

LOCAL NOTES.

The militia company will hold a meeting in the very near future for the purpose of electing a successor to Captain Leighton Kelly. Discharges will be issued to thirteen members, who have left the community.

Allie Grant, a lad of about fourteen years, met with the misfortune last Saturday of sustaining a fracture of his right arm, while taking part in the gymnastic performances at the Y. M. C. A. In this respect the boy is very unfortunate, in the last year or two having met with accidents of that kind on one or two other occasions.

Everything points toward a favorable announcement concerning the church debt at the Congregational church next Sunday evening. There will be no canvassing for funds during the day, so none need stay away for fear of an ecclesiastical hold-up. The morning and evening themes, respectively, will be "Beauty and Hands" and "Some Important Questions about Work."

Last Friday County Treasurer Cahill sent to the state treasurer $10,000, as part payment of the state tax. The former treasurer had paid $15,000 on the state tax account, the total already having been paid amounting to $25,000. The total tax due the state was something over $31,000, hence a balance of about $6,000 remains unpaid. The time for taxpaying expired on Monday, about $162,000 having been collected, the delinquent list amounting to only about $7,000.

Captain J. F. Clark, well known in this city and county, died last Saturday evening at the home of Fred Painter, in Canemah, after an illness of several months. He was brought to this city a short time ago for treatment, from Molalla, his ailment being paralysis. He was prominent in G. A. R. circles, having been a captain in the civil war. He had resided in Oregon City a great many years, being employed by the General Electric Company. He is survived by a wife, daughter, Mrs. Bogard, and a son, who reside in New York. The funeral took place Monday afternoon and was largely attended.

Harvey Cross returned Tuesday from his farm at Springwater, where he and his wife had been for about three weeks. Mr. Cross devoted his time there to repairing his farm property which had been visited by the late fire. There was no fence left on his place, and it was necessary, to protect his lands, to put out a considerable sum in replacing the property destroyed. Mr. Cross says the people of Springwater are adjusting themselves to the new conditions and are getting along very well under the circumstances. He is inclined to the belief that the losses, although in some cases very severe, have been greatly overestimated.

Some time since it was announced that August Erickson, the 18-year-old son of Andrew Erickson, of this city, had disappeared from Portland, where he had gone in quest of employment, it being afterward learned that he had gone to sea. In Wednesday's issue of the Telegram appeared the account of the death of a young man named Erickson, at sea, and it is feared that it is August Erickson. His father is now in Canada, having departed for that country only about a week ago, and the mother, who remains here is very much concerned about her son. It cannot be learned positively that young Erickson is dead, but the chances are that such is the case.

Madison Square Company at Gainard's
Lowe's Madison Square Theatre Company has been playing to good houses at Gainard's Opera House this week. Last night every seat was occupied and the gallery was nearly filled. The audience was an exceptionally good one for a comedy play in Ashland.

The repertoire for the week has composed some delightful farces, rural and sensational comedy drama, of clean and entertaining character, free from the horse play and vulgar allusion too common with many play companies coming through here. The cast shows merit and versatility, in view of the fact that there is a new bill every night and the play has been enjoyed by the audience each time.

The company which comprises some good players consists of W. F. Scheiler, Geo. A. Ellis, Leana Leigh, Geo. W. Penrose, Geo. Adams, Misses Mildred Eddy, Phyllis Barrington, Hattie Lamar, Passie May Lester and Add J. Sharpley.

They have given the best entertainment for the money that Ashland has had for a long time.

The above company will open a week's engagement at Shively's opera house, commencing Monday, October 13th.

"Laugh and Grow Fat."
Life is such a serious business to the average mortal that an opportunity for a hearty laugh is more than welcome to most people. "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine," and so do the humorous features of that great metropolitan daily, The Chicago Record-Herald. The first thing that greets you on the first page of every issue is the humorous cartoon by John T. McCutcheon, the well-known artist, that frequently tells more at a glance than could be conveyed in a column of reading matter. Every issue contains also a humorous small story on the editorial page and the "Alternating Currents" column written by S. E. Kiser, one of the most popular humorists in the country. In addition to all these, the Sunday issue always includes a comic section, guaranteed to produce laughter.

His Life in Peril.

"I just seem to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bos, of Welfare, Tex., "billions and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength, and enjoy hard work." They gave vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, run-down people. Try them. Only 50c at Harding's drug store.
