GRANGERS MEET
Annual Session Held Last Week at Molalla.
Resolution, Endorsing Initiative and Referendum, is Adopted—Election of Officers.

Clackamas District Pomona Grange met in the hall of Molalla Grange No.
310, October 14, 1903.
The report from subordinate granges show a steady increase in membership in the county, also the new grange organized during the quarter, making eighteen in the county.
A number of granges are making systematic efforts to improve the literary part of the grange work.
A resolution in favor of co-operation was introduced by J. S. Casto and adopted by the grange. This resolution recommends that the subordinate granges in the county discuss this subject and prepare to instruct their delegates to the next state grange on what lines and to what extent co-operation is desired.
The following resolution on the "Direct Legislation" question was unanimously carried:

Whereas, The State Grange of Oregon has for many years at its annual sessions, endorsed the "Initiative and Referendum" and the members used their best endeavors to procure its adoption as a part of the state constitution and believe its maintenance a safeguard to the preservation of the most sacred rights of the people, we view with alarm the recent decision of the circuit court of Multnomah County declaring said amendment void; and Whereas, We believe the voters of the state fully understood the purport and effect of such amendment when they voted for its ratification, and Whereas, We believe said circuit court was not properly or well advised in considering said amendment when said decision was rendered.

Therefore, Be it resolved, That it is the sense of this grange that said amendment should remain a part of the constitution and that the wishes and rights of the people should not be sacrificed by strained and narrow decisions and on technical questions.
R. Shubel introduced the following:
Resolved That the master of this Pomona Grange appoint a committee of three to examine the assessment roll of Clackamas county in respect to the equality of assessment between corporation and farm property, and report at the next session of this grange.
After a thorough discussion the resolution was adopted and R. Shubel, C. C.
Boreland and Wm. Grisenthwaite were appointed on that committee.

After supper the grange assembled in the hall over the school room where a class of 67 were initiated into the degree of Pomona.
After enjoying a feast of cake, those present listened to an interesting program consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, select readings, stump speeches, original poems etc.
Molalla Grange No. 310 is young in years but large in numbers and when it comes to entertaining, well, its "Molalla against the world."
The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Wm. Grisenthwaite, master; J. W. Thomas, overseer; Geo.
Workman, lecturer; Wm. Beard, steward; H. Glover, Assistant Steward; O.
A. Eaton, chaplain; T. L. Turner, treasurer; C. E. Spence, secretary; Edwin Bates, gatekeeper; Della Guttridge, Ceres; M. A. Johnson, Pomona; E. T.
B. Thomas, Flora; Rose A. Robbins,
L. A. S.
Secretary.

FOR A MONUMENT TO SACAJAWEA Oregon City Women's Club Takes Initial Step In Movement.
The entertainment given in this city last Tuesday night by the Oregon City Women's Lewis & Clark Fair Club was the first public meeting that has been held in the state in the interest of Sacajawa, the Indian girl-guide, to whom the Women's Clubs of the state propose to erect a monument at the Lewis & Clark fair at Portland in 1905.
An interested audience attended the exercises which were held at the Armory.
C. H. Dye was chairman of the meeting and after a few introductory remarks explanatory of the exercises and of the work proposed by the Women's Clubs of the state, a programme consisting of the following numbers was carried out: Instrumental solo, Miss Edna Daulton; selection, ladies' quartette, composed of the Misses Mark, Miss Samson and Miss Marshall; reading, Mrs. Frank Weed; song, Mr. C. F. Miller; address, Hon. C.
B. Moore; vocal solo, Miss Mary Conyers, Portland; address, Hon. Wm. Galloway; vocal solo, Mrs. A. S. Dresser; address, Mrs. Eva Emery-Dye; vocal solo, Len Conier; address, C. H. Dye.
Following the programme refreshments were served and a social dance was given.
The principal address of the evening was delivered by Mrs. Dye, who is taking an especial interest in the movement to erect the Sacajawa monument. She said in part:

