Halp Council at His House —A specting of the old school Raptics was held at the home of W. W. H. Samson last Sunday morning in the presence of a number of ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. Susan Porter who is Mr. Samson's mother in law, is a devout believer in the docurings of this church and it, was at her request that services were held. Rev. William S. Matthews, who lives in Yambili County, presched and delivered a very intensiting and instructive disda similar nature, have been, held in b Mr. Samson's residence.

Gra Dace Tra. Last Saturday after-mon Mrs. W. A. White tendered her Sunday rebook class of young balles a delightful gain drop tea. The house was beautifully decked in evergreens and views and presented a charming appearance and the games and various amments were of a highly pleasurable nature. After much time had been devoted to games and conversation, a tempting luncheon followed which was greatly aloyed by all. Mrs. White is one of the most popular teachers in the city and her class is very loyal to her and appreciative of her efforts in their beliall. The young ladies who were present as Mrs. White's home were Misses Econ and Clara Caufield, Echo Samson, Kate Mark, Bessie Armstrong, of Barlow, Grace M. Marshall, Ethel Albright, Eath Chency and Bessie Ronnen or $36 — Nona Chappel the 12-year-old daughter of Mrs. A. L. Snider was robbed Saturday pight of thirty six dollars while ascending the 7th Street steps. The little girl was on her way to Robertson's grocery store to pay the months grocery bill and while on the steps with the money, part in gold and the temainder in silver, when a tall man dressed in a long coat passed her and went on by up the stem at a rapid gait. The man on arriving near the top of the steps, adjusted a handkerchief over his face and started down the stairs again. By this time the little girl had nearly reached the top and was there stopped by the man who a moment ago had passed her. The man wasn't long in making known his errand and in the twinkling of an eye the poor little fright-ened girl was minus the thirty-sex dollars handkerchief and all. She resumed her journey up the stairs and went to Robertson's store when weeping as if her little heart would break, she told her story to the proprietor. Word was soon gotten to the police who immediately began to search for the wretch who had considered. committed the snameful crime. No trace of him has been found and from the present indications the efforts of the authorities to discover who did the deed will prove fatile.
