The Saturday Club of the Congregational church hereby announce that they have secured Dr. House to give three of his illustrated lectures at the church on the 3rd, 10th and 17th of February. These are the best of a longer series that is being given in Portland with such great success.

W. M. Shank, the extensive potato shipper, who every year sends many car loads of fine potatoes into various parts of the United States, has this week sent 600 sacks to California. Mr. Shank states that it is his opinion that potatoes will not bring as high a price this year as they have. He says that at the present time the California market is not up to its usual figures and for some reason it looks like the potatoes all over the country will fall short of the usual price. He has many sacks stored away in his store-house in this city and will keep them there until he is able to realize something on them.
