

O. R. & N.

Personal Mention

Oregon Short Line and Union Pacific

THREE TRAIN TO THE EAST DAILY

Through Pullman standard and Tourist sleeping cars daily to Omaha, Chicago, Spokane; tourist sleeping cars daily to Kansas City; through Pullman tourist sleeping cars (personally conducted) weekly to Chicago, Kansas City, reclining chairs (seats free) the east daily, from Portland

Table with columns: DEPART, TIME SCHEDULES, ARRIVE. Lists train routes to Salt Lake, Denver, Ft. Worth, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago and East.

70 HOURS Portland to Chicago

No Change of Cars. Tickets east via all rail, or boat and rail via Portland.

SCHEDULES OF TIME

Southern Pacific Railway schedules. Includes North Bound and South Bound times for various routes.

Daily River Excursions

Oregon City Boats schedule. Lists departure and arrival times for Foot Taylor St. and Foot Eighth St.

Miss Vera Caulfield is visiting in Seattle. C. H. Moores was a visitor to Salem Wednesday. Don Meldrum spent a few days this week at Hood River.

C. Schobel was a business visitor to Eagle Creek Tuesday. Mat Fuller, a detective of Portland, was in the city Tuesday. Gilbert L. Hedges has returned from a business trip to Prineville.

Defective Ford, of Portland, was visiting in Oregon City this week. George Howard, a merchant of Highland, was in the city Monday. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Ramsby have gone for a vacation visit near Molalla.

Miss Mary Payne, of Salem, was a visitor to the Chautauqua last week. James Marquam and Pede Jones, of Marquam, were in the city Tuesday. Mrs. Michael E. Clancy and daughter spent the week with relatives at Seattle.

Hon. W. P. Hawley and wife and Master Willard Hawley, of Oregon City, are in the city—Tuesday's Albany Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jewell, of San Francisco, are visiting in this city the guests of Mrs. Jewell's mother, Mrs. Rudy.

Charles W. Noblitt, a prominent farmer of the Needy neighborhood, was a visitor in this city the early part of the week.

Miss Bessie Sleight, accompanied by her recent guest, Miss Mary Scougall, of Portland, has gone to Canby for a visit with relatives.

Rev. N. Shupp, presiding elder of the Evangelical church, was in the city last Saturday from Salem, the guest of Rev. A. A. Englebart.

Miss Celia Goldsmith left Sunday night for San Francisco, where she will spend a month in the interest of her millinery business.

Misses Leone Kays and Vernita Henderson returned this afternoon from a visit in Oregon City and Portland.—Wednesday's Eugene Guard.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Clark have returned from their eastern trip and report having had a splendid time. Mr. Clark has gone to Bandon.

Mort Cockrell, one of Huntley Bros' obliging salesmen, will return today from a week's outing spent in the mountains and with relatives at Albany.

A. W. Cooke, of Damascus, was in the city last Saturday making arrangements for the grand harvest festival that is to be held at Damascus tomorrow.

J. W. McKay and family, accompanied by Miss Bessie Grant, left Wednesday for points in British Columbia, where they will spend about two months.

Merle Johnson, of San Francisco, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Carey Johnson in this city. Merle is employed as an artist on the Examiner.

Mr. Conyers, of Clatskanie, was in the city this week in attendance on the Grand Council of the Improved Order of Redmen, to which he was a delegate.

C. V. Galloway, former member of the house of representatives from Yamhill county, was in the city Sunday from McMinnville for a visit with his parents, Judge and Mrs. Wm. Galloway.

Miss Helen Calbreath has returned to Salem, having been the guest of Miss Galloway. While in the city Miss Calbreath served very acceptably as pianist at the Chautauqua Assembly.

L. A. Bair, of Canby, was a visitor to Oregon City Thursday. He reports that the large steam shovel used by the S. P. Co. at that place for excavating earth for the roadbed, has been taken to Portland for repairs, and work has been temporarily suspended.

Emery Dye was here over Sunday, bidding his friends goodbye, as he will not be back for his senior year in college. He goes to Oberlin for his senior year, and expects to leave in a short time to be ready for opening of the school year.—Forest Grove Times.

Charles Bier, of Salem, visited with friends in this city last Friday. He was en route to Seaside, where he will spend his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hussey, of Portland, were in the city Sunday, being the guests of Mrs. Emma Davidson and other friends.

Mrs. Frank Nelson has gone to Long Beach to remain until September. Mr. Nelson returned the latter part of last week from the beach, where he spent a fortnight with Mrs. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Raymond, of Salem, were visiting friends in this city and attending the Chautauqua the latter part of last week. Mr. Raymond is the deputy postmaster at Salem.

Seth Leavens, former physical director of the Oregon City Y. M. C. A., but now located in Portland where he is employed by the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, was in the city Wednesday.

H. L. Fenton, M. D. Ellis and Fred Toner, of Dallas, and John Clark, of Oregon City, left this week on their annual hunting trip to the Cascade mountains. They will spend a month or more in the vicinity of Mt. Jefferson.—Polk County Observer.

