Many months before school season we are in the market looking for bargains—trying to get a little more than regular values by the twin persuaders of large orders and spot cash. Sometimes we can't find just what we want—then we have it made to order—for instance, our Big Value Tablets. They have better paper and more of it for 5c than anything ever put out in the regular 5c. line. The regular dealer won't pay the price—Not one out of ten—the margin is so small. But the children appreciate them—we have to buy them in thousand lots—Same all through the long lists—Pencils—Inks—Slates—Erasers—Rulers—Sponges—Straps—Bags—Scholars Companion—and all the necessaries. Best of all we treat the children just as well as their parents. Don't hesitate to let them do their own buying, if you can't well come too. . . .
