Jack Latourette has returned to Eugene to take up his course at the state university. He will begin where he left off last year if he has not forgotten it all. Jack is a jolly good fellow and will be sorely missed during the winter months by his gentlemen friends and others.

Miss Mattie Draper has returned from Tioza, near Long Beach, where with a number of other young ladies from this city she has been enjoying an outing. Mrs. Laura Pope, Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith, Misses Winner, Pratt and Pope, of this city, and Miss Pillsbury, of Portland, will return home tomorrow.

E. E. Charman, T. L. Charman, of this city, and Oscar Wisinger, of Milwaukie, have returned from an outing at the base of Mt. Hood. During the ten days that were passed in the near vicinity of this famous mountain peak, members of the party were able to see the summit but twice because of the foggy and rainy weather. Some splendid fishing was enjoyed by the party in Clear Lake. Mr. Charman reports that the fish racks at the Salmon river hatchery have suffered considerable damage as a result of the high water following the recent rains. Many of the racks were washed as far down stream as Sandy.

Just received, new styles in hats, caps and veils at Miss Goldsmith's.

New Millinery Store.

E. C. Hamilton, who recently became the proprietor of the Red Front store, will, as formerly, carry a complete line of up-to-date and seasonable millinery. This department of the business will be in charge of Mrs. Hamilton, who has retained for the season the services of Mrs. Thomas, who for a number of years gave such faultless satisfaction in the capacity of trimmer. A large and complete line of the best millinery goods will be carried. Ladies are urged to call and inspect the Hamilton stock before making purchases.

Sam Morris, the famous Indian pitcher of the Portland Browns, looked upon the firewater several times last evening, and as a consequence he was arrested at two o'clock this morning near the Union Depot, says Thursday's Oregonian. Very much the worse for wear, he was landed in the police station. Several persons on Sixth street heard two pistol shots a few minutes before Morris was landed in jail. They saw the patrol wagon stop as the shots were fired, and also saw the man who had attempted to escape hauled inside again. The officers who made the arrest admit there was trouble with Morris, but as tied-mouth orders prevail around the station just now, they dare not say they shot at the escaping prisoner.

Social Events

Mr. Fred Fontaine, of Sumpter, and Miss Nellie Donahue, of Cottrell, Clackamas county, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Donahue, at Cottrell, Wednesday, September 16, 1903. Mr. Fontaine is a native Salem boy and is now located at Sumpter where he is successfully engaged in the legal profession. The bride is one of Clackamas county's fairest daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Fontaine have gone to Salem where they will spend a few days. After a visit at Seaside and other lower Columbia river points, they will return to Sumpter where they will reside.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough had set in besides. Doctors treated him but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung Diseases. Guaranteed by Charman & Co., Druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Go to Miss Goldsmith's and see those new styles in ready-to-wear hats and veils.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

COUNTY EDUCATORS CONGREGATE.

Successful Session Clackamas Teachers' Institute Held This Week.

Oregon City was this week invaded by a small army of bright educators. The occasion was the annual Clackamas county teachers institute and the gathering was quite representative of the bright young people of the county. More than one hundred successful teachers of Clackamas county were in attendance at the meetings, which were held at the Barclay school building. The opening session was held Tuesday morning, adjournment taking place Thursday afternoon.

In conducting the sessions of the institute, County Superintendent Zinaer was assisted by the following corps of competent lecturers: State Superintendent Ackerman, of Salem; City Superintendent Rigler, Prof. D. A. Grout and Edie A. Patterson, of the Portland schools. The institute was one of the most successful ever held in this county. Lectures were given both afternoon and evening by the prominent educators named. There was but a single departure from the routine programme. On Wednesday evening State Superintendent Ackerman delivered a lecture at the county court house, the subject of the address being "The Trend, What Is It?"

OPENING OF CITY SCHOOLS.

City Superintendent Clark Has Something To Say About Registration.

The Oregon City public schools will open Monday, September 28. In this connection, City Superintendent Clark gives the following announcement regarding the registration of pupils:

All eighth grade and high school pupils will report at the Barclay building; also those of grades below the eighth grade who live on Main street or on the hill north of Seventh and west of Jackson.

Pupils living on the hill south of Seventh street and east of Jackson, will report at the Casham building.

All first primary pupils must enter school during the first week of this term, as new classes cannot be formed in this grade after the first week of school.

The members of Oregon City Lodge No. 302 of the Fraternal Brotherhood entertained their friends at a social and dance at Woodmen hall Tuesday evening. There was a good attendance including many members of the order from Portland.

The Prattle of a Bright Child. At times it cannot be denied the questions of children become irksome, but who would wish a child to ask no questions? Julius Sturm tells in one of his pretty fairy tales how a grandfather, driven into impatience by the constant questionings of his grandchild, exclaimed, "I wish your tongue were out of joint!" But when unexpectedly his wish was fulfilled and the child became dumb how he joyfully exchanged one of the two years which an angel had prophesied he was yet to live for the privilege of hearing the little one's prattle again!

Speechmaking. "What do you think of my speech?" said the aspiring young orator. "Not bad," said the cold man of experience. "I devoted a great deal of thought to it."

"Yes, that's a mistake young men are apt to make. You put thoughts into your speeches instead of telling the audience stories."

Even at That. Gus—The idea of his saying I had more money than brains! Quite ridiculous! Jack—That so? Gus—Of course. Why, I haven't got a cent. Jack—Well?—Philadelphia Ledger.

Comes High. Knicker—Experience is the best teacher. Bocker—Well, aren't we always raising her salary?—Harper's Bazar.

David Close, of this city, who suffered the loss of a limb in a railroad accident in the local switch yards several weeks ago, has returned to Oregon City from the Portland hospital. Mr. Close has gone to his little home at Clackamas where he will spend his remaining days, a particular friend of the pioneer railroad man having purchased the property and discharging all obligations that threatened to take from Mr. Close the title to the home.

Mr. Montgomery, who recently received the contract from the city for the cleaning of Main street, performed the service for about a week, when he disposed of his street cleaning outfit to Cornelius O'Donnell, who was the second lowest bidder for the work. Mr. O'Donnell will now attend to the cleaning of the streets. The work of Mr. Montgomery the few days that he held the contract, was quite satisfactory and accomplished in the streets a decidedly improved appearance.
