

Stafford.

Winter came and left about an inch of the beautiful snow Monday morning and on Tuesday a little more. The people appreciate snow by its absence. Mt. Hood is near enough to admire without its disagreeable sloppiness.

Jim Turner has sold his farm in Frog Pond to his brother Albert and is going to seek a drier climate in hopes of benefiting his little boy who is afflicted with asthma.

Henry Aden and Mark Baker took a little spin up the valley. We hear they have many friends at Monmouth, Independence and Corvallis.

Mr. Weddle has a very sick horse. Some kind of kidney complaint.

Colds of a serious type have been very prevalent.

Charlie Polivka's little boy is better.

Henry Schartz is remodeling the house lately occupied by Mrs. C. Borland. He found the sills were rotting and has torn away the shop and the kitchen part.

Mrs. Powell's mother is stopping with her this winter.

Mrs. Barbara Moser has returned from an extended visit in Washington.

John Schartz's pleasant face is again seen in our midst.

The people have at last got moved on to the Capt. Hayes place. They have been quite unfortunate in having one son who had to be operated on for appendicitis and who is not strong yet and another married son had typhoid fever and also lost by death his best span of horses.

Miss Kate Wood returns to her home in Jefferson today after a pleasant visit with friends in Stafford and Frog Pond since Christmas.

August Delkar finds the roads very bad down through the wood camp.

We hear that the mill being shut down at St. Helens, J. Q. and his brother C. M. Gage have turned their attention to carpenter work and are building quite a pretentious house for Geo. Green of that place.

Shabel.

Rain, rain, rain, mud, mud, mud.

Mr. Blum's chopper is running full blast now.

Frank Grossmiller has sold his place to Mr. Klingner, who has just come from the East.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hill, E. F. Gintner and daughter Laura attended Central Grange at Beaver Creek yesterday. They report a fine time.

Albert and Otto Hornschuch, of Salem, are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hornschuch for a few weeks. We are very glad to see them back in their old places.

Robert Schubel's smiling face was seen in our neighborhood last Sunday.

E. F. Gintner is busy pruning his orchard.

It is expected that Prof. Schmidt will start a new singing class in the near future and we will kindly invite the same young men who attended the last term of singing and disturbed the class, to come again.

Will Hettman visited at the home of his old friend, E. F. Gintner, Sunday.

We are planning to start a debating society at this place before very long.

P. Massinger has purchased a flock of sheep.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism, and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for liver and kidney trouble and generally debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Charman & Co., druggists.

Redland.

Winter has come at last. The ground is white with snow.

It looks as if the stork has a nest at Redland.

Born to the wife of H. A. Allen a son, Jan. 16. Mother and babe doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hollingworth have taken a two month's old boy to raise.

Mrs. W. M. Stone has been on the sick list.

Mrs. G. C. Armstrong is sick with la grippe.

E. N. Buck is improving in health and is working at his kitchen cabinet, which is very handy. Every housekeeper ought to have one.

The O'Conner brothers have sold the balance of their saw mill to Mr. Leach, of Needy.

Mrs. E. Morgan and family and Mrs. T. Morgan have left for the mines.

John Richardson has the plans drawn for a wood shed.

Logan and Stone.

Everyone should lift their hat to Mr. Andrew Johnston of Logan. It's a boy and weighs 11 pounds. No wonder Andy steps high.

Quite a number of Harding Grangers attended Pomona Grange at Oswego last Wednesday and report a good time.

Mr. Frank Busch and family passed through here enroute to their mountain farm, on a hunting trip.

H. S. Anderson will soon have his saw mill running. J. Sevier, of Viola, is helping to get the machinery in running order.

The Woodmen of Logan are making extensive arrangements for an entertainment in February.

The young folks of Harding Grange are preparing to give a masquerade ball Feb. 22nd at the Hall.

The measles are prevalent in and around Logan. Where they originated no one knows.

This is the first time the ground has been white with snow this winter, January 19.

Springwater.

Pomona Grange, of Clackamas county, met with the Oswego grange on the 13th and held its quarterly convention to install their officers and do other business. The following officers were installed by Mrs. E. A. Niblin, of Evening Star grange, Multnomah county: Master, William Grisenthwaite; overseer, J. W. Thomas; lecturer, Geo. Workman; steward, H. Glover; chaplain, O. A. Eaton; treasurer, T. L. Turner; secretary, C. E. Spence; gatekeeper, E. Bates; Ceres, Della Gutridge; Pomona, Maggie Johnson; Flora, E. T. B. Thomas; C. E. Spence called attention to the direct primary law and the master appointed a committee of one from each of the 18 granges to circulate a petition in Clackamas county to that effect. Mrs. Maggie Johnson presented a resolution favoring preparation of an agricultural exhibit to be displayed white the national grange is in session in Portland, Nov. 1904. A resolution was presented by A. M. Hibbely and the same passed directing the secretary to write and ask Senators Mitchell and Fulton to use their influence to secure the passage of the parcel post bill and also the bill providing for the issue of postal currency. Cooperation was also brought before the grange and explained in this way to have agents appointed to buy and sell for the post but was not acted upon but will be next Pomona grange. Mrs. Howard made the announcement that there are 5100 members of the grange in Oregon. The Oswego grange treated its visitors grand and royal. Had three bountiful repasts. There were 19 persons who took the fifth degree.

Do not forget the grand entertainment that is to be given at the grange hall on the 23rd inst.

Thermometer 35 degrees; snow three inches deep.

Our friends who are abroad for their health, Mrs. Stella Bard and Miss Ora Lowellen, are improving nicely.

Frank Shannon, of Beaver Creek, was a guest Sunday in Springwater.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles, For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, Eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by Geo. A. Harding.

Molalla.

Our village has gone to seed on dancing; a "hoe down" from Thanksgiving to St. Patrick's Day.

Molalla has failed to organize a literary society this winter; no wonder the special session of the Legislature had to go it blind.

They say a "new democrat" in town, a young Harless; well, of course, the sweet little fellow cannot help it, while, but there is yet one hope for him; he is also a little granger.

A Mr. Wakes and wife have moved into the C. W. Dart residence.

Robert Strayer has been visiting here for two weeks. Mr. Strayer starts for the far East, where he has a government position.

Harvey Dart has the name of drawing the largest load through the mud to Oregon City of any one this winter for the size of his team, and by the way, it's going to take a good team to out-pull Harvey's, wherever you find them.

Mrs. M. E. Thomas and sister, Miss Zoe Shaver, are visiting relatives in Portland.

C. W. Herman, of Abiqua, was home Sunday to visit with his brother, Carry, who is quite ill with appendicitis.

E. E. Judd is on the sick list, having taken a severe cold.

Charley Leavitt appeared on the farm a few days ago, where he expects to put in some improvements.

Marion Moore did our town last Saturday, shaking hands with old time friends.

George Ogle & Co. came out of the mountains Saturday eve. They went to the mines last Monday.

Thomas, Sawtell and Moshberger attended Pomona Grange at Oswego and came home well pleased with the fraternal way the Oswego people used them.

There won't be much hurrahing for Cleveland in these parts; he is out of date with the Western people.

Congratulations.

John H. Cullom, editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by G. A. Harding.

Reaver Creek.

Stormy weather seems to be the order of the day.

Mrs. D. W. Thomas is on the sick list.

Several of the B. C.'s attended the basket social at the Heurici school house Monday night and report a good time.

Fred Stevens is reported to be getting along pretty good at present.

Albert Blossat and family is visiting his parents this week.

Mrs. Withycome and Mrs. Loyd, of Portland, are visiting the Thomas family; also Mrs. Rasmussen, of Salem.

Obituary.

Died, December 31, 1903, at her home on Agency Plains, Mrs. Caroline Gard, wife of M. O. Gard, resulting from chronic stomach trouble.

The deceased was born in September, 1855, on what is known as the old Welch farm in Highland, Clackamas county, where she lived until October, 1874, when she was married to M. O. Gard, of Beaver Creek, Oregon, who still survives her.

There was born to this couple eight children, seven of whom are still living, viz: Mrs. Ada Stevens, of Highland, Ore.; Mrs. Eva Kirk, of Agency Plains; Messrs. Chester, Bernard and Leoid, and the Misses Myrtle and Leona, who are still living with their father of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Gard lived with their family in Clackamas county until June, 1903, when they moved to their home- stead of this place.

The deceased was a firm believer of the gospel and ever tried to live up to the duties of a Christian. She leaves one sister and two brothers to mourn her loss, viz: Mrs. Mary Kirk, of Montgomery, Cal.; Mr. Frank Welch, of Oregon City, and Mr. Charles Welch, of Highland, Oregon.

The remains were laid to rest on the home place, there being no site chosen for a cemetery as yet. The bereaved family has the entire sympathy of the people of Agency Plain. DAVIS.