"Welcome new people settling among us. One woman told me she had lived in Oregon City ten years and did not feel acquainted. Well, there are churches and lodges, and best of all, the Lewis & Clark Club, exactly where we want the new people as well as the old residents to help us get ready for the great event of 1905. We must begin to talk up our city, the old capital of Oregon, the historic town of the northwest. It is all very well to have dancing clubs and music clubs and reading clubs, but what we need just now is a city improvement club to put on Oregon City's best bill and tucker, and there is no time to lose.
Before you know it people will be coming up here in boats and cars by the thousands to see the McLoughlin's grave and the mills, and I know not what all. Cannot that street be graded down to the boat landing, and some cement walks put in? Cannot the square on top of the hill be cleared of rubbish and graded and kept smooth as a lawn? Cannot the park on the hill be mowed or shaven and kept green all summer? Some of our mayors have done a great work in street improvement and there is room for more yet. Suppose we do offend somebody, keep on offending until we make Oregon City such an attractive place that whoever visits it will want to make it his future home. Why, Nature has done everything for us; not a town or city in all the world has finer natural views or more rugged scenery. With a little help it might be made the most picturesque spot in the Northwest. Our Humane society has put up a fine fountain, and the Y. M. C. A. people have built a hall, now let us go on and plant flower gardens around the schools, factories and the railroad station. Let each school child bring a nickel for the package of garden seeds and begin home gardening, beautifying the homes of our city. Dars we begin to talk of statuary in public places, or of stone parapets along the dangerous bluff up yonder, or of cement walks all over town, or of shade trees, or rose-bushes, and handstands and open air concerts?

"The women will have to do this, the men are the bread winners, but our women are equal to the situation. That is the object of the Lewis & Clark Club, a club needed more than any other in this city. And we want every live woman in the Lewis & Clark Club.
"Then we have the Chautauqua here, that has been a civic improvement institution from the beginning. Thousands will come here to compare a Pacific coast Chautauqua with those they have back east. Something will be done there to keep the dust down and make more attractive the path leading from the railroad to the assembly proper.
"I look for the approaching Lewis and Clark Exposition to be the greatest object lesson ever brought to Oregon.
From the day the gates open Oregon will be changed, new ideals will leave the people, shiftless farmhouses will begin to disappear, either improved by their occupants or sold to newcomers who will improve them, for the future lies on this Pacific coast. It is a good thing to be here now, for the balance of the world is shifting from Atlantic to Pacific shores. Some here can recall the time when Oregon was a wilderness, some here will see it the center of art and manufactures and commerce such as the world has never seen. And Oregon City has a part in this great movement, she will be the twin of Portland as Minneapolis is of St. Paul, and Council Bluffs of Omaha. Frown upon the man who talks against his town, Oregon City is as good as any of them' and is going to be better."

ITS WORK ENDED
Baptist State Convention Has Adjourned.
Will Meet Next Year at McMinnville—Portland Wants Meeting in 1905.

Final adjournment of the state Baptist Association, which was in session in this city, took place Friday afternoon rather than in the evening according to the programme. It was decided to consolidate the Friday evening programme with that of Thursday night and thus abbreviate the sessions of the convention.
The programme Thursday night included musical selections by the Oregon City choir and the conservatory of music of the McMinnville college, and an address by Rev. C. H. Woody, of Portland, on "The Kingdom of God."
The Women's Foreign Missionary Society had charge of the programme Thursday. Mrs. M. A. E. Stone presented a paper on "Child Wives in India" and Miss Mary G. Bordette, of Chicago, delivered a talk along missionary lines. "Work in Cuba and Puerto Rico" was discussed by Rev. Ronald McKillop, of Ashland, while Rev. A. H.
Carmen presented a paper on "The Present Outlook and Need in the Home Mission Problem." President A. M.
Brumback, of the McMinnville College, delivered an address on "The College is a Missionary Enterprise." The convention adjourned Friday afternoon after voting to meet next year at McMinnville. Two hundred and nineteen delegates were in attendance at the convention, which was one of the largest that has been held in many years.

