The millinery openings that were held in Oregon City during the past week by the three milliners, Miss Goldsmith, Mrs. Sladen and Mrs. Hamilton, reflected credit on these enterprising business ladies and were such that a city much larger than Oregon City might have been proud of. This is only another evidence of the fact that people of Oregon City make no mistake in purchasing their goods of the home merchants. With the stocks in this city, the need for patronizing outside points by residents of this city is absolutely lacking. Stand by the home merchant and in so doing aid in a substantial way in building up your town.
