GIVE FRUIT A SHOW

It does pay to spray fruit trees and shrubs. This is a fact that has been fully demonstrated by practically every agricultural experiment station in the country. Millions of dollars are lost every year by failure to give this matter attention. It is time for the first spraying and we can provide everything you need in the way of material. We can also furnish you with any instructions you may require. We buy spraying materials in large quantities and can assure you that both the quality and the price will be right. Flowering plants and shrubs need protection against various pests. We have what you need for the purpose. Come in and talk it over.

HUNTLEY BROTHERS DRUGGISTS STATIONERS BOOKSELLERS

A security in Oregon City—an entertainment such as the Grand Band Concert and Ball to be given by Nash's Oregon City band will be. Don't forget the date, Friday evening, May 8th.

The themes at the Congregational church next Sunday will be "Beauty and Strength of the Sanctuary," and "God's Plan for a Christian." Strangers in the city are especially invited.

In another column we publish a notice calling for proposals for the construction of the South end road on the part of city. Contractors will do well to look this matter up.

Fred Hinzee, aged 16 years, died at Macksburg, Clackamas county, Monday. The cause of his death was appendicitis. The funeral of the deceased was held Thursday at the Canby cemetery.

Next Sunday at St. Paul's church, Easter services will be continued and Judge S. Rollock, of Portland, will sing a solo at the morning and evening services at 11 and 5 o'clock. Miss Mary Conyers will also sing at the evening service.

Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Beaven will preach on "The Relation of Education and Christian Missions." In the evening his theme is on "The Wife and the Home;" this is a continuation of the series of very interesting sermons on Marriage. The public is invited to attend the services at the Baptist church.

Tuesday night the Eastern Star Chapter of Oregon City held its regular meeting and much interest was taken in the routine work of the order. After the business part of the meeting had been dispensed with, a social time was had and consisted of short addresses, recitations and music.

The great steam shovel, which was put in operation last fall, will again resume the work of filling in on the trestle north of the city. This fill will take the place of the high and dangerous trestle work which has always caused so much uneasiness and mistrust on the part of the traveling public. The fill covers a distance of a mile, and will be about half as high as the trestle. The reason for the fill is that the high water coming up every spring covers the whole lower part of the land between the S. P. track and the electric line.

$100 Reward, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh, being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The semi-monthly meeting of the Pension Examiners' Board was held Wednesday. The board consisted of Drs. Carl and Norris, of Oregon City, and Dr. Leavitt, of Molalla. Several civil war veterans are applying for increase of pensions, on the grounds of advanced age and disability.

Mrs. Carrie I. Seaton, through her attorney, Geo. C. Brownell, has sued her husband, Fred O. Seaton, for a divorce. This is about the tenth suit that has been filed in the last few days, and still they come. The plaintiff's grounds in this case are cruelty and inhuman treatment, and she asks for the control of her minor children.

David Holt, the efficient young clerk, who has been in this city for over a year, has left for Portland, where he has obtained employment. Mr. Holt has a large circle of friends in this city and their best wishes accompany him wherever he may go. He is an efficient clerk and his work is always a high testimonial of his worth.

Sunday afternoon at Willamette Falls there is to be a game of ball between the home team and an aggregation of players from Portland. This will be the first game of the season and should be well attended. In a few days more there will be a permanent organization effected when active practice will begin. The team from Portland which is to play is a first class team and will give our boys a close rub. Come out to the game and give the boys encouragement.

Early Wednesday morning, just immediately after the season had opened, many fine salmon were on the docks along the river ready for shipment. The fish are of a high quality and will bring good money. Of course they were all caught after twelve o'clock Wednesday morning, as none of our good people ever violate a fish law.

An interesting entertaining entertainment has been set for the evening of April 20, when Mr. H. M. Hanford will lecture on Liquid Air. The subject of liquid air has been the one leading mystery of the age and the entertainment will be an exposition of some of its many interesting and mysterious features. Further notice about this entertainment will occur in our next issue.

County Treasurer Enos Cahill has just paid in the sum of $7337.50 to the state treasury and received credit for that amount on the total of $25,460.00, which is Clackamas county's apportionment of the state taxes this year. Of this sum $837.50 is applied on the Agricultural college tax, which amounts to that figure. Clackamas county's state apportionment is not so large this year by $3500 as it was last, on account of the new basis for apportioning each county's state quota. Hereafter the state tax will be apportioned to each county on the basis of its average expenditures. This policy, it is thought, will have the effect of urging county courts to greater economy, as the higher their own running expenses are, the greater the sums they must contribute to the state treasury each year.