Friday's sessions were devoted largely to the hearing of reports from the various societies and committees. Some severe resolutions were adopted denouncing the liquor traffic and urging the church to be more active in its opposition thereto.
By a vote it was decided to shorten by a day the length of the convention meeting next year. An invitation was extended to the Baptist Publication Society asking that organization to meet in Portland in 1905. The feature of Friday's proceedings was an address by Rev. R. G. Seymour, D. D., field secretary of Philadelphia. Other addresses were made by Rev. John M. Foster, missionary at Swatow, China; E. H.
Hicks, F. C. Stander and G. T. Ellis.

HAS NOT COMPLIED WITH LAWS
Secretary Dunbar Writes Concerning an Insurance Company.
Secretary of State Dunbar has addressed a circular letter to the insurance agents of the state with reference to the Millers' National Insurance Company which is attempting to transact business in this state without first having complied with the laws of the state regulating the operation of these companies.
The letter is as follows:
"This office is in receipt of an inquiry, asking to be informed if the Millers' National Insurance Company has made application to do business in this state, and if not, whether, in our opinion, it may issue policies on the mutual plan, through agents without their complying with the requirements of the statutes."
"In reply have to advise that the
has not made application to do business within this state and is not licensed.
"This office holds that mutual fire insurance companies, organized under the laws of other states, are not exempt from the laws which are applicable to fire insurance companies generally which desire to enter this state for the transaction of insurance business; but that such companies, and their agents and employees, must comply strictly with the general laws which govern in the case of foreign fire insurance companies. This a foreign mutual fire insurance cannot do; hence, such company cannot lawfully, in our opinion, transact business in Oregon.
"Any person undertaking to represent the Millers' National Insurance Company, as agent, is violating the insurance statutes, and the matter should be reported to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such agent may be operating."

OPPOSE BUILDING FISHWAY.
Interested Parties Instituted Damage Suit Against Contractors.
The construction by the state of Oregon of a fish way over the Willamette Falls at this city will not be accomplished without litigation.
Ernest P. Rands, who was recently awarded the contract by the state fish commissioners and who has begun the construction of the fish ladder, has been made defendant in a $50,000 damage suit brought in the Clackamas county circuit court by Archie L. Pease, Hattie M. Colbert and Elizabeth J. Crawford, who demand judgment for damages in the sum named and ask that the defendant contractor be enjoined from further proceeding with the building of the fish way until the suit is determined in the courts, when the plaintiffs expect to have the injunction made perpetual. A King Wilson and O. A. Neal are the attorneys for the plaintiffs.
The plaintiffs allege that they are the owners of a two-thirds interest in all the rights to catch and take fish of all kinds and at all times, on Moore's Island, situated near the falls of the Willamette river in the Robert Moore donation land claim in Clackamas county; that the defendant has introduced thereon and is committing trespass by blasting the rock and in other ways destroying the natural condition of the island although warned not to do so; and that irreparable damage will result to the property rights of the plaintiffs if the trespassing is not enjoined. Plaintiffs claim to have been damaged to the extent of $50,000 already.
Moore's Island, over which the proposed fish way is being constructed is owned by the Portland General Electric Company, although the plaintiffs have for several years had the right to fish at the lower end of this obstruction at the Falls. The purpose of the plaintiffs in bringing this suit is to protect their fish-interests which will be seriously interfered with if the fish way is installed at the present site.

CAN FARM AS WELL AS ASSESS.
Assessor J. E. Nelson of this county, is successful in the role of farmer as well as that of listing the property of Clackamas county for assessment purposes. Mr.
Nelson visited his farm near Molalla Sunday and brought home with him some splendid samples of agricultural products, including potatoes, one of which is sufficiently large to make a meal for a family of several members; apples, large and luscious; and some of the finest grapes and mushrooms that one could desire. Mr. Nelson also has on his farm corn that stands 14 feet high, many of the stalks having as many as five ears.
Some of the stalks are so tall that he cannot reach the first ear from the ground. It is an actual fact and Mr.
Nelson is prepared to prove the assertion that he recently produced on his farm a potato that weighed 5 pounds 4 ounces.
It will require some very substantial evidence to convince Mr. Nelson that Clackamas county occupies other than first place among the agricultural counties of the state.
