BOARD OF TRADE
 New Member Added and a Growing Interest Shown.
 LEADING MEN ARE INTERESTED
 An Energetic Move Made To Advance Oregon City and Get Eastern People to Locate Here.

The old board of trade which did so much good for this city a few years ago, but which on account of hard times almost ceased to be, has received a new start and will begin anew with a new list of wide awake members to push it along. Monday night a company of men composed in part of E. E. Chairman F. T. Grifflin, Geo. A. Harding, Chris. Schuebel, J. J. Clark, O. W. Eastham, and H. K. Cross met at the court house and discussed the advisability of effecting or rather renewing the old organization. The sentiment was unanimous to organize anew and a new organization was effected to meet at intervals in the interest of the city whose growing demands have for so long greatly needed an organized body of business men to superintend its growth. A board of trade was formerly one of the city's most active organizations and for several years held regular meetings in the interest of the city, but when the financial panic came with its depressing influence, the men composing the board rather lost interest and allowed the movement to drag and rather die out. Hog. H. Cross, who has always been one of the active promoters of the movement, was again made president of the new board and his presence is sure to be of value as he is a man of large business experience and ability. Mr. Cross on being interviewed the other day said, "There is plenty of work for the board of trade to do in the county, and we propose to enlarge its scope so as to take in the progressive citizens within and without the corporate limits of the city. In order that the resources of Clackamas county may be shown to the world and that immigrants may be induced to come this way, we will take pains to lay before strangers the advantages by which we are surrounded. Our next meeting will be held in two weeks, when the permanent organization will be effected and working committees will be appointed to look after the various details." This new board will probably collect specimens of Clackamas county's products and send them to the grand central station at Portland, where they will be put on exhibition by Colonel F. V. Drake. Earnest efforts will soon be made on the part of these business workers to advertise Oregon City and Clackamas county and their efforts all probably will bear fruit, especially at this particular time when the Lewis & Clark fair is drawing so many inquiries westward.

THE TAX LIST AGAIN
 To THE EDITOR—
 I see that the Courier is still talking about the tax list and again criticizing the manner of advertising the delinquent property. As has been said repeatedly I followed the roll as given me by the assessor, and he made the roll according to law, and before the delinquent list was published an opinion was obtained from as good an attorney as there is in Oregon City and he approved the matter. So other course was open as the law plainly says that each roll shall be described separately. I adopted no plan but followed the law. If the Gladstone Real Estate Association did not want to pay a penalty it should have paid its taxes before, as other people did and given the county the money to pay outstanding warrants. I held the publication of the delinquent list two months and in justice to the other taxpayers of the county could not favor these delinquents longer. The Courier seems to think the publication of the delinquent list something new but it is a yearly occurrence and the Gladstone Real Estate Association and other real estate corporations are nearly always in it. Sheriff Giamong had a similar experience and had to attach personal property before he got the tax. I would like to ask the Courier, as it is the champion of these delinquent real estate corporations how many times in the last eight or ten years the Gladstone Real Estate Association or any of the other of these tax dodging corporations have paid their taxes. Is it not a fact that year after year they have in whole or part beat the county out of the taxes justly due? I am trying to make these people pay their tax and am following the law in doing it. I did not have nor never did have a dollar of interest in the ENTERPRISE.
 JOHN R. SHAYER.

MRS. SCHRAM DEAD
 Honored Pioneer Passes Away—
 Came to Oregon in 58
 BEEN SUFFERING A LONG TIME

Tuesday night at 7:40 o'clock Mrs. Mary E. Schram died at her home on Water street in this city. The deceased has been a sufferer for a long time and while her death has been looked for at most any time, it was hoped that it might be deferred a little while longer at least. Mrs. Schram was a native of Germany. At the age of fifteen years she left the home of her early childhood and decided to come to the United States. In those days facilities for travel being very primitive, she was necessarily a long time in crossing the Atlantic, and on reaching New York was almost a year crossing the pains and coming to Oregon. At sixteen years of age she reached Oregon and here for over forty years she has remained and spent the best part of her life. While living in Oregon City her circle of friends has grown until they are past numbering and the news of her death is universally regretted by a host of acquaintances and friends. Her residence in the city being of so many years has brought Mrs. Schram in contact with some of Oregon's oldest residents and many of these honored old pioneers have come from far and near to pay their last respects to the deceased and her loving family.
 John Schram, the deceased's husband has been intimately associated with the harness business in this city for about forty years, having run a shop on Main street. He however has retired on account of advanced age and is a familiar figure on the street of this city every day. The deceased leaves to mourn her absence a sister, Mrs. Fred Vanderahne, at Carus, Ches. Schram and A. H. Schram, her two sons, and a daughter, Mrs. Lynch. The funeral services were held from the family residence Thursday with Rev. F. K. Hammond officiating. Many beautiful flowers were laid on the casket and the grave at Mountain View looked not a thing in the floral line to make it attractive and beautiful.

BROWNELL NOT A TRAITOR
 The Albany Herald B-friends Him and Says He Is a Friend of Labor.
 He is a Pretty Good Man After All—Says Union Made Mistake in Censuring Him on this Matter.