T. L. Johnson, who is employed in the mechanical department of the Portland Organian, was in the city this week the guest of his cousin, Deputy Sheriff E. C. Hackett. Mr. Johnson returned to Portland Wednesday morning with a fine string of trout. He learned the printer's trade in this city on the Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tabor will leave August 1 for a month's outing at their summer cottage in Sylvan Park, Cannon Beach. They will be accompanied by the following party of pleasure seekers: Mrs. Julia A. Williams, of Spokane, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hoyt, Hillsboro, Ore., Mrs. Elmer Dixon and daughter Inis and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Miller, of Oregon City.

County Judge Ryan will tomorrow accompany his family to Seaside, where they will remain for the summer. Judge Ryan will return to the city Monday. In September Judge Ryan goes to Baltimore to attend as a delegate from Oregon the grand lodge of Odd Fellows. On the same trip the Judge will attend as a delegate the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons that will be convened in St. Louis during the same month.

For Young Men and Young Women. There is nothing that will arouse the ire of a young man or woman so quick as to have inferior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is messy, their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy Laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Johnson's barber shop.

Card of Thanks. The family of Dora Storer wishes to thank their many friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy during the sickness and death of their beloved Dora.

Social Events

Miss Elma and Ethelyn Albright entertained Wednesday evening in honor of the Misses Stuart, of Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lewthwaite entertained Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Edith Lewthwaite, of California. Whist was played and delicious refreshments were served.

The recital given at Ranier last Saturday night by Miss Mary Conyers, of this city, was a pleasing success. Miss Conyers was assisted in giving the recital by Miss Veda Williams, of this city; Miss Anna English, of Portland; the Tichenor orchestra, of Clatskanie, and local talent. Ellers' music house of Portland contributed a fine piano for the concert, and in giving two selections, Miss Williams, the accomplished musician of this city, received a flattering reception. Miss Williams is a gifted performer and her excellent work on this occasion added to her fame as a pleasing entertainer. Miss Conyers, who is a favorite wherever she appears, added new laurels to her reputation as a singer, and Miss English, of Portland, delighted the large audience with a number of excellent violin numbers. Following the musical programme a social dance was given.

Services will be conducted at St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday by Rev. P. K. Hammond at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Get a pound of the best coffee you ever drank, at Harris' grocery. Its Tillman's!

The wedding of Miss Ina Chase and Mr. Lewellyn Adams will take place in this city Wednesday, August 5.

County Clerk Sleight last Wednesday issued a marriage license to Frank Brown and Josephine Beavens, both of this city.

Notice: The board of directors of the Harmony school, District No. 49, is prepared to receive applications for a principal teacher.

County Clerk F. A. Sleight witnessed the game of baseball in Portland Thursday afternoon between the Portland and San Francisco teams.

The many friends of Miss Metta Finley, who recently suffered a serious sprained limb, will be pleased to learn that she is slowly recovering from the injury and will soon be able to be about.

Don't forget and pay retail prices for your dry goods, when you can get goods for ten cents on a dollar below wholesale price at the Racket Store. July 31.

Invitations have been issued by the Florodora Club for another of its popular dancing parties to be given at Canemah Park this evening. Turney's orchestra has been engaged and the party promises to be a repetition of past successes.

Company A, Third Regiment, O. N. G., will hold its final meeting at the armory next Monday night when disbandment will follow the making of required reports to the new organization of the state guard. All enlisted men of the company who are entitled thereto will receive honorable discharge papers.

Mr. Frank L. Brown and Miss Josephine Beavens, both of this city, were married at the home of the groom at Gladstone, Wednesday afternoon, Rev. E. S. Bollinger officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have the best wishes of many friends for much happiness. They will reside at Gladstone.

A company of Oregon City young men leave the first of the week for a month's outing in Southern Oregon. Those forming the party are O. F. Williams, Ed Reckner, Rhea Cole, Frank Freeman, Dr. A. F. Beattie and A. W. Cheney. The party goes to Medford by train and then by wagon to Crater Lake and Klamath county.

Among the notable features of the Argonaut for July 27, 1903, are "The Capture of the Colonel: A Story of San Francisco," by Marguerite Stabler; "The Beautiful Aurelias," a witty review of Hugues le Roux's book on America, by Geraldine Bonner; "Electing a New Pope," and a criticism of the performances at Fischer's Theatre, the Orpheum, and the Columbia Theatre, by Josephine Hart Phelps.

The Crown Paper Company, which was recently made defendant in a damage suit for $5000 that was brought in the circuit court, has filed a motion asking the court to make an order transferring the case from the Clackamas county circuit court to the United States District court for Oregon. This damage suit was brought by Geo. W. Bibee, as administrator of the estate of Roy Sunderland, who lost his life in the company's mill in this city last January. In asking that the case be transferred, the defendant company supports its motion by stating that it is a corporation duly incorporated and existing under the laws of California, while the plaintiff in the case is a resident of another state and the amount involved is in excess of $2000. Dolph, Mallory, Simon and Gearin, of Portland, appear as counsel for the paper company.

Card of Thanks. We desire to express our gratitude and thanks to our many friends for their tender expressions of sympathy and assistance during our bereavement; also for their kind attention to our mother during her long and painful illness. ERASTUS A., THOS. A., AND MATHEW S. SMITH.

