The Voice of Experience.

The bride's mother was visiting her, and together they sat in the sewing room. The bride was fixing the sleeve lining of her husband's overcoat.

"Well, I think that's a neat job," remarked the bride, as she finished her task. The mother examined it and shook her head solemnly.

"You don't like it?" suggested the bride. "It's too well done," was the reply. "Too well done?" "Yes, it's a tailor's job."

"But if I can do it as well as a tailor?" "Why, then, of course, you'll have to keep on doing things of that sort. Oh, I know all about it. I tried it myself when I was first married, and later I had to ruin two coats before I could break your father of the habit of bringing everything to me. Just listen to the voice of experience, daughter, and make a bungling job of that, even if you have to tear it all out and do it over again. It's no trouble at all to discourage him now, but it will be a year or so later. It is of the utmost importance that a woman should begin married life right."—Chicago Post.

For Want of a Nail The Shoe Was Lost.

FOR WANT OF A SHOE THE HORSE WAS LAMED.

Every blacksmith knows that story of the neglected nail, the cast shoe and the ruined horse. In old country smithy's you may see the legend rudely painted or chalked on the wall as a reminder to customers that it pays to care for horses' shoes, and that a little neglect may have a very serious result. But the blacksmith is, as a rule, like the good deacon, who passes on the pastor's denunciation of his own follies to some one else. It never occurs to him to take the sermon home to himself. The blacksmith has for example a little touch of "stomach trouble." His food seems to lie like a lump in his stomach. It ferments and gives off gases which cause him discomfort and uneasiness. He has sour and bitter risings, or "water brash." But this man who knows and preaches the danger of neglect in the loss of a nail from a horse's shoe goes right along neglecting symptoms which in scores and hundreds of cases are fore-runners of a physical breakdown.

DO NOTHING DOCTRINE.

That's the doctrine of a great many indolent people. They say "it will go away after a bit" when cautioned to "do something" for their ailment. Just imagine a farmer looking over the fence at the sprouting weeds in his corn and saying "they'll go away after a bit." Diseases are like weeds. All they ask is neglect and they will grow and flourish. Neglect the first symptoms of disease of the stomach and it will not be long before other organs are involved, because every organ of the body is dependent on the stomach and its allied organs for nutrition. When the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are diseased the food eaten is not perfectly digested and assimilated. Hence there is a loss of nutrition by the body, a loss which shows itself in loss of flesh and reduced weight, and that loss of nutrition is shared by every organ of the body, heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, etc. As a consequence when the stomach is diseased, the heart is liable to be involved, or the lungs, kidneys or liver. These facts emphasize the danger of neglect of what is popularly termed "stomach trouble."

The timely use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will generally result in a complete cure of disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition and will establish the body in a condition of sound and vigorous health. "I was taken with gripes, which resulted in stomach and heart trouble," writes Mr. T. R. Caudill, of Montana, Allegheny Co., N. C. "I was unable to do anything a good part of the time. I wrote to Dr. Pierce about my condition, having full confidence in his medicine. He advised me to take his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did. Before I had finished the second bottle I began to feel better. I have used nearly 40 bottles and am well."

DON'T EXPERIMENT WITH YOUR STOMACH. It's a waste of time and money to experiment on medicines. If you are on a journey to a certain town, you take the road that will surely bring you there. You don't turn aside and experiment on roads simply because they are roads. The road you follow is the road which leads to where you want to be. It's that way with medicine. When you want the way which leads straight and sure to health you will follow the thousands who have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and have been perfectly and permanently cured.

"It gives the great pleasure to inform you of the benefits that I have realized from the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Peppermint' writes Mrs. J. C. Fink, of Vast, Rowan Co., N. C. "Last winter I was so bad off that I thought it impossible for me to live until spring. I was taken sick in January and was in pain all over. The doctor was called, and said my liver was out of order. He gave me some medicine but it did me no good. I grew steadily worse. I could not eat as much as one bite of bread without great pain, and was so hungry all the time that I thought I would starve to death. My head ached, my shoulders ached, my stomach was crossed. My brain felt so much that I thought I was almost insane. I could not sleep right off a while at a time. Would get up mornings weak and nervous. I could scarcely stand. In this way I suffered, I think, about two months, when a friend of mine induced me to write to Dr. Pierce for advice which I did. His answer was that I had indigestion and liver complaint, and advising me to take his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I followed the Doctor's directions closely, and in a few days could discover that I was getting better slowly. Every day I felt just a little better, then I could begin to eat a little light diet. Then I began to eat a little better at night and in the morning would feel refreshed and rested. Now I began to gather a little flesh, and I began to improve rapidly. I took eight bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and several vials of 'Pleasant Peppermint' and I felt that I was well enough to leave off medicine and go to work, which I did with pleasure. I have not taken any medicine since except Dr. Pierce's Peppermint. I can eat anything and as much as I want and it never now hurts me a particle."

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

A HOLE IN THE POCKET may mean a serious loss of money. In the same way with a hole in the health, it may mean a serious loss of vitality and vigor. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser teaches how to mend the health, as well as how to prevent disease. This bulky book, containing 100 large pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps, to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book cloth-bound, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper cover. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
