DEATH CLAIMS HIM.

David Frost Passes Away December 16 at His Home in Ely.

Died at his residence in Ely, December 16th, 1902, David Gilbert Frost, aged 71 years, 3 months and 9 days. The funeral services at the house Wednesday at 2 o'clock P. M. were very impressive and attended by a large audience. Rev. J. F. Ghormley, pastor of the First Christian church, Portland, assisted by Rev. A. J. Montgomery of the Third Presbyterian church, Portland officiating.

Mr. Frost had been under the doctor's care for fourteen months during said time having undergone an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital, in Portland, said operation having been pronounced successful, he having been able to return to his home and was believed by his physicians and friends to be on the road to recovery, but ulceration of the bowels and other complications setting in, after much suffering he quietly passed away at 4:30 A. M.

Decceased was united in marriage to Ruth A. Stout July 1st, 1855. To this union six children were born, the two eldest preceding him to the spirit-land in early childhood. Four sons survive him; Clarence A., Elwood and Allen E. residing at Oregon City were his attendants at his bedside during his illness. Albert M., a resident of Oberlin, Kansas, who with his wife had made his father a lengthy visit during the summer was unable to attend. Mrs. S. J. Dean an only sister of Mrs. Frost, of Oberlin, Kansas, has been with the family several months and has been a great support with her tender care and Christian words of consolation.

Decceased was born in Lodi Township, Athens County, Ohio, and at the age of 21 years he united with the Christian church and for fifty years he has faithfully walked with God. One of his chief characteristics was the love of God and humanity, independence of spirit, and a strong indomitable will. He was elected elder of the church serving in that capacity 20 years or until his removal to Oberlin, Kansas, in 1887, residing there until 1891. From there having the privilege of attending the church of his choice, yet he was faithful so long as his health permitted in meeting with Christian people every Lord's day and joining in the worship of the master whom he loved to serve.

He was one of the first to respond to the call of President Lincoln in 1862 for 400,000 men to enlist in the Union cause, being a member of company B, 116th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, serving in the army of the Potomac and participating in most of the great battles of the southeastern campaign until the close of the war. The Union Veteran Unions took charge of the remains and conducted the ceremonies at the grave. Politically he had been a life long republican standing loyal for his country and his party, being fearless, outspoken and rather aggressive in his views, yet willing to accord to his fellowmen the same right, and respect the opinions of those who saw fit to differ with him.

There are three divine steps by which men get away from the groveling and slavish and climb towards the heavenly and sublime, and rise superior to death. Viz: the good thought, the good word and the good deed. He whose stiffened clay lies prone and silent in yonder grave, was a man who enjoyed the luxury of a free brain. His thought was manly and honest, and so a good and wholesome thought. He spoke his thought bravely and simply, without flattery or evasion and such speech is the good word. The work of his hands, like his speech, was straightforward and thorough, and this made the third grand step, the good work. Such a one should receive commendation on either side of Jordan, "well thought, well said, well done."

We cannot refrain and do not believe we ought to refrain from expressing what we know is in the hearts of many, profound admiration for the fortitude and faithfulness of the wife and sons who have accompanied him hand in hand to the brink of the river Jordan, and through many months of anxious watching and tenderest care. If there is no crown of honor for such faithfulness, then crowns of honor were made in vain. Yet they have ample reward in the sweet consciousness of loving duty well done.

A News Service Without a Parallel.

There is ample justification for the claim made by The Chicago Record-Herald that its readers enjoy every day in the week, Sundays included, a news service that is without parallel in range and completeness. In addition to the independent news facilities of The Record-Herald, that paper receives the complete news service of the New York Herald and the Associated Press, and when it is considered that its news columns are supplemented by all the special features so popular with its thousands of readers, it will be seen that the Record-Herald holds a unique place among the great newspapers of the United States.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the neighbors, friends, and "Union Veterans' Union," who so kindly and generously assisted in the last sickness and burial of our husband and father, with the prayer that Heaven's choicest blessings may ever be theirs.

Truly, Mrs. Ruth A. Frost and Children.

Amateur Foot Ball.

A very fair game of foot ball was played Saturday afternoon at Canemah park between the pupils of the 11th and 9th grades on one side and the 10th grade on the other. Considering the inexperience of most of the players, they put up good ball. All played with a vim and enthusiasm was nowhere lacking. The score resulted in a victory for the 10th grade in a score of 10 to 5.

which indicates a peculiarity in their natures and this marked characteristic is ever perceptibly seen among the people of the land where Congregationalism is known." He then ably outlined the Congregational church polity and discussed the following points: first—The polity the result of spiritual life; second—Individual responsibility; third—Consequently every Congregationalist is supposed to believe that his way is the best for him but he also acknowledges that some other way may be better for somebody else. In the evening the auditorium was again packed to the doors and a fine Cathedral service was rendered, consisting of beautiful songs and readings. This was undoubtedly the finest service witnessed in this church for many a day. The choir being out in full force, excellent music was rendered which was followed by a short address by the pastor on "God's Messages to Us." After the New Year it is the present intention of the programme committee to hold a special Cathedral service about every month, to which the public is invited. Further announcements in regard to the same will be made later.

