State Senator E. M. Rands, of Vancouver, spent Thanksgiving here with relatives.

A. J. Douglass, of Eagle Creek, was in Oregon City last Tuesday, transacting business.

Dr. Thomas, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Wednesday looking after business matters.

Miss Hazel Bickers, of Portland, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Beattie on Thanksgiving.

Charles Menerve, editor of the Medford Success, has been very sick for some time with pleurisy.

Miss Helen Gleason, teacher of New Era, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in this city.

Miss Amy George, of Portland, visited her cousin, Mrs. D. Davis, in this city a day or two this week.

Claude Simpson, of Portland, formerly a local writer on this paper, was in Oregon City Thursday evening.

E. L. McFarland, who spent the summer at Alsea, playing baseball, was visiting friends in this city this week.

Casper Weismann, a proprietor of Mackburg, was in Oregon City last Tuesday transacting business.

Miss Rebecca T. Smith and Miss Myrtle Shonkwerter spent the Thanksgiving holidays with their parents at Salem.

C. Moore, of Sumpter, after visiting friends in this city for a short time, returned to his Eastern Oregon home Wednesday.

Harvey Stackweather, the leading energetic real estate dealer, of Milwaukie, was transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday.

Robert Kellen, who has been in Alaska for a year or more, is in the city visiting his parents. He will remain here about a month.

Mrs. John R. Humphrey, who has been on an extended visit to her home in New Brunswick, returned to her home in this city this week.

T. G. Johnson, of Keno, was in the city Wednesday, attending to business matters before the commissioners. Mr. Johnson says there is very much of a stir-out in his part of the county, consequent upon the building of the electric line into Boring. There are many strangers going to that part of the county with a view to locating there, but in every case the newcomers are averse to attempting the work of home-building out of the raw land. They are much impressed with the country and conditions, but they desire to get hold of improved property. Boring is becoming a thriving village already. A large mill is being put in and construction work on the power house is progressing well. Mr. Johnson feels much elated over the prospects for his portion of the county.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75 cents per bottle.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.