About twenty-five thousand acres of land in Clackamas county is held by P. H. Marlay, et al, under tax titles, which will soon ripen into good titles if not defeated. I hereby agree to defeat any of those titles for about one-half the sum demanded for a deed by said P. H. Marlay et al. Otherwise no charges made. G. B. DUMICK, Attorney-at-law, Oregon City, Oregon.

A GIRL TO TRUST.

So Thought President Lincoln When He Handed Her a Pass.

During the civil war Miss N., a high spirited Virginia young lady whose father, a Confederate soldier, had been taken prisoner by the Union forces, was desirous of obtaining a pass which would enable her to visit him. Francis P. Blair agreed to obtain an audience with the president, but warned his young and rather impulsive friend to be prudent and not betray her sympathy for the south. They were ushered into the presence of Mr. Lincoln, and the object for which they had come was stated. The tall, grave man bent down to the little maiden and, looking searchingly into her face, said:

"You are loyal, of course?" Her bright eyes flashed. She hesitated a moment, and then, with a face eloquent with emotion and honest as his own, she replied:

"Yes, loyal to the heart's core—to Virginia!" Mr. Lincoln kept his intent gaze upon her for a moment longer and then went to his desk, wrote a line or two and handed her the paper. With a bow the interview terminated. When they had left the room, Mr. Blair began to upbraid his young friend for her impetuosity.

"Now you have done it!" he said. "Didn't I warn you to be very careful? You have only yourself to blame." Miss N. made no reply, but opened the paper. It contained these words:

Pass Miss N. She is an honest girl and can be trusted. A. LINCOLN.

Red Jacket's Memory. Red Jacket, the Indian chief, had more confidence in his own memory than in books and papers of white men. There was a council at one time before Tompkins, an early governor of New York, in regard to an ancient treaty. The agent said one thing, but Red Jacket corrected him. "You have forgotten," said the American agent. "We have it written down on paper."

"The paper then tells a lie," was the confident answer. "I have it written here," continued the chief, placing his hand with dignity upon his brow. "You Yankees are born with a feather between your fingers, but your paper does not speak the truth. The Indian keeps his knowledge here. This is the book the Great Spirit gave him. It does not lie." A reference was made to the treaty in question, when to the astonishment of all every word that Red Jacket had said was confirmed on the document.

Amused Only the Actors. In his "Random Recollections" Charles H. E. Brookfield, a highly esteemed actor on the London stage, says: "I remember a piece which we produced at the Comedy theater, written by a popular author and very strongly cast, which amused us all so much that we could hardly rehearse it. Charles Hawtree used every now and then to warn us: 'Now, don't speak too soon on that. There's certain to be a big laugh, and we don't want them to miss the next line.' We rehearsed for six weeks. On the first night nothing went wrong—but the piece. There was not one laugh nor one round of applause from start to finish. We took off the comedy in ten days, during which we rehearsed as a stop gap a conventional three act farce with no literary pretensions. I think it ran for a year."

Queer About the Eyes. Prince Troubetsky, the artist, once painted in Paris the portrait of an American who was cross eyed. The painter thought a great deal about the matter and finally made his picture cross eyed, too, so that it should be a faithful likeness.

When it was done, the original looked at it and said: "It seems to me—it seems—why, hang it, this picture is cross eyed, isn't it?"

"Why, no more than you are, sir," said Prince Troubetsky. "Well, perhaps you're right," murmured the American. "It seems to have a queer look about the eyes, though."

Her Fathomless Eyes. It was the hermit Thoreau, whose mistress was wood and stream, who wrote: "The lover sees in the glance of his beloved the same beauty that in the sunset paints the western skies. It is the same diamond here lurking under a human eyelid and there under the closing eyelids of the day. Here, in small compass, is the ancient and natural beauty of evening and morning. What loving astronomer has ever fathomed the ethereal depths of the eye?"

Cause and Effect. La Montt—Children are so much worse than they used to be. What do you attribute it to? La Moyné—Improved ideas in building.

La Montt—What has that to do with it? La Moyné—Much. Shingles are scarce, and you can't spank a boy with a tin roof.—Philadelphia Record.

Hard Work. "I suppose you have heard about young Chumley? He is very seriously ill as a result of overwork." "You don't say so! What has he been doing to bring it about?" "Trying to collect his thoughts."

Giving Him a Chance. Master Pickles—I think that if I went out of the room Mr. Spooner would kiss you, Ada.

Miss Pickles (sternly)—Leave the room this instant, you impertinent boy!

It is a lot of fun being in love if a man doesn't care if he saves any money or holds his job.—Atchison Globe.

Large advertisement for RECRUIT cigars. Features the text: 'READY For a good smoke? Then AIM to get a Recruit 5c cigar. When you touch the FIRE to it you'll understand why it's at the front with the great army of smokers. TWO BANDS FROM RECRUIT CIGARS ARE EQUAL TO ONE TAG FROM STAR TOBACCO IN SECURING PRESENTS. Save the Band FROM EVERY RECRUIT'.