Vote Ca.t. Monday's special election resulted in the election of Hon. Binger Herman, of Ro-aburg, as congressman to surceed the late Thomas Tongoe. Mr. Her-mann's plurality in the district will approximate 2300. Clacksmas county which though ordinarily Republican by about 600 plurality, is usually classified as doubtful, because of the uncertainty of the voting disposition of its electors, gave Reames 253 plurality. Complete unofficial returns from the 37 precincts of the county give Herman 1025 and Rentues 1278 The vote in 1902 was fongue, 2642; Weatherford, 1177.

The extraordinary vote cast in this county is difficult of sati-factory explanation. Only once before in the history d the county, and that was in 1896, when there was a Populist landslide in Clacka-mas, and Vanderburg (Populist) carried the county over Tongue by about 370, has Clackamas gone Democratic in a Congressional election. Several reasons ontributed to the disastrous result on Monday. The Republican Congressional candidate was sacrificed in this county by different seifish personal interests of ocal politicians. But the real factor in making possible a Democratic victory in lackamas county was the stay-at-home Republican voters. The combined vote of both Reames and Hermann is only 2305, or 237 less than Tongue received in this county in 1902. Tongue's vote then was 2542. Reames' vote is only 86 in excess of the vote received by Weatherford, who was defeated by Tongue by 1381 plurality. So it will be seen that the Democrats polled practically their full vote, or at least enough Republican votes to bring Reames' vote up to that reast by the minerity parts in the poly of the vote that was cast for fongue at the general election. The vote of the Socialists is about 300, while they expected to poll at least 500. Elmore, the Prohibition-

City was cast, but in the rural districts the vote was exceptionally light, reducto 60 per cent the average vote of the county. The remarkable change in this county is attributed directly to indifference of Republicans, many of whom, hough professing allegiance to Her-mann, deliberately knifed him at the pells and secretly worked against him. Many Republican votors refused to go to the polls at all, which, with the vigorous work of the Democrats who, encouraged by the possibility of Reames' election, polled practically their full vote, is responsible for the Democratic success in this county.
