The story is that nearly all the big belts of commercial timber in Oregon are swiftly passing into the hands of three Eastern syndicates.

It looks like a prosperous winter for the dairy industry. Higher prices for milk, butter and cheese seem to be favored.

The big papers fill their field, but the local newspaper is as much a necessity. Life in a town without a paper is worse than living in the Sahara desert.

Primarily for the purpose of aiding and encouraging such matters as the Marquam fair, recently held, do we this week publish a complete list of the awards made for exhibits.

THIS IS OREGON.

The spirit of content prevails in the West. No longer is there a desire on the part of those who come to the coast seeking homes to return to their native heath.

In these things Oregon has reached a condition that makes it sought for and wide by people in all walks of life, from the common laborer to the millionaire.

This, today, is the high ground of Oregon's advantages, which is giving to us a permanent citizenship in the contented homes that dot the land in every direction.

Destiny is marking out a grand future for the present boys and girls who with commendable pride can say they are native Oregonians or Oregonians by adoption.

SCHOOL AGRICULTURE.

There has been a great deal of talk lately in regard to the teaching of agriculture and horticulture in the rural schools. Doubtless great good could be accomplished in this way if there were teachers qualified for the work.

J. M. CLAY, an influential populist of Chase county, Kansas, was recently chosen secretary of the populist county convention, but he declined, saying, "The people's party has gone out of existence."

The Silverton Appeal, under the impression that the Marquam Fair has outgrown Marquam, wants the fair moved to Silverton. It would be far more sensible and profitable to move it further away from the foothills and relocate it at such a prosperous railway junction as Woodburn.

It begins now to look very much as though the governor would be so importuned that he will convene the legislature in extraordinary session before the time for the regular session.

In the death of John G. Porter Clackamas county loses a man it can ill afford to lose. He was quiet and unostentatious but positive and effective in all he did.

"THE CONQUEST" SOON TO APPEAR

Mrs. Dye Returns From Making Final Arrangements for It.

Mrs. C. H. Dye returned last Friday from a trip to Chicago, where she had been for three weeks, reading the final proofs on her book, "The Conquest," which is to appear early in November.

"Mrs. Dye, the gifted author, is in Helena on her return to her home at Oregon City, after a trip to Chicago for a last consultation with her publishers before the launching of the latest novel from her pen, and while here is the guest of Mrs. S. T. Hanser, on Madison avenue.

"Mrs. Dye is a young woman, instead of being the old woman some of her readers imagine her, and while she has turned her pen to the perpetuation of the history of the Northwest, it is to be noted that she is not a native of the country in which she lives and of which she writes.

"While in Helena Mrs. Dye will confer with Olin D. Wheeler, the editor of "Wonderland," the annual of the Northern Pacific railway, who comes here from Red Lodge today for the purpose of securing data from the author regarding the Lewis and Clark expedition.

Manufacturing Steam Engines.

This city is soon to be the home of another very important manufacturing concern, where something entirely new in the line of steam machinery is to be produced. We were invited last Friday afternoon to visit the machine shop of Phillip Bucklein, to witness the starting off of an entirely new rotary steam engine, which had been built entire in Mr. Bucklein's establishment, together, also, with the tubular boiler, which supplied it with power.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Tuesday October 21

Spencer Stanley, the English aeronaut, traveled 25 miles today in his air ship.

The bank of Summit, North Dakota, was blown up by robbers and the vaults robbed. They secured about $20,000.

Australia will this year be a heavy buyer of United States wheat. Buyers are now in Portland bidding for Oregon grain.

Sheriff Storey, of Multnomah county, is now engaged at having the scaffolding erected for the execution of A. L. Belding, to be hanged October 31.

Charged with assaulting and then murdering a white woman, Charles Younger, negro, was burned by a mob of infuriated citizens near Forest City, Ark.

Colonel George H. Mendell, under whose plan the mouth of the Columbia was improved for navigation several years ago, died at his home in San Francisco.

Miss Mueller says of Jim Younger, "He was mine and mine alone." She leaves Boise for St. Paul, and promises to punish a number of men for the death of her lover.

Sellwood people are strongly agitating the plan of establishing a free ferry to operate from their town to the opposite side of the Willamette. They will ask state aid in the matter.

The British ship Holyroad arrives at Portland laden with railroad iron for the Columbia River & Northern Railway Company, building from Lyle to Goldensale, up the Klickitat river.

The miners are considering the peace plan, and chances are almost certain that an agreement will be reached. The steamworkers are offering the only opposition to the peace plan.

While the fire apparatus of Aberdeen, Wash., was at work at extinguishing a fire in one portion of the city, firebugs set the opposite end of the town afire. Their work was discovered in time to save the city from destruction.

A large contract for furnishing lumber to the Philippines was let today. The Pacific Export Lumber Company, of Portland, to furnish one-half the quantity. The amount to be supplied by the Portland concern is $5,500,000 feet.

S. M. Garland, of Lebanon, a prominent Linn county lawyer, has made a study of the Chinese pheasant situation, and declares there are not more than a third as many birds in the county as at one time, and is in favor of a statute by the next legislature prohibiting the killing of the birds next year during the entire season, under a heavy penalty.

Wednesday, October, 22.

About thirty lives were lost by the burning of the Glucose sugar factory in Chicago. Escape was entirely shut off for the employees.

General Miles is a victim of the robbers' avocation while in Honolulu. His valise, containing some jewelry and some very valuable documents were recovered.

The sentiment of the members of the landings of Copenhagen is so strong against the proposed sale of the West Indies that it is very doubtful if the proposal will carry.

The greatest contest between capital and labor ever witnessed in the United States was ended today, a victory for labor, and there is great rejoicing everywhere. The sentiment of the miners at their convention was, unanimous for a resumption of operations in accord with the decision soon to be reached by the arbitration board.

The secretary of the interior, in a decision rendered today, holds that in all homestead entries made of lands embraced in the former Siletz, res-

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

blence on the land must be proven before patent issues. Constructive residence, deductions for military service, or cultivation of the land cannot be deducted in those entries made under a special act of congress.

Look Out For Fever.

Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tonic and strength to the thousands.

Saloon License.

Notice is hereby given that I will apply to the city council at its next regular session for a license to sell liquors at my place of business on Eighth street.

A FAMILY REMEDY.

Pe-ru-na in Use in Thousands of Homes.

Congressman H. Henry Powers, of Vermont, writes from Morrisville, Vt.:

"Pe-ru-na I have used in my family with success. I can recommend it as an excellent family remedy and very good for coughs, colds and catarrhal affections."

"I take pleasure in testifying to the merits of your Pe-ru-na. At the solicitation of a friend my wife used it, and it improved her condition generally. It is a remarkable remedy. I can cheerfully recommend Pe-ru-na as a good, substantial tonic, and a very good catarrh remedy."

Half the ills of life are due to catarrh and catarrhal discharges. Pe-ru-na is the only internal, systemic catarrh remedy known to the medical profession.