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by G. A. Harding.

WHEN TO BUY.

Some Points On Economical Christmas Piano and Organ Purchasing.

The time to buy a piano or an organ is when you can secure just what you want for the least price. When you consider price, you want to consider not only the actual cash paid, but what you are getting for the amount expended. A cheap piano or a cheap organ, one constructed cheaply to catch the eye, without any reference to tone, quality or endurance, and sold at little price is expensive. It proves unsatisfactory in no time. But a fine instrument at a reasonable price is cheap. You can get out of it ten times more than you put in. You get it out in years of pleasure and entertainment, you get it out in the elevating influence it exerts on you and all who come within the circle of its influence, you get it out in the social advantages it brings to your children, you get it out in the practical education it affords them. And remember, blasts for years.

The holiday display of pianos and organs we are now making is the finest ever seen on this coast. Upright, baby grand and quarter grand pianos, and organs—our own specially constructed Pacific Queen, the Kimball, the old Burdett, the beautiful Crown, the Great Western and the Needham in fancy carved walnut and parlor casings.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY.

Every one is familiar with the methods of this house and its low price practice, which always insures a better piano for the money than any other house can offer. And these holiday instruments of ours, although the finest made, are being sold at no advance over our ordinary makes. Now is your time to buy. $25 down will secure the finest piano, and $10 or $12 will finish your payments, $8 down and from $4 to $6 monthly makes one of our handsome organs yours. If you begin the New Year with one of these instruments in your home, it will be a year you will always remember with satisfaction. If you cannot come in and make your selection, write us, full information, prices and catalogs will be cheerfully forwarded to you. Eilers Piano House, 351 Washington Street, Portland, Oregon, opposite Cordray's Theatre.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. A HIGH PRICED AD.

The Bad Bargain That Was Made by a French Dentist.

During a recent festival at Neuilly a young woman attracted the attention of a large crowd by holding a heavy bar of iron between her teeth. Among those who watched her was a dentist, and at the close of her performance a luminous idea came to him, and he determined to carry it out.

Going to the young woman, he said: "Mademoiselle, I am a dentist, and therefore I am more impressed with the wonderful power of your jaws than any one else. Now, I am about to make a proposition to you. I will give you $250 if you will write a letter to me saying that you do all this work by the aid of a set of false teeth which I have manufactured for you."

After some thought the young woman replied: "I will accept your offer on one condition. You must first give me as many dollars as I can raise from the ground with my teeth."

The dentist hesitated a moment and then said that he would give her in dollars as many 25 cent pieces as she could raise. To this she agreed, and a few minutes later the dentist was almost stupefied when he saw her raise a weight which was equal to that of $10,000. It was a costly advertisement for the dentist.

The Old Surf Bath.

It is not so many years ago when surf bathing of a very primitive kind prevailed at the eastern end of Long Island and, for aught I know, at other points. Every Saturday morning or afternoon, as the tide willed, throughout the summer big farm wagons trundled down to the beach and were swung around abreast of the line of breakers. Old fishhouses served the purpose of modern bathing pavilions, and the sea costumes were those of last year's village street. A long rope was drawn from under the seats and hitched to the wheel, and then some sturdy ex-whaler or life crew man in red flannel shirt and old trousers tied at the ankles slipped his waist through the loop at the end of this primitive life line and, wading out, kept it as taut as circumstances permitted, while the women and children hung to it and revealed and wallowed and shrieked, rejoicing in their "Saturday tub."—Outing.

LOOK OUT For Colds—La Grippe!

Protect yourself, and don't trust to Providence. Considering the harm done, "neglect" before and after taking a cold is a physical crime. You may prevent a cold, or, if too late, you can insure yourself against the "after effects," for there is the greatest danger, by using Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic. Few die from Colds, or La Grippe, or Catarrh. They die of the after effects. These diseases all weaken, and to a weakened body come flocking a host of diseases that fasten on weak lungs, heart, stomach, kidneys, and other weak parts that we seldom think of.

The easiest and best thing to do is to fortify the system so that you will not catch cold, but if too late to do that, then you must see that no lasting injury is done. Medical authorities all agree that iron is the fighting element of the blood enabling the system not only to ward off disease, but to fight it after it has obtained a foothold.

Dr. HARTER'S IRON TONIC

is just the remedy needed, as it supplies the blood directly with the iron it requires to combat Colds or La Grippe. Take it before, during, or after. If taken in time, it will prevent; if taken during, it will shorten the course; if taken after, it will prevent all bad after effects.

Women are especially benefited by Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic, as they seem to suffer from the weakness of Colds and La Grippe longer than men, and they are particularly susceptible to the action of a blood builder such as this is.

His Revenge.

M. Colombes, a merchant of Paris, had his revenge on a former sweetheart, a lady of Rouen, when he left her by will a legacy of $6,000 for having some twenty years before refused to marry him, "through which," states the will, "I was enabled to live independently and happily as a bachelor."

Strangers Now.

"You ought to see the lovely letters my husband writes," said the bride of a month to one of her girl friends. "Oh, I've seen a few," rejoined the dear girl friend. "In fact, I've got nearly a trunkful of them in the attic."—Exchange.
