

Try for Health

223 South Peoria St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A neighbor visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Georgia Dunbar

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?

Social Events

Do you want a map of the Pacific Northwest? The Enterprise has made an arrangement with the Oregonian by which we can furnish a valuable map together with the Enterprise and the Weekly Oregonian for one year each, all for the remarkably low price of $2.25. The cost of the map alone is $2.50. The Enterprise has the exclusive right of introducing these maps into this county on a clubbing offer. Samples of the map may be seen at the Enterprise office and all orders sent in by mail will receive prompt attention.

The map is one of the best and most serviceable we have ever seen. It is a wall map and consists of four pages. Its dimensions are 28x36 inches. The first page contains a map of the world in connection with which is shown the comparative times and distances. All of the United States possessions are indicated by flags. This page also shows the arms and flags of the various nations of the world. Page two is devoted to large-sized maps of the states of Oregon and Washington, each state being shown by itself. On the reverse side of this page is given considerable statistical matter concerning the two states. In one column is arranged in alphabetical order all of the counties in each state together with the location in the state of the particular county together with the total population of that county. Following the list of the counties is given the names in alphabetical order also, of every city, town and postoffice in each state, the name of the county in which it is located and also the section of the state and the population of each. There is also shown on this page the new seal of the State of Oregon as adopted by the legislature last winter, together with some descriptive matter showing the respects in which the new differs from the old. Five separate maps are shown on the third page. They are Alaska, British Columbia, the Hawaiian Islands, Philippine Islands and the minor United States possessions in the Pacific Ocean. The fourth page shows a map of the United States, Idaho and the minor possessions of the United States in the Pacific Ocean, the map showing the last named land being larger and more useful than that on the preceding page. Arranged in alphabetical order on this page are also the counties and towns of the state of Idaho, together with their location and population.

The combination of these maps is worth the $2.50 for which it retails. They are printed on good map paper and will last a life time. The various drawings are richly colored and the map is a very creditable production. We will furnish these maps to Clackamas county people at $2.25 and include with them a subscription to the Enterprise and the Weekly Oregonian for one year in advance. This is a rare offer and one that will probably not be duplicated again. Call at the Enterprise office and see the map or mail us your subscription anyway. You will be sure to be pleased with the premium you will receive. Start the New Year off right by signing for the Enterprise, the best county paper, and the Oregonian, which for general news is not equalled in this section. Send in your subscription at once.

THAT SHORTAGE OF CARS.

Portland Lumbermen Propose to Sue Southern Pacific Company.

Portland attorneys are busy preparing papers in a suit to be instituted against the Southern Pacific company by the lumbermen of Portland to compel that company to furnish cars for transportation of the products of the mills.

It is alleged to be a fact that as many as 800 loaded cars have been standing on sidetracks during the past few weeks and have not been started for their destination owing to the lack of motive power on the road. The present condition of car shortage has worked great hardships upon many of the mills, and repeated requests for relief have failed to bring about any change. As a result the lumbermen have reached the conclusion that "forbearance ceases to be a virtue," and the suit will be entered within the next ten days in the names of a number along the Southern Pacific as plaintiffs.

The industries of Oregon, says the Oregonian, would not suffer to the extent they are because of a shortage of cars if the Southern Pacific would cease trying to maintain a monopoly upon the business along its lines and give the other roads a chance to supply a few cars. At least this is the statement of representatives of other roads, who declare that the Southern Pacific, through motives of greed, refuses to accept the cars of competing lines to be loaded for local hauls. The implied intimation is that the Oregon branch of the Harriman system wants to grab all the business, and when it is not able to handle it, bottles up the superfluous amount that no other man may get it. The consequence is that that portion of traffic which the Southern Pacific cannot handle must lie untouched as it is now, if the numerous complaints that are made almost every day are true.

A Great Agency

We Have Secured Control for This City of the Fulton Compounds, the Only Things Known to Medicine That Cure Kidney Diseases in Both the Primary and Secondary Stages.

The kidneys are not sensitive and the disease is sometimes fastened and already chronic with the very first symptoms. It has hung on eight to ten months it is surely chronic. In either case why take chances? Why not take at first the only thing known that cures kidney disease in the chronic as well as the primary stages. The Fulton Compound is a medicine, is especially valuable for its incurability was doubly confirmed by consulting physicians, and after recovery under the Fulton Compound the recovery was also doubly attested.

On May 1st, 1903, the son of R. C. Pell, the manager of the Pacific Coast Mercantile Company of Second and Polson streets, San Francisco was declared by the family physician to have chronic kidney disease and incurable. Another physician was called in and confirmed the diagnosis. The whole body was swollen with dropsy and a fatal termination looked for. The Fulton Compound was then turned to as the only hope. On September 15th the dropsy had disappeared and the boy was well, and after double examinations the physician declared the recovery complete and gave Mr. Pell a written report which he now has.

Judge G. A. Cabaniss, the Police Judge of San Francisco, also attests the recovery under his own observation of a friend of his who also recovered when the case (chronic Bright's Disease of the kidneys) was well known to be incurable according to all medical authorities.

Up to the advent of the Fulton Compound medicine knew nothing that would cure kidney troubles after they became chronic. About nine-tenths of all cases are now curable, even after they have developed into the dreaded chronic forms of Bright's Disease and diabetes. No statements are published or invited except from chronic cases that, like the above, are incurable by all other known medicines. If you kidney trouble is like the above, it is over eight to ten months standing it is the only thing known that will save your life. John J. Fulton Co., 829 Washington street, San Francisco, sole compounders. Fulton's Real Compound for Bright's and Kidney Diseases, 81c per bottle. $1.50. Free analyses made for patients. Send for pamphlet. We are the exclusive agents in this city.

GARDNER RECEIVED THE LIMIT

Maximum Sentence Imposed On Local Character For Mayhem.

Robert Gardner was Saturday morning given the maximum sentence of 20 years in state's prison by Judge McBride for the crime of mayhem. Gardner was taken to Salem by Sheriff Shaver Saturday night.

Gardner's trial was conducted in the circuit court Friday, G. B. Dimick and Howard M. Brownell having been appointed by the court to defend the accused man. District Attorney Harrison Allen and his deputy, J. U. Campbell conducted the prosecution. The case was submitted to the jury at 4:30 o'clock Friday afternoon and the jurors deliberated until 7 o'clock the following morning before arriving at a verdict which was sealed and returned to the court where it was opened at 10 o'clock. Guilty of the crime of mayhem as charged in the information was the verdict. Counsel for the defendant declined to take up the time of the court further in considering the case. "I have only to say that I am innocent of the crime," said Gardner when asked if he desired to make a statement before sentence was pronounced. In passing sentence, Judge McBride reviewed Gardner's career, which has been one of almost continuous transgressing. In November 1892 Gardner was sentenced by Judge McBride from this county to serve seven years for criminal assault. But three of the seven years were served, Judge McBride with other prominent citizens petitioning the governor and securing the pardon of Gardner in the hope that he would mend his ways. "Instead," continued the court, you have been a menace and a nuisance to the public since your release from prison and have spent most of your time in jail for wrongdoing."

Of the crime of which Gardner was convicted is mayhem committed while attempting criminal assault on Martha Andrews, an Indian woman of this city. The specific offense consisted of gouging out with his hand the woman's eye remaining eye and leaving her entirely blind. But one circumstance attending the trial suggested sympathy for the prisoner and that was the presence in the court room of his aged mother. This was overcome by the revolting nature of crime and the general unfavorable reputation of the accused.

WOMEN AS WELL AS MEN ARE MADE MISERABLE BY KIDNEY TROUBLE.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

FOUGHT AT SIX PACES.

Sanguinary Duel That Took Place in London in 1803.

Duelling in England in 1803 was often a very sanguinary business.

On a Friday morning in March of that year a most extraordinary duel took place in Hyde park, London, between Lieutenant W. of the navy and Captain J. of the army. The antagonists arrived at the appointed place within a few minutes of each other. Some dispute arose respecting the distance, which the friends of Lieutenant W. insisted should not exceed six paces, while the seconds of Captain J. urged strongly the rashness of so decisive a distance and insisted on its being extended.

At length the proposal of Lieutenant W.'s friends was agreed to, and the parties fired per signal, when Lieutenant W. received the shot of his adversary on the guard of his pistol, which tore away the third and fourth fingers of his right hand. The seconds then interceded to no purpose. The son of Neptune, apparently callous to pain, wrapped his handkerchief round his hand and swore he had another which never failed him.

Captain J. called his second aside and told him it was in vain to urge a reconciliation.

They again took their ground.

On Lieutenant W. receiving the pistol in his left hand he looked steadfastly at Captain J. for some time, then cast his eyes to heaven and said in a low voice, "Forgive me!"

The parties fired as before, and both fell. Captain J. received the shot through the head and instantly expired. Lieutenant W. received the ball in his left breast and immediately inquired of his friend if Captain J.'s wound was mortal. Being answered in the affirmative, he thanked heaven he had lived thus long, requested a mourning ring on his finger might be given to his sister and that she might be assured it was the happiest moment he ever knew. He had scarcely finished the words when a quantity of blood burst from his wound, and he expired almost without a struggle.—Glasgow Herald.

GOOD THINGS TO LEARN.

Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine.

Learn to attend strictly to your own business; very important point.

Learn how to tell a story. A well told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick room.

Learn to stop croaking. If you cannot see any good in this world keep the bad to yourself.

Learn to keep your own troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to care for your ills and sorrows.

Learn to greet your friends with a smile. They carry too many frowns in their own hearts to be bothered with any of yours.

Learn to hide your aches and pains under a pleasant smile. No one cares whether you have the earache, headache or rheumatism.
