New Committee to Have Charge of South End Road.

Session of Council Monday Night Was A Stormy One—Streets and Public Property Committee Excused.

After one of the most stormy sessions in years, the city council at a special meeting Monday night expressed, at their request, the committee on streets and public property from further serving in connection with the proposed south end road. A resolution was adopted instructing Mayor Dimick to appoint a special committee of three members to act in conjunction with the citizen's committee in expending the fund for the new road, which is now assured. Mayor Dimick has appointed the following committee: Councilmen Koerner, Scott and Powell.

As stated in the foregoing paragraph, the meeting was a decidedly stormy one. The council committee on streets and public property, which was authorized to act with the citizen's committee in building the road, submitted a resolution, in which they defied their opposition to the road, claiming that the expense of the improvement would be out of proportion to the benefits to be derived. Since no definite plans had been adopted as to the manner of building the road, and as to whether or not it should be a grade or an underground crossing, the cost of which had been estimated at from $5000 to $17,500, the committee asked that the action of the council at a previous meeting be revoked, and that further action in connection with the building of the road be held in abeyance until a definite plan of procedure could be decided upon. A motion was made and seconded that the resolution presented be adopted and then the storm that had been brewing broke upon the meeting. Councilman Kelly took the floor and severely scored the members of the committee for seeking in this way to defeat or rather undo the action of the council at a regular meeting. He declared that such a proceeding was "unhygienic and unbecoming gentlemen who had sworn to perform their duty and that in the interest of the people of the entire city. He declared that the opposition to the building of the road on the part of the members of the committee was based on selfish and sectional grounds alone, and that no reasonable objection had been offered to the road. Story jumped to his feet and resented the personal remarks of the speaker. This brought Koerner to the floor, who insisted that Kelly had been recognized and permitted to speak on the subject. All three men were talking at the same time, each emphasizing his remarks by thunderously beating the table with his fist. Through the intervention of Chief Burns and the vigorous rapping to order of Mayor Dimick, order was soon restored and the discussion was resumed in a more proper parliamentary form. After some further speaking on the resolution Mayor Dimick ruled that the same was out of order. Sheahan moved that the committee on streets and public property be excused from acting further on the joint road committee. The request was granted and the appointment of a special committee of three members was ordered. In excusing the streets and public property committee from service, Mayor Dimick stated that he was satisfied the committee, though opposing the building of the road, had only what they considered the best interest of the city in mind. He regretted that members of the council should become personal in their remarks and question the motive of a fellow member.

Appended is the resolution in which is recited the reasons of the council committee for opposing the building of the road and over the consideration of which all of the trouble resulted:

"Whereas, at the last meeting of this council action was taken by a vote of 4 to 3 instructing the committee on streets and public property to proceed at the earliest possible moment to expend the $1000 appropriated by a former council and also the money subscribed by citizens on a road from Third street to the top of the bluff, the committee would beg leave to submit that while they are perhaps as anxious as any member of the council to construct roads leading into Oregon City, yet we have opposed the building of this one on the ground that the cost seems to us altogether out of proportion to the benefit to be derived. The estimates made by three different engineers range in amount from $17,500 (Mr. Cunningham's) to $9000 underground and $5000 for overhead crossing, made by Mr. Rands this year, and even the above estimates contemplate the improvement of the road only to the top of the bluff; the lowest sum is far in excess of the amount appropriated and subscribed at this time, and we are therefore unwilling to assume the responsibility placed upon us by the recent action of the council.

"No definite plan has been proposed by the council as to whether a grade crossing shall be built or a road under the railway track, the one extremely dangerous and the other very expensive.

"The simple instructions to spend the money appropriated seems to us unbusiness-like and unfair both to the taxpayers and the citizens who have contributed to the fund.

"In view of the fact that the committee have no definite plans for carrying on the work we respectfully ask that the former instructions given this committee be revoked and no further action be taken until some definite plan is decided upon. Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM SHEAHAN,
"C. G. HUNTLEY,
"E. F. STONEY.

"Committee on Streets and Public Property."

J. H. Westover, chairman of the committee on finance, appeared before the council and asked for the usual appropriation of $150 to be offered as prizes for horse team races but the council did not act on the application.

An ordinance was introduced and ordered published, instructing the council committee on streets and public property

DAMAGE SUIT IS COMPROMISED.

J. W. Wilson Sued S. P. Company for $10,000 and Settles for $47.70.

The $10,000 damage suit of J. W. Wilson, of this city, against the Southern Pacific Company, was compromised and settled, Wednesday, the plaintiff receiving $47.70.

About two years ago Wilson was ejected from the blind baggage of a train en route to Portland in the local depot yards and in dismounting from the train sustained the fracture of a leg. Through local attorneys, the injured man brought action against the company to recover damages in the sum of $10,000. The first action was dismissed on a non-suit and a second proceeding was thrown out of court on the same grounds. Wilson has been a cripple since the accident. The principal defense of the railroad company was that Wilson was attempting to steal a ride when the accident occurred.