The Oregon City labor organizations have made a serious mistake in considering resolutions censuring Senator Brownell for his actions in the legislature regarding labor legislation. The present legislature has enacted more laws favorable to the laboring people than any of its predecessors, and the people who have followed the measures closely through the house and senate know that Senator Brownell was always a warm champion of such bills and was instrumental in securing their passage. No attempt was made to sidetrack any just labor bill, and it is an undisputed fact that either the speaker of the house or the president of the senate could have killed, or at any rate greatly retarded, these measures by referring to unfriendly committees. Senator Brownell as a republican, favored the initiative and referendum when it was not looked upon as a thoroughly republican measure, but in the state convention of 1900 it was made a part of the platform, and subsequent conventions and legislative assemblies have endorsed and ratified his action until now it is looked upon as part of republicanism. The labor leaders who are raising this uproar against Senator Brownell should not overlook his record during the many years of his service in the senate, as organized labor has always had in him a warm and constant friend. The laws to which the labor leaders of Oregon City profess to feel so much attached, fixed eight hours as a day's labor in the state and if the people are ready for this departure, it can readily be accomplished by the initiative. In the mean time personal abuse of a man with Senator Brownell's record is unbecoming and highly uncalled for.—Albany Herald.

Beef Trust Decides to Avoid Exposure of Inside Workings.
 The "beef trust" has decided to stand by its demurrer to the allegations made against it by the Federal Government when the cases against the combined packers were begun several months ago, and will appeal from the decision overruling it. This alternative was chosen in preference to a hearing of testimony as to the inner workings of the combine. It is understood that the Government has a voluminous supply of testimony of every sort bearing on the case and taken in all portions of the country.

President's Trip West
 A communication was received yesterday by the secretary of the Clark memorial sword fund from William Loeb, Jr., secretary to President Roosevelt, in regard to the president's proposed trip to the Pacific coast next summer. The letter stated that at the present time no definite plans were in mind concerning the trip, so that it was impossible to state exactly when Mr. Roosevelt would be in Portland. Later on when the details of the trip are formulated, the wishes of the Clark sword Committee will be taken into consideration, and the President will, no doubt be in Portland at the time the presentation will be made, either during the latter part of May or the first of Jun.

A BETTER ROAD
 Meeting Held Monday in Ryan's Office so Decides.
 TO IMPROVE THE VIOLA ROAD
 One of the Worst Roads in the County to be Planked at Cost of $7500.

After many years of waiting the good people living between Oregon City and Viola will have a new road made out of heavy planks to extend for over twelve miles into the country as far out as the little village of Viola.
 The decision to make it is bit of needed improvement was reached Monday night by a committee of leading gentlemen composing the new board of trade which met in the office of Hon. Judge Ryan. The road will be graded and ballasted with crushed rock and a good portion is to be planked. All along this mountainous road are several saw mills, within easy access, which are to have the contract of furnishing the lumber to be used in the planking of the road and on account of their close proximity, the mills will furnish the timber and planking to the county for the very reasonable sum of seven dollars per thousand feet. The lumber men fully appreciate the benefit the road will be to them and so are able and willing to make these reasonable inducements to the county.
 At the above mentioned meeting in the judge's office, the matter of expense was carefully discussed and it is the purpose of the promoters of the move to see to it that expenses are kept at bed rock and the peoples money will be made to go as far as a conservative care will permit. In discussing the subject of materials and costs it was the opinion of all present that three inch planks can be laid over a space of eight feet in width at the cost of one thousand dollars per mile and what is still better it was thought that these planks can be kept in a good state of repair for ten years at least, notwithstanding the adverse opinion of some Portland contractors.
 This road will be built partly by subscription and those who compose the soliciting committee are Messrs. C. H. Dye, E. G. Caulfield, G. B. Lomick, C. G. Huntley and H. E. Cross. In two weeks the board of trade will hold another meeting at which time a report of the progress of this committee will be made.
 The people of this section of the county have long needed a better road as this road has always afforded more difficulty to travel than any other thoroughfare in the county. The road winds along the Abernethy river and is beset with hills and holes all the way out. The building of the road is an assured success already as the leading business men in the county have its development in hand and when they start any thing of this nature they know no such word as fail.

ELECTION MONDAY.
 Officers for the ensuing year were Elected By the Firemen.

After a warm contest marked by a friendly spirit, the following officers with their vote were elected Monday: Fire chief Lawrence Ruonich, Fountain Hose Co. No. 1, sixty-four votes; assistant chief A. Brown, Columbia Hook and Ladder Co., ninety-one votes; fire commissioners, Frank McGinnis, Columbia Hook and Ladder Co., 105 votes; George Ely, Mountain View Hose Co., eighty three votes; Howard M. Brown, e; Castara Hose Co., 108 votes. All the men, both those who won and those who lost are good men and highly deserving of all the honors which the companies can give them. Mr. Ruonich, who was elected for chief fireman is an attentive fireman always found at his task and popular among his men. Geo. A. Brown will make a good officer. He is a man of large experience as a fireman and one who never shirks his duty when it comes to doing his work. The three commissioners, Frank McGinnis, George Ely and Howard Brownell will fulfill the duties of the office with credit to themselves and are popular among their men. The contest was notable for its friendly spirit and gentlemanly conduct and while all candidates could not win there is no hard feeling among any who failed to be elected. The respective companies are more nearly united than ever before and it is thought from the present spirit manifested, that they will join hands this season and work with an eye single for the advancement of the city.
