Everybody's liable to itching piles. Rich and poor, old and young-terrible the torture they suffer. Only one sure cure, Doan's Ointment. Absolutely safe; can't fail.

After you have examined the photographs at the other studios in our community, call on us and compare our work with what you have seen. We believe you will be interested in our posing, which give life and personality to a photograph. Anna Wiener, photographer, Main street, near Tenth, Nov. 20th.

The Scandinavian American Evangelical Lutheran congregation, of Barlow, on Monday filed with County Clerk Sleight articles of incorporation. The capital stock is $1000, and the following named trustees filed the articles as incorporators: J. J. Sandness, E. Arntson and Fred Anderson.

Deputy Sheriff E. C. Hackett attended a wedding at Harding Sunday. His failure to put in an appearance at the court house Monday morning or to send an explanation for his absence, led some of his associates to conclude that possibly the genial deputy had allowed himself by mistake to replace the groom at the ceremony. All such theories, however, were dispelled Tuesday, when Mr. Hackett showed up at his desk.

If you are looking for a chance to get some desirable city lots at a bargain, do not fail to investigate the property to be sold Wednesday, November 18, at 10 o'clock, at the court house door, and attend the sale. For particulars inquire of E. G. Canfield, assignee.

County Clerk Sleight was among the Oregon City people who took in the Sunday excursion over the O. W. P. & R. line to Cazadero. He says it is surprising how the property and lands of all kinds are being developed and improved all along the course of the road. Scores of new houses are being built. While making the trip Mr. Sleight especially noticed the roads in that section of the county and he says they are not to be surpassed in the county.

Tisn't safe to be a day without Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Never can tell what moment an accident is going to happen.

Dr. Matthews, a local veterinary surgeon, this week reported to Deputy Prosecuting Attorney J. U. Campbell that he had found near this city a horse afflicted with glanders. On the advice of the assistant prosecutor for the state, Dr. Matthews went to Portland Wednesday and verbally reported on the case to Dr. McLean, the state veterinarian. Dr. Matthews reports but one case, and says it is an isolated one and can be successfully treated without danger of further contagion.

J. P. Cole, of Barlow, and R. T. Bibb, of Molalla, are the only citizens of Clackamas county that were summoned for service on the federal jury in the United States district court. The federal court, which is now in session in Portland, will have to dispose of the public land fraud cases that are pending and which have resulted in the indictment of A. B. Thomson, receiver of the LaGrande land office, on the charge of soliciting a bribe; Horace G. McKinley, S. A. D. Puter and Miss Marie Ware, on charges of forgery.

Workmen in the employ of the Ladd Metal Company at Oswego, report that it is the purpose of the company to install a large smelting plant at that point in the near future. This company recently placed a small smelter at Oswego as an experiment. The initial test made last Saturday, was a complete success and with the working of the various mines in this section of the valley. Oswego is considered an especially desirable point for the location of such a plant. The company is reported to have in contemplation the installing of a smelter that will employ 300 men and it will be established at Oswego or Tacoma.

Harry Jones and J. W. McKay, the contractors, have filed in the circuit court an action for money suit against J. P. Lovett for $96.85, being the balance alleged to be due on a contract. U'Ren & Schubel are the attorneys for the plaintiffs. The amount in controversy, says Mr. Lovett, is claimed by the contractors for work outside of the contract, for the performance of which the parties had only a verbal agreement. The parties, being unable to adjust the charge to be asked for the extra work, have taken the case into the courts.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeit and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by G. A. Harding.

At the annual meeting of the Clackamas County Humane Society Monday night officers were elected as follows: President, Miss Anita McCarver; vice-president, George A. Harding; secretary, Mrs. E. G. Canfield. These three officers constitute the board of directors of the society. Besides guarding the best interests of animals and prosecuting persons guilty of cruel treatment thereof, the society has recently a public fountain at the intersection of Main streets, the principal business district of the city.

The King's Daughters of the Episcopal church will give a Halloween party, Friday evening, Oct. 30, at Willamette Hall. The Prattle of a Bright Child. At times it cannot be denied the questions of children become irksome, but who would wish a child to ask no questions? Julius Sturm tells in one of his pretty fairy tales how a grandfather, driven into impatience by the constant questioning of his grandchild, exclaimed, "I wish your tongue were out of joint!" But when unexpectedly his wish was fulfilled and the child became dumb how he joyfully exchanged one of the two years which an angel had promised he was yet to live for the privilege of hearing the little one's prattle again!

The Pleasure of Eating.

Persons suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia or other stomach trouble will find that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. This remedy is a never failing cure for indigestion and dyspepsia and all complaints affecting the glands or membranes of the stomach or digestive tract.
