A number of our citizens attended the Grange at Oswego Saturday and report a very pleasant and instructive meeting and a majority of the members present. Mrs. Wethered, of Portland, was present and talked of the '05 Fair, the Woman's building, etc., urging the men and women, boys and girls of the farm to begin to prepare exhibits of grains, grasses, canned fruits, etc. Her remarks were very timely and were well received There was a quilt made by the ladies of the Grange on exhibition. The pat-tern was called, "steps to the white house," a very imposing name. They were selling tickets at 10 cents for it to be drawn that evening in connection with a handkerchief bazsar, a necktie social, oyster supper and a good time

Is almost a thing of the past. Intelligent people have long since learned that safety in drugs and medicines is to be found only in an honest reputable drug store-and the more reputable the better. It is safe to follow the doctor. Trade where they do. We fill more prescriptions than any other store in this territory. The moral is plain.
