Anna B. Olson and H. C. Hansen were granted a marriage license this week.

Two million Americans suffer the torturing pangs of dyspepsia. No need to Burdock Blood Bitters cures. At any drug store.

Whether or not you belong to the Masonic fraternity, you should attend the farce "Are You a Mason?" which will be given at Shively's tomorrow night.

Mrs. E. R. Barchus, of Portland, will open a class in oil painting work on exhibition at Howell & Jones' drug store, where she will meet anyone interested on Wednesday, Jan. 20, between 2 and 3 o'clock.

We must again request our correspondents to send in their reports at least a day earlier than they have been doing. We were obliged this week to omit correspondence from six points in the county simply because it was not received at the office in time to be used.

Willie I. Clarke, of Milwaukie, who sustained serious injuries about three weeks ago by the caving in of a gravel pit in which he was working, has sufficiently recovered to be able to be about again. In the mishap, Clarke sustained the compound fracture of his right leg, and his many friends are pleased to learn of his recovery.

"Are You a Mason?" an exceedingly clever farce, will be presented at Shively's opera house tomorrow, Saturday, night by Mr. Julius Cahn and a competent company of comedians. This is reported at up-valley cities, where the performance has been presented, to be the best of its kind this season and the company is deserving of a good house tomorrow evening.

The auction sale of lots at Estacada Tuesday was largely attended. One thousand people were there and the bidding for choice lots was at times lively. Some of the choicest lots were bid in at a premium of $310 which with the cost of the lot, $250, made the property cost $560. From the standpoint of an investor the project was a money-maker for the promoters who probably paid less than $50 per acre for the land which was placed into lots and sold at fabulous prices ranging from $250 to $500. This is selling land at the rate of about $3000 per acre. Senator Brownell, of this city, legal representative for the Oregon
