THE LEGISLATURE, Fulton Makes a Small Gain for United States Senator. ANKENY AT OLYMPIA. He is Nominated in Caucus Wednesday Evening, All Republicans Take Part.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 27.—The defeat of Harold Preston for the United States senate, while freely admitted by nearly all of his friends, will not induce him to shandon the fight, no matter how hopeless it may seem to him. He has rallied his support from the various anything-to-beat-Ankeny forces, and will hold on till the end comes Saturday night or sooner.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 27.—Mr. Fulton was content today to show merely that he had his forces well in hand. If he had planned an assault upon the entrenchments of the opposition, he abandoned it before the joint convention. If he expects gain tomorrow, his managers are reticent about giving names and details.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sat. 28.—The greatest senatorial fight ever held in the state of Washington came to a sudden end this evening, when Levi Ankeny received the republican caucus nomination for United States senator. When the term "greatest" is used it means considerable history of the state, but all things considered, the big fight that was ended tonight has never had an equal.

It was the third time Mr. Ankeny had sought the nomination, and he has profited by the mistakes that have lost him the nomination in the past, and this time came down to Olympia with the finest organization that ever assembled for the purpose of landing a candidate. The outcome of the contest could not well be anything but Ankeny's election or a deadlock. This situation, from which there was no escape, was practically admitted by his opponents a week ago, and since that time all of their energies have been centered in trying to bring about a deadlock, and once or twice they have come very close to accomplishing the end sought.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 29.—Senator Farrar, of Marion, left the Geer column today and joined his fortunes with Senator Fulton. The total of the Clatsop county senator is now 33 and he is still 11 or 12 short of an election, not counting his own vote. Representative Hume is supposed to have left San Francisco Monday for Salem, and if he arrives tomorrow he will swell the Fulton aggregation to 34.

John Paulson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Paulson, died at his home in George, Friday, January, 16th after a lingering illness at the age of twenty-four years. He was born and raised in this community and was highly respected by his friends and neighbors and all who knew him.

Patrons and friends are cordially invited to visit the school.

SPIRITED CONTENT. Judgment of $1550 Against Portland City & Oregon Ry. Co.

John W. Nendel, an employe of the Portland City & Oregon Railway Company as conductor on defendant's car, Bona, was, on August 4, 1901, trying to make a coupling of this car to one of the company's trailers near First and Couch streets, Portland. Mr. Nendel stepped in between the cars with the coupling pin in his right hand, gave the signal to his motorman to move ahead very slowly.

The case was tried before a jury in Multnomah county last Friday and Saturday. The plaintiff was represented by Gilbert L. Hedges and J. E. Hedges, his brother, of this city, and the defendant by the firm of Dolph, Simon, Mallory & Gearin, Mr. Mallory conducting the defence in court. All the evidence was in and the case submitted to the jury at 12 o'clock Saturday.

The Sheriff's Office. Not long since we published an account of the expenses of the different offices of the county, and, among others, that of Sheriff Shaver's was compared with his predecessor J. J. Cooke. The Courier retahates that "Figures will Show Some Time Let it Not Properly Explained."

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN. Leon W. Washburn, with Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Company, comes to the Shively Opera House on Saturday, Jan. 31st, when the patrons of that popular house will see that time-honored play in all of its superior attractions. Uncle Tom is the hero of this purport story, which is portrayed by Mr. Thos. Davis Stetson's original Uncle Tom, probably the best known impersonator of the celebrated character in the world.

STATE SALARIES

Kuykendall Introduces Bills at Salem.

MCKINLEY'S BIRTHDAY. Celebrated at Canton By the President and Distinguished Guests Tuesday Evening.

SALEM, Jan. 27.—The vote in the joint session today did not reveal any change in strength of the leading candidates. Mr. Fulton received 32 votes, Mr. Wood 17, and Mr. Geer 17. The Multnomah delegation continued to throw ballots at their friends by dividing their vote.

Should these two bills pass, the total income of the governor from the state would be about $4,900, that of the secretary of state the same, and that of the state treasurer about $4,100 a year. It is proposed that the new order of things take effect at the entry to office of the officers to be elected in 1906.

CANTON, O., Jan. 27.—President Roosevelt tonight participated in a notable tribute to the memory of the late President McKinley. He was the principal orator at a banquet given under the auspices of the Canton R-publican League in commemoration of the birthday of McKinley.

Among the 457 assembled about the boards were some of the most distinguished men in the civil, public and political life of the country. At the speakers table, beside President Roosevelt, were seated Judge William B. Day, who acted as toastmaster; Secretary Root, Secretary Cortlyon, General S. B. Root, Secretary Leonard Wood, Luke E. Wright, vice-general of the Philippines; Surgeon-General Leonard Wood, Lt. Col. Theodore E. Bingham, his military aid; Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Brigham, Representative R. W. Taylor, James J. Grant, Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland; J. G. Schmidtapp, H. H. Kohlsaat, of Chicago, and Charles Emory Smith. At the tables throughout the large auditorium were men of state and national prominence.

The banquet was held in the Grand Opera House, the seats being removed in the pit and the house entirely re-floored for the occasion. The interior of the building was beautifully decorated with flags and flowers, the floral decorations being elaborate. Festoons of flags were arranged about the balcony and gallery, and the thirteen great banquet boards were masses of roses and carnations, interspersed with smilax and ferns. A selected orchestra of twenty-five pieces furnished music at intervals.