The many friends of E. E. Taylor will be sorry to learn that the injury he received in Sunday's ball game, resulted in the bursting of the left ear drum. His hearing will be impaired permanently. The mishap is especially unfortunate for the game of ball at which the accident happened was played for the benefit of the Heppner sufferers, all of the proceeds being forwarded to that city.

All barber shops in Oregon City will remain closed all day on the Fourth. In view of this plan, the shops will be open until a late hour on the night before.

OCCUPY NEW HOME

First Methodist Church Rededicated Last Sunday.

Alteration Cost $12,000, and Edifice Is One of the Neatest Church Buildings in State.

The First Methodist church of this city was reopened and rededicated Sunday with appropriate services. Bishop Earl Cranston, of Portland, preached the dedicatory sermon at the morning service. A special service in the evening by the Epworth League was conducted by A. F. Fiegel, of Portland. Rev. J. B. T. Lathrop, pastor of the First Methodist church, of Portland, preached a sermon Sunday night.

The First Methodist church in Oregon City was organized in 1843. In 1890 the present church building was erected but the structure has just undergone extensive improvements, covering a period of eight months, and costing approximately $12,000. As remodelled the church, with its convenient appointments, is one of the neatest church homes in the state. While not entirely free from indebtedness, the congregation feels that the building will be able to discharge all obligations without other aid, since the lower floor of the building is occupied by a large business firm.

Bishop Cranston's discourse was based on the scriptural text, "Seek Ye First the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness." The Bishop discussed his text along the line of good citizenship, and contrasted the ideal American citizen with the good citizen in Christ's kingdom. As a model citizen in any country must understand the structural form of the government and laws of his native land, obey those laws, contribute his share of the cost of maintaining good government, love and defend the flag of his country, so must the ideal citizen in Christ's kingdom be enrolled on the church roll, learn the nature of God's kingdom, learn his laws, pay dues into the kingdom and at all times be loyal to the flag, the symbol of his belief. In the course of his remarks, Bishop Cranston asserted that the expenditure of $500,000 for missions in the Sandwich Islands so transformed conditions there that the annexation of the Islands was deemed expedient by the United States. The speaker urged the supplanting of the military by the missionary as a more direct and satisfactory means of civilizing foreign peoples and giving them their proper place in the commercial world. The speaker recommended the placing of 1000 missionaries in China, and said that if such a thing should be done, it would not be long until the ships that would be required to handle the commerce between this country and China would be so numerous that they would never be out of sight of each other on the broad expanse of the Pacific ocean.

Sola Circle, Women of Woodcraft, at a recent meeting elected Miss Echo Samson and Miss Grace Marshall as candidates to be voted on for associate queen from this city to the Woodmen Carnival to be held in Portland in July. Balloting, which has begun in earnest at 5 cents per vote, will close on July 7. Both of the young ladies are popular in this city and either would very creditably represent the local lodge.

The Schillers, of Portland, will play the Oregon City nine, of the Interstate league at Canemab Park Sunday afternoon. The game will be called at 2 o'clock and the home team hopes to be able to make it interesting for the visitors.

Two births are reported this week as follows: To Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, of Canemab, Sunday, June 21, a boy; to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weber, of this city, Monday, June 22, a daughter.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall, of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by Geo. A. Harding, Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

to purchase crushed rock, brick and other supplies for the repairing of the streets. The ordinance as introduced orders the purchase of about $3000 worth of materials.

POPULAR NORTH BEACH.

Excursion Steamer T. J. Potter Goes Into Service 27.

Those who are planning their vacation this year will be interested in knowing that the popular excursion steamer, T. J. Potter, queen of river boats, goes into service June 27, and that she will leave Portland, during the season, every day from Tuesday until Saturday inclusive. To see the beauties of the picturesque and mighty Columbia from the decks of the Potter is a treat never to be forgotten. For speed and grace nothing in river or lake service in the entire West equals this side wheel beauty. Five hours from Portland and one from Astoria, through the famous fishing waters of the Columbia, past scores of salmon traps and nets and as many white-winged fish boats, lands the passengers at Ilwaco, where close connection is made for beach points with trains of the Ilwaco Railway & Navigation Company, whose cars stand on the wharf awaiting the steamer. The beach is twenty-seven miles long, two hundred yards wide at low tide, and so hard that carriage wheels scarcely leave a mark. It is an ideal place for driving, riding, wheeling or walking, and the surf bathing is unsurpassable. The excellent hotels and boarding houses provide good accommodations at prices ranging from one dollar to three dollars per day.

The round-trip rate from Portland to Astoria is $2.50; to Ocean Beach points, $4.00, good until October 15th. On Saturdays, during July and August, round-trip tickets are sold to beach points at $2.50, good for return, leaving the beach the following Sunday evening.

The Oregon Railway & Navigation Co. has just issued a new summer book, free for the asking, which tells all about the delightful resorts of the Valley of the Columbia River. This can be obtained from any agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co., or write A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.
