

PROFIT

The matter of feed is of tremendous importance to the farmer. Wrong feeding is loss. Right feeding is profit.

The up-to-date farmer knows what to feed his cows to get the most milk, his pigs to get the most pork, his hens to get the most eggs. Science.

But how about the children? Are they fed according to science, a bone food if bones are soft and undeveloped, a flesh and muscle food if they are thin and weak and a blood food if there is anemia?

Scott's Emulsion is a mixed food; the Cod Liver Oil in it makes flesh, blood and muscle, the Lime and Soda make bone and brain. It is the standard scientific food for delicate children.

Send for free sample.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

SACAJAWEA

(The Bird-woman)

[The following beautiful tribute to Sacajawea, the remarkable Indian woman who guided Lewis and Clark on their overland journey, bids fair to find its place among the classics of the language. It is from the gifted pen of Bert Hoffman, of Pendleton, Oregon.]

Behind them toward the rising sun
The traversed wilderness lay—
About them gathered—one by one
The baffling mysteries of their way!
To Westward, yonder, peak on peak
The glittering ranges rose and fell—
Ah, but among that hundred paths
Which led aright? Could any tell?

Brave Lewis and Immortal Clark!
Bold spirits of that best crusade,
You gave the waiting world the spark
That thronged the empire-paths you made!
But standing on that snowy height,
Where Westward you wild rivers whirl,
The guide who led your hosts aright
Was that barefoot Shoshone girl!

You halted in those dim arcades—
You faltered by those baffling peaks—
You doubted in those pathless glades,
But ever, ever true she speaks!
Where lay the perilous snows of Spring,
Where streams their westward course forsook,
The wildest mountain haunts to her
Were as an open picture-book!

Where'er you turned in wonderment
In that wild empire, unsurveyed,
Unerring still, she pointed West—
Unfailing, all your pathways laid!
She nodded toward the setting sun—
She raised a finger toward the sea—
The closed gates opened, one by one,
And showed your path of Destiny!

The wreath of Triumph give to her:
She led the conquering Captains West;
She charted first the trails that led
The hosts across yon mountain crest!
Barefoot she toiled the forest paths,
Where now the course of Empire speeds;
Can you forget, loved Western land,
The glory of her deathless deeds?

In yonder city, glory-crowned,
Where art will vie with art to keep
The memories of those heroes green—
The flush of conscious pride should leap
To see her fair memorial stand
Among the honored names that be—
Her face toward the sunset, still—
Her finger lifted toward the sea!

Beside you on Fame's pedestal,
Be her's the glorious fate to stand—
Bronzed, barefoot, yet a patron saint,
The keys of empire in her hand!
The mountain gates that closed to you
Swung open, as she led the way,—
So let her lead that hero host
When comes their glad memorial day!

It is natural that in making purchases of every description, the investor desires only superior goods. If a suit of clothes or material for a dress is wanted, the intending purchaser goes to an established business house whose proprietor has made a reputation for handling only the best goods. If groceries are needed, the housekeeper considers quality rather than quantity. So it is with printing. Convinced that the best is none too good for the people of Oregon City and vicinity, the Enterprise recently ordered an extensive stock of the latest commercial and society stationery. The goods have arrived and with the new type that we have ordered, the Enterprise will be better prepared than ever before to supply the wants of this section in all kinds of job printing. We have a fine assortment of new and up-to-date stationery for dance invitations, programmes, parties, and all social functions. Our stock of wedding stationery was never more complete.
