MILL TO RESUME WORK.—The old High and mill, which has been idle for some time, will resume work again right away under the management of J. Pollock.

A complaint has been issued against Del Hart in this city for assaulting a young boy by the name of Fuge. The trial has been set for next Monday at ten o'clock before Judge Stipp. Mr. Hart declares that the charge cannot be substantiated.

W. S. Kyler, on Wednesday night while the rain was falling in torrents and the wind blowing cold, turned his wife, three girls and a boy out of the house. The reason for this conduct is difficult to explain and in fact it looks as if the man was out of his head. His trial is set for today, when it is to be hoped the man will pay well for his cruel treatment.

The plank road from the Graham church to Wolf's hill is now undergoing much needed repairs. All the old planks have been removed and new ones put down in their stead. This old road has long been giving away under the heavy travel to which it was subjected and this bit of repairing has been sadly needed. In fact the same repair ought by rights to extend clear in to Ely where the road ends.

One of the stage stories that will ever remain strong and true to audiences is "Uncle Tom's Cabin," a sumptuous production of which, under the able management of Leon Washburn, will be given at the Shively Opera House on January 31, when everyone who has the opportunity of witnessing the same will acclaim it as one of the best yet given by any company. Time, effort and expense have not been spared in its staging or selection of cast and the minutest detail has been carefully prepared. There is no story of book or stage that so delights the juvenile mind, and it is to be hoped that every boy and girl may have their wish to see it gratified.

At St. Paul's Episcopal church services will be held next Sunday morning and evening as follows: Holy communion at 8 A. M., Sunday school at 10. Morning prayer at 11 the subject of the sermon will be "A Soldier's Faith." Evening at 6 o'clock and the subject of the sermon "God or Chance." Mrs. M. M. Foster will sing the offertory solo at this service.

TALKER ON SIAM.—Miss Julia Hatch, a missionary from Laos and Siam gave a very interesting stereopticon lecture at the Presbyterian church Wednesday night. A well-filled church greeted the speaker and her pleasing remarks, catchy songs and interesting pictures greatly pleased her auditors young and old. Miss Hatch has been for a number of years engaged in the missionary work in this far off land and her long activity among the people has equipped her for a very interesting discourse. Owing to the fact that her health was poor when absent in the Orient, she was obliged to return home where she will remain till she has sufficiently recuperated so as to return and resume her duties.

TO MAKE SURVEY.—A special meeting of the street committee and the committee appointed by the council last December in the interest of the new road up the bluff, commencing at Third and Main streets, and terminating at the end of the city limits, was held Tuesday evening in the office of the water committee and was attended by all the members except Clyde Huntley, who is in Salem. On motion of F. T. Griffith, Chairman Sheahan, of the street committee, was appointed chairman of the meeting, and E. E. Charman secretary. Mr. Sheahan stated that the objects of the meeting were to have the engineer make plans and estimates of the proposed road in the south end of the city from Third street to the city limits, as directed by the city council, and to work in conjunction with the special committee appointed by the citizens. Charles Albright, F. T. Griffith and E. E. Charman and E. P. Rands, engineer. Mr. Griffith made a motion, which was adopted, requiring the city engineer to make estimates on different grades, as follows: First—A grade crossing, with an elevated road (a) with earth fill (b) with a wooden approach. Second—An undergrade crossing with all necessary retaining walls. Third—An undergrade crossing. Separate estimate of costs of the actual estimates under the track and the remainder of the roadway, all estimates to include a substantial guard rail on the outer edge of the roadway and on the outer edge of the roadway and on both sides of elevated roadway from Main street and include all things necessary to make the road possible, estimate to be made for finished roadway and macadamized and also simple grading. Engineer Rands was instructed to proceed with the estimates at once.

Grand Banquet. Monday, January 19, Clackamas Chapter No. 2, Royal Arcan Masons, and Multnomah Lodge No. 1 A. F. and A. M. assembled at the Masonic hall and enjoyed a delightful banquet and listened to a very pleasing literary programme. The meeting was not alone opened to the members, but also to the mothers, sisters, wives and daughters of the men.

It may perhaps seem like exaggeration to say that this was one of the most highly enjoyable affairs ever held in Oregon City, but it is so considered by many of the prominent people in attendance, and it is safe to say that many who never gave the subject of Masonry any serious thought before have since this delightful meeting begun to think about the matter as never before.

Promptly at 9 o'clock the guests, numbering 150 people assembled around the heavily laden tables and for three quarters of an hour ate, drank and were merry. Oregon City will think back a long way to remember a feast more tempting or delightful than was this one, all the tables could hold on them, the best the market can furnish and plenty of it.

At 9:30 J. H. Walker, who was toast master for the occasion called the meeting to order and introduced Rev. F. K. Hammond, who led with an impressive prayer. Following this Mr. Walker spoke in a pleasing manner on "The Outlines or Foundations Upon Which Royal Arch Masonry Was Laid," briefly tracing the history of the Temple of King Solomon from its beginning down to its destruction also the history of the second temple from its beginning. Next followed a pleasing solo by Mrs. R. C. Ganson, then Col. R. A. Miller delighted the audience with an address on "Our Country." Rev. F. K. Hammond next spoke on "Labor and Refreshment" followed by an address on "Education" by Prof. Zinser. Judge Ryan then spoke impressively on "Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masonry of Oregon," which was followed by an address on "The Social Side of Masonry" by R. C. Ganson. Franklin T. Griffith followed with a discourse on "Multnomah Lodge No. 1. Mrs. Erma Jones followed with remarks on "Lodge Attendance." Miss Mary E. Conyers then sang a solo in a delightful manner, followed by an able address on "Masonry and Its Influence" by J. E. Hedges.
