl Elliott, who was quite sick at her home in Powell's Valley, last week.

Railway ties and railroad wood continues to float down the Sandy river, and there is still timber enough within reach to keep it full for years to come.

Union Mills.

Miss Addie Christensen and Miss Morie, of Liberal, visited Mrs. Dell Trullinger during the week.

Mrs. Albright and son, Charlie, are visiting friends here.

Dell Trullinger and family started to the mountains Monday for berries.

Frank Shaw started for Eastern Oregon Saturday.

Ely.

F. A. and Mrs. Ely left for Newport Monday morning where they will spend a month, more or less, enjoying the health-giving breezes of the ocean.

Mr. Beard and family arrived home Saturday evening after a week's very pleasant camping at Clear creek.

The Bullard brothers and Carl Frederick returned Monday from a successful trip after huckleberries at Mount Hood.

Strenuous efforts are being made by different parties to engage hands for a number of hop yards.

The regular meetings of Maple Lane Grange have been changed from the last of the first Saturday of the month.

Mr. Seeley has his new house up and expects to have it enclosed before the rainy season.

Mrs. Seeley, Sr., and Miss Carrie Seeley have returned from a visit to friends and relatives in Tacoma.

Mrs. S. A. Gillett and Mr. S. V. Francis went to Taalain last week to attend the funeral of their father, Mr. Francis.

Charlie Albright and his mother and Mrs. Frank Bullard are spending a few days in the country.

Beaver Creek.

W. M. Shannon has just returned from Chinook, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Thomas received the sad news of the death of their daughter, Hanna Hanson, at Salem.

Fred Hughes is here on a visit from Chinook.

Mrs. W. M. Thomas, of Bullrun, is visiting T. B. Thomas, of Beaver Creek.

Threshing is almost over and hop-picking is at hand.

The Beaver Creek school house will soon be completed.

Lockerby.

J. F. Gilbert and W. H. Heald, of Lents, were up the Clackamas fishing recently.

John Tuckholke, of Clackamas passed through here recently from east of the mountains, where he had been at work.

Thomas Riley, of Tygh valley, who has a band of sheep in the mountains, came down for supplies a short time ago.

C. A. Phillips and John R. Lanties, of Clackamas, passed this place on their way to the mountains a few days ago.

J. W. Roots and T. A. Roots, of Clackamas, were up looking after timber land last week.

Max Klartsch and Paul Klartsch, of Portland, were camping on the North Fork last week.

J. C. Branham and J. N. Boxton, of Troutdale, passed through here a few days ago for Clear Lake, and Mount Jefferson. They expect to be gone about four weeks.

John Straight and family and Paul Praeger, of Parkplace came up last week to work on their homesteads.

Anton Ware and family, of Parkplace, were up on their homesteads building a house and digging a well recently.

W. H. Creighton and wife came up from Portland on the 20th. They expect to go as far as Hot Springs.

THE STORY TOLD BY THE SEA

Go to the Beach Via A. & C. R. R. and Hear What the Wild Waves Say.

The story, "What the Wild Waves Say at Seaside" so strikingly told in the attractive pamphlet recently issued by J. C. Mayo, G. P. A., Astoria, is better appreciated after a trip to the now popular Clatsop Beach, via the A. & C. R. R. Cheap round trip excursion rates and unexcelled transportation facilities offered between Portland and the beaches continues to attract large crowds to Flavel, Gearhart and Seaside. Round trip excursion tickets between Portland and all Clatsop and North Beach points are sold every Saturday at $2.50, interchangeable with all boat lines and good to return Sunday evening. Trains leaving Portland at 8 o'clock A. M. daily runs through direct to Gearhart and Seaside without transfer, making close connections at Warrenton for Flavel. Portland-Seaside express leaves union depot every Saturday at 2:30 p. m. and runs through direct with transfer, arriving at Astoria at 5:50 p. m., Gearhart, 6:40 p. m. and Seaside, 6:50 p. m., making close connections at Warrenton for Flavel.

DAIRY NOTES.

Good butter should be sold from the time it is put upon the table. Any excitement in the dairy cow tends to lessen the flow of milk.

Falling to get all the buttermilk out causes butter to become rancid soon.

To obtain the best results in churning the cream should be only slightly sour.

In winter the cream should be warmed up to about 60 degrees before putting in the churn.

One advantage in brine salting is that it almost entirely avoids streaked or mottled butter.

The milk should always be skimmed while sweet and the cream then allowed to turn slightly sour.

Sometimes butter has white specks distributed through it. This is caused by oversourness in the cream.

In butter making next to controlling the temperature is to churn often while the cream is in good condition.

With temperature under control and churning done at the right time the butter will become solid and be easily handled.

On the farm to make the most out of the milk and butter some of the cows should be bred to come fresh in the spring and some in the fall.—St. Louis Republic.

A Simple Remedy.

The readiness of some people to send for a man to do those little things about the house which the smallest amount of enterprise or ingenuity would enable them to do for themselves is illustrated by an incident reported in the Chicago Tribune of a family named Chusker.

They had bought some new gas burners with mantles. For a week or two the light was satisfactory; then it grew dim and dimmer until Mrs. Chusker sent for the gas fitter.

"It grows worse all the time," she explained. "When was it put in?" asked the man.

"About a month ago."

"Ah, yes; I see."

Then he lifted the chimney off, took it out to the kitchen, washed it with soap and water, and the light burned as brightly as ever.

"Fifty cents," said the man.

An Argument For Social Frankness.

It is best to be sincere, as a family in Germantown recently found out. They had been entertaining a distinguished novelist from abroad who was not altogether acquainted with society's way of saying things it does not mean. The time came for her departure, and as the host was handing her to the carriage he said very courteously, "I am sorry you cannot stay longer."

To which came the unlooked for retort, "Oh, but I can!"

There was only one course open. The trunks were taken down, the carriage sent away, and, to the consternation of her hosts, the lady re-entered the house.—Philadelphia Times.

Red Snow.

In the arctic regions early explorers were astounded to find large areas of red snow, but the phenomenon is now familiar to men of science, who know that red snow, like a green garden fence, is due to the presence of unicellular algae, the only difference being in the coloring matter of the protoplasm. It is said that acres of snow are frequently covered in a single night by these tiny plants.—Good Words.

The Climate.

"Don't you think you have a very changeable climate?" said the stranger. "No," said the native. "It changes fast enough when it's pleasant, but when it's disagreeable it hangs on like grim death."—Washington Star.

Innocent Girl.

Sarcastic Father—Julia, that young man Sully has been here three nights in succession, and it has been nearly midnight when he left. Hadn't you better invite him to bring his trunk and make his home with us?

Innocent Daughter—Oh, papa! May I? It was just what he wanted, but he was too bashful to ask you. He'll be delighted when I tell him this evening.

Leading Him On.

He—Would your mother let you go to the theater without a chaperon? She—Not unless I was engaged.—Brooklyn Life.

No Such Place.

"Safety" expresses an idea. It isn't the name of any place on earth.—Boston Journal.
