

New To-Day.

FOUND—A fur box. Inquire of H. L. Kelly at Bank of Oregon City.

DR. C. S. SEAMANN, PHYSICIAN—Offices over Harding's drug store.

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6 AND 7 per cent. Farm security, U'RS & SCHUMER.

LOST—BROOCH, FIVE-POINTED star set with diamonds and pearls. Finder please 1 ave at Enterprise office and receive reward.

O. K. GRUBBER AND STUMP PULLER. Beats them all. One horse equal to 99 in power. Grubs an acre a day. Three state premiums. James Finney, Brooks, Oregon. Jan. 29.

FOR SALE—House, six rooms, shed, cellar and stable. About 10,000 square feet of land, near Clackamas Station, Oregon. Price $500. Inquire of or address Geo. A. Brown, Clackamas, Oregon. Jan. 29.

MONEY TO LOAN—I HAVE SEVERAL sums of money belonging to private individuals which I am authorized to loan, on long time at 6 and 7 per cent. Cost of loan will be made very reasonable. H. E. CROSS, attorney at law.

WANTED—A TRUSTWORTHY GENTLEMAN or lady in each county to manage business for an old established house of solid financial standing. A straight bona fide weekly salary of $18.00 paid by check each Monday with all expenses direct from headquarters. Money advanced for expenses. Enclose addressed envelope. Manager, 393 Caxton Bldg., Chicago, Feb. 1.

Local Events.

Hats way below cost, at Miss C. Goldsmith's.

The building season will be lively. To buy doors and windows right, you must see Frank Busch.

Impossible to foresee an accident. Not impossible to be prepared for it. Dr. Thomas' Eucletic Oil. Monarch over pain.

William Moffitt, of Ontario, Oregon, visited in this city this week. Mr. Moffitt resided in this city in 1847, and found many changes.

"Little Colds" neglected—thousands of lives sacrificed every year. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures little colds—cures big colds, too, down to the very verge of consumption.

A case of diphtheria was reported the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Groat, of Ely. The victim of the disease is the 6-year-old son. The place was promptly quarantined.

At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, January 17, 1904, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Campbell, at Canemah, Rev. J. Henry Wood united in marriage August W. Newman, of Portland, and Carrie Pearl Hyde, of this city.

C. N. Plowman & Co. this week effected the sale of 10 acres three miles east of town, for $1000. The property belonged to W. S. Bass, and was sold to a new arrival from Minnesota named Brown.

G. H. Young, of the Log Cabin, has remodeled on an extensive scale the interior of his resort and now has some very comfortably equipped club rooms. George is always looking out for the pleasure and comfort of his friends, who are legion.

On Wednesday evening of last week, from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, the Ladies Aid Society of the First Methodist church entertained the members of the church and congregation at a very pleasant social at the church. Light refreshments were served.

The Fraternal Brotherhood lodge of this city gave an open meeting and dance in the Woolmen hall last Tuesday evening, which was well attended and enjoyed by all. The music was excellent and the dancers numerous. The affair continued until a late hour.

At the regular service Sunday morning of last week, at 10:45 o'clock, at the First Methodist church, the pastor, Rev. J. Henry Wood, conducted a communion service. In the evening Rev. D. A. Waters, of Salem, preaching elder for this district, occupied the pulpit.

Subscribers desiring to make a guess on the Enterprise prize money jar must pay their subscription before noon, Monday, February 22, for the contest will close then as advertised and the award of prizes made. Attorney Chris Schuebel will make the count of the money and award the prizes.

J. C. Meyers and Jessie Myrtle Beatty, both of this city, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Beatty, on Jefferson street, at 7 o'clock Monday evening, January 18, 1904, Rev. J. Henry Wood, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Meyers will reside in this city.

The time in which to subscribe for the Enterprise or renew your subscription to this paper and get a guess on the prize money contest jar will expire soon. The contest will positively close at noon, Monday, February 22, as advertised, when the money in the jar will be counted and the distribution of prizes made. If you wish to participate in the contest, you must send in your subscription money before noon, February 22.

Under the apportionment of state taxes, Clackamas county will this year have to pay a state tax of $41,837.50 of which $537.50, belongs to the agricultural college fund, as against a total tax of $25,460 for the year before. Of that amount, $537.50 was for the agricultural college fund. County Treasurer Cahill today received from Secretary of State Dunbar a warrant for $1637.16, that being Clackamas county's share of the 5 per cent of the proceeds of the sales of government land for the last year. This money will be expended in the building of roads in this county.

The Shakespeare Club met last Monday evening with Miss Addie Clark at the Caulfield residence.

Mrs. C. H. Caulfield pleasantly entertained Mrs. Axel Eckstrom and Mrs. P. F. Morey at an informal reception at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Eckstrom will leave soon for New York.

A call has been issued by Ernest Mass, chairman of the county central committee, to all Democrats of the city to meet at Willamette Hall next Tuesday evening, February 2, to organize a Democratic club.

Frank Welsh and Frank Brown have equipped themselves with Indian web snow shoes and, leaving this city Friday, will make an effort to reach the Ogle Creek mines. Mr. Welsh and C. W. Pope, also of this city, made an unsuccessful attempt last week to reach this section of Marion county and suffered much hardship from a thirty six hours exposure in the snow in the mountains near the mines.

About a dozen of the local three-linkers will go to Portland Saturday night, when they will be initiated into the mysteries of the Kremlin Ba Ku, the Shrine of the Odd Fellow's lodge. County Judge Ryan, of this city, is the presiding officer of this organization, and is designated as the Czar. Of this fact the Courier will please take notice. That paper has persisted in referring to the Judge as His Majesty.

Hitchman Barber—Ernest Hitchman and Verna Barber were married at the Congregational parsonage on Monday afternoon, Rev. Bollinger officiating. As this is the first marriage Rev. Bollinger has performed during the year 1904, he states that in his opinion the advantages of leap year are not being seized as eagerly as they might be. The bride was a resident of this city, while the groom comes from Monitor, Oregon, in which place they will make their home.

Ed Wetzel and Daniel Calkins, of Oak Grove, were in the city Monday in the interests of the Oak Grove school district. An advertisement appears in this week's issue of the Enterprise calling for bids for the construction of a school house at Oak Grove. Mr. Wetzel and Mr. Calkins are the chairman of the board of directors and the district clerk respectively. They report a remarkable building boom in progress at Oak Grove, and predict that it will be but a few years when there will be one continuous settlement between this city and Portland.

Now is the time to get a hat at your own price, at Miss C. Goldsmith's.

Warner Grange No. 117 met in regular session Saturday, January 23, and the following officers were installed by Deputy Mrs. Mary Howard: Master, A. W. Francis; overseer, F. J. Meindl; lecturer, Mrs. Wink; chairman, J. S. Dick; steward, S. Cox; treasurer, Beta Francis; secretary, D. McArthur; A. S. Thos. Kolland; gatekeeper, Mrs. Fredericks; Pomona, Mrs. Blanchard; Flora, Mrs. Fred Meindl; Ceres, Mrs. Geo. Randall; L. A. S., Miss Olie Frederick.

Central Grange No. 276 met on Saturday, the 10th inst., and had a grand meeting. State Deputy C. C. Borland, of Oswego Grange No. 175, installed the officers. Resolutions in favor of the Parcel-Post and Postal Currency were unanimously adopted. We always have a good program. Visiting members always welcome.

Two million Americans suffer the torturing pangs of dyspepsia. No need to Burdock Blood Bitters cures. At any drug store.

The registration of electors in this county is progressing slowly. Clerk Sleight is endeavoring to perform this extra service without the aid of an additional deputy. The task can be expedited if voters will call at the office of the clerk and register at once. Registration must be made before May 15, and it is just as easy to register now as later on. Clerk Sleight is desirous that as many as can find it convenient will call at his office and enlist their names at once.

MANY PEOPLE Suffer with HEADACHE and DISEASE often have the difficulty traced to eye defects. The visual centers are in the closest connection with the brain centers, consequently the slightest disturbance of vision produces sympathetic irritations in the entire system. If your trouble is due to this cause I will frankly tell you. It