

New To-Day.

PLENTY OF MONEY TO LOAN AT lowest rates. C. H. Dye.

MONEY TO LOAN AT lowest rates. HEDGES & GRIFFITH.

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6 AND 7 per cent. Farm security. U'Ren & Schuibel.

HEDGES & GRIFFITH, offices in the Weisbord Building, have the choicest city, suburban and country property for smallest prices.

MONEY TO LOAN ON REAL PROPERTY security at 6 per cent, also on approved chattel security. G. B. Dimeck, attorney at law, Stevens Building Oregon City.

MONEY TO LOAN—I HAVE SEVERAL sums of money belonging to private individuals which I am authorized to loan, on long time at 6 and 7 per cent. Cost of loan will be made very reasonable. H. E. Cross, attorney at law.

R. L. Holman, leading undertaker Oregon City, Oregon. March 27-41

Personal Mention

S. Crimbley, of Seaside, was in the city Monday.

C. B. Moores went to Salem Thursday morning.

Miss Ethelyn Albright was in Portland Thursday.

C. Schuebel was a business visitor to Canby Monday.

Grant Mumpower, of Stone, was in the city Thursday.

D. C. Latourette and family spent last Thursday in Portland.

Lyman Lee was in the city Thursday on his way to The Dalles.

J. P. Robertson, of Salem, was a visitor in the city Thursday.

James Tracey, of Logan, had business in Oregon City Thursday.

Miss Veda Williams was a visitor to Portland during the week.

Hon. Joseph Simon was in the city from Portland Wednesday.

Will Logan was among the visitors to Portland Thursday evening.

Mrs. H. Henningsen has gone to West Scio to visit with her parents.

Mrs. Grant B. Dimick visited this week with relatives in Salem.

Gordon Moores visited this week with friends at Corvallis and Salem.

John B. Winstanley, of Salem, spent Sunday with friends in this city.

Dr. Mark S. Skiff, of Salem, was in the city for a few hours Thursday.

Miss Emma Evans, of Canby, visited with friends in this city this week.

J. H. Westover, editor of the Courier, and family now reside at Gladstone.

John Noblitt was in the city Tuesday with a finely bred horse from Bashaw.

Miss English, of Portland, was the guest of Miss Ethelyn Albright Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gibson, of Portland, visited friends in the city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Barnett, of Salem, visited Mr and Mrs Jesse George Sunday.

M. English, of Lafayette, Yamhill county, is visiting his mother in this city.

Henry Meldrum and Mr. Roos have gone to Silverton to inspect some timber land.

Mrs. John Fechter, of Salem, is visiting in this city, the guest of Miss Borie Reddick.

Mrs. James B. Upton, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. C. D. Latourette this week.

Howard M. Brownell attended the reception to President Roosevelt at Salem last Thursday.

Miss Luoma, of Eugene, visited with her brother, Frank, in this city several days this week.

Miss Ina Chase has returned from San Francisco where she has been pursuing her studies in art.

Mrs. Hollicker, of Ottawa, Illinois, is visiting in this city, the guest of Mrs. Mary M. Charman.

Hon. W. E. Grace, of Baker City, was in the city Wednesday, visiting his brother, G. W. Grace.

Harvey E. Cross was in Salem Thursday on business connected with the Chautauqua Association.

I. Sinsheimer, of New York City, is visiting in this city, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. E. T. Fields.

George Lazelle, of New Era, was in the city Thursday to attend the closing sessions of the State Grange.

S. S. Bailey, of Seattle, was in the city the latter part of last week, the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Norris.

Mrs. Nina Divine, of Goldendale, Washington, is visiting in this city, the guest of Miss Echo Sampson.

Fred C. Horton, of Newberg, was in the city last week a guest at the home of his uncle, Geo. F. Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pope and daughter, Miss Laura, attended Mrs. Mann's recital in Portland last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. George were in the city this week from Salem and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse George.

Mrs. E. J. Marshall and daughter, Miss Grace have gone to Baker City to remain for about three weeks with friends.

Miss Adelaide Quinn returned to Oregon City on Tuesday, after a short visit with Miss Gertrude Bashor.—Salem Journal.

Charles Humphrey, who has a position with the Postal Telegraph Company in Portland, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Cowing, Jr., went to Portland Thursday last and witnessed the demonstration in honor of President Roosevelt.

Miss McGrath, of Seattle, was in the city this week, the guest of the Misses Hart. Miss McGrath is en route to San Francisco for a visit.

J. W. Draper and Henry Meldrum returned this week from a trip to the headwaters of the Clackamas river, where they have been looking over timber land.

K. C. Staples, of Portland, was in the city Wednesday.

Jacob Smith, of Shaw, Marion county, was in the city Wednesday.

C. C. Smith, of Canby, was a business visitor in this city Wednesday.

Benjamin J. Goodman and Fred J. Doughty, both of Independence, were in the city this week making final proof on their homesteads in the Siletz district.

W. Scott Beazorth, business manager of the Pacific Homestead, was in the city from Salem this week, attending the sessions of the State Grange in the interest of his paper.

Charles Burkhardt, of Portland, J. E. Hedges, C. G. Huntley and Harry Moody, of this city, spent last Sunday fishing in the mountain streams and report a good catch.

Judge Gordon E. Hayes has accepted an invitation to deliver the Memorial Day address at Hubbard. Judge Hayes is one of the best speakers in the Valley.

Robin Hood Club, Foresters of America, will hold meeting on the first, second and third Friday evenings of each month. The regular election of officers will take place at the first meeting in June.

June C. Noyes, a prominent timber dealer of Duluth, Minnesota, and his brother, John F. Noyes, of Portland, were in this city during the week on business before the Oregon City land office.

Roland Jackson, of Portland, who is a former Oregon City boy, returned only recently from California, where he has been following his business, that of a druggist.

Howard Brownell was in Kelso today where he had business in the justice court before Justice Jonsrud. Mr. Brownell was an attorney for one of the parties in a civil suit brought for the recovery of five head of stock.

Edward Murphy, of Portland, was in Oregon City last Sunday. Mr. Murphy has just returned from Moscow, Idaho, where he has been attending the Idaho State University. During the last year Mr. Murphy was captain of the Idaho University track team.

Governor Geo. E. Chamberlain was a passenger to Portland on the afternoon overland Monday. When the train reached this city he was occupying the engine cab and sharing the seat with the fireman. At Oregon City the Governor left the engine and returned to the Pullman.

John Knapp, a student at the State agricultural college at Corvallis, visited relatives in this city the latter part of last week, being on his way back to Corvallis from Portland where the cadets of the agricultural college assisted in the demonstration in honor of President Roosevelt.

A Little Early Riser

now and then, at bedtime will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the famous little pills that cure by the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. Sold by Geo. A. Harding.

THE LOCAL NEWS.

If you want strictly up-to-date Millinery, call on Miss C. Goldsmith.

P. G. Kester and wife, who have occupied rooms in the Prof. Gray residence moved to Bellwood yesterday.

Thompson's Bargain store for close prices on Dry Goods, shoes and clothing.

Company A, Third Regiment O. N. G., of this city, will hold its regular monthly business meeting next Monday evening.

An amateur game of baseball is scheduled for Canemah Park Sunday afternoon, when a team composed of the barbers and clerks will cross bats with the teamsters.

Dr. J. B. Moore has returned and is prepared to answer calls day or night. Apply at drug store, Seventh Street, on the hill. May 29.

Hon. Geo. C. Brownell addressed the voters of Needy Wednesday night in the interest of Mr. Hermann. Last night he was at Independence and tonight he will be at Milwaukie.

The Knights and Ladies of Security entertained their friends at Willamette Hall Thursday evening with an enjoyable musical and literary program, followed by dancing.

The members of the Junior Endeavor Society of the First Congregational church gave a social last Friday evening and feel well pleased with their efforts, which netted the society treasury about $10.

Bob, the three-fourths Percheon stallion, will make the season of 1903 at my place, 2 1/2 miles northeast of Currieville. Terms: $6 to insure in foal, payable when mare is known to be in foal or parted with. J. W. Dowty.

All Pattern Hats reduced. J5 Miss C. Goldsmith.

Sunrise Lodge No. 43, A. O. U. W., of Wilsonville, will give a dance in their hall at Wilsonville on the night of the Fourth of July. Keil's orchestra will furnish the music and the Workmen and their friends of Wilsonville and vicinity are counting on having a good time.

Garfield, Springfield, Logan and Eagle Creek Granges propose to celebrate the Fourth of July at some central point and each Grange is requested to send delegates to the Neefus place, near the upper Clackamas bridge, on Saturday, the 30th of May, at 4 o'clock p. m., to make arrangements for the celebration.

The theme next Sunday morning at the Congregational church will be "The Scope of the Christian's Thought and Influence." The evening hour will be devoted to a number of standard hymns. Such a service was given some time ago and the request has come for a continuation. The pastor will give a brief account of the Hymnology of the remotest times.

Clyde W. Phillips, aged thirty years, died at the home of his grand-father, Wm. Phillips, at Clackamas station, Wednesday night, of consumption of the bowels. The deceased was for a number of years employed as freight conductor for the Southern Pacific Company. Funeral services will be held Friday morning and burial will be had in the Clackamas cemetery.

Children's Hats and Baby Caps a specialty. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Henry Irving's production of Victorien Sardou's "Lante" on May 1 was one of the most important theatrical events in London in recent years. "Piccadilly," who witnessed the tremendous reception given the actor-knight at Drury Lane, describes the brilliant audience, the play, and the entrancing stage spectacle in a gossipy letter in the Argonaut of June 1.

The Oregon City nine will play its first interstate league game with Schiller's team, of Portland, at Canemah Park Saturday afternoon. It promises to be a good game. Manager Shark has strengthened the local baseball team by the addition of Patterson, of Portland, who will occupy the pitcher's box in the opening game. The home team will play a return game with the Schillers in Portland Sunday afternoon.

G. W. Pursfull, of this city, on Thursday caught the largest shad that was ever captured in the Willamette river at this point. It weighed 9 pounds, 15 ounces. Shad were planted in the Willamette at Oregon City about 12 years ago but this variety of the fish family did not thrive and are not very plentiful in this Valley stream. The catch of salmon, however, continues to be good.

A TURKISH WEDDING.—County Judge T. F. Ryan officiated at a somewhat unusual event Wednesday afternoon. M. B. Hassen and Mrs. A. R. Snyder, both of Portland, appeared at his office armed with a marriage license. At their request the Judge performed the ceremony. The parties to the ceremony are both subjects of the Sultan of Turkey, and were accompanied to this city by four of their countrymen who witnessed the service.

Sailors, Shirt Waist Hats in all the latest styles. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Algernon S. Dresser, register of the Oregon City land office, reports that over sixty applications to file on homesteads have been made already this month through the local office. This record almost equals the amount of business that was transacted in the early days of settling on public lands. The clerical force of the office is swamped with work. A great many protests are still pending in this office, where cases have been set for hearing daily until late in August. The junior contests of W. G. Howell, of Portland, against 82 of the famous Hayes' lands, will not be heard until early next fall.

Major and Mrs. William Hancock Clark, of New York, arrived in the city Thursday afternoon and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye. They will be the guests at an informal reception to be tendered them at Willamette Hall Friday evening by the Oregon City Lewis & Clark fair club. In addition to an address of welcome by Mayor G. B. Dimick, there will be brief remarks by several prominent business men. The speechmaking will be interspersed with musical numbers by local talent. Mrs.

Half Price Silverware Sale 10 DAYS ONLY COMMENCING SATURDAY, MAY 30TH

Our Annual Sale of Table Silverware will afford housekeepers the opportunity of buying highest grade silverware at half price. The only exceptions to a straight one-half off on every article in our stock is on table forks, tea and table spoons. On these three items the discounts are one-third instead of one-half. Unless otherwise mentioned every article is best quadruple plate and fully guaranteed. The stock is not large.

Table listing silverware items and prices: Butter Dish—Full Burnished $3 25, Bon Bon Dish—Gold Lined 2 50, Salad Dish—Gold Lined 1 75, etc.

HUNTLEY BROTHERS DRUGGISTS--BOOKSELLERS--STATIONERS OREGON CITY, OREGON

Edith Tozier Weathered and a number of the other prominent Lewis & Clark Women's club workers, of Portland, will attend the reception.

Notice to Contractors. Sealed bids will be received at the court house by the county court of Clackamas county, Oregon, at the office of the county clerk until 2 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, June 3, 1903, for the furnishing of all materials and labor required in making changes and building record vault addition to the Clackamas county court house in accordance with plans and specifications now on exhibition at the said clerk's office, and at the office of Delos D. Neer, architect, 133 1/2 First street, Portland, Oregon.

Treasurer's Notice. I now have money to pay county warrants endorsed prior to Nov. 1, 1900. Also road warrants endorsed prior to March 3, 1903. Interest will cease on such warrants on the date of this notice. EXOS CAHILL, County Treasurer. Oregon City, Or., May 15, 1903.

Keep Tooting. We want your attention—that's why we keep tooting our horn. We have the things to back up the noise we are making, and we believe you'll be willing to say so yourself after you've examined the offerings.

Iron Beds. Are recognized as the most healthful, most stylish, most modern, cleanest and altogether the most desirable. We are showing no less than 25 different styles and prices from neat and plain beds at $3.00 to handsome and highly decorated ones at $20.00. Come and look at them.

Lawn Mower That Mows. There are imperfect lawn mowers and perfect ones. We have the perfect kind. A little determination; a little push and the mower almost goes itself. It is so simple it almost keeps itself in order. We would like to sell you one for about $7.50—but of course there are cheaper ones, not quite so good.

Summer Fashion. For porch or lawn. Lightly made, prices enable you to have something novel and attractive without much cost. They are as comfortable as they look. It will wear and look right.

Hose Quality. There are good, bad, and indifferent grades of garden hose. Poor hose rots, cracks and bursts. In two seasons you need more. That's expensive. Good hose cost a third more, and if properly cared for, lasts four times as long. That's economical. We'll sell you the kind you want, but advise the best.

SCREEN DOORS. We have them, also window screens—very cheap this season.

WHITE LEAD. Ask for lowest market price. Extension Table, 6 ft. $8.50

25c per foot. We guarantee our Granite Ware.

FRANK BUSCH THE HOUSEFURNISHER. The only first-class Second-Hand Dealer in Furniture Stoves and Utensils. I. Toipolar MAIN STREET One Door North of Commerical Bank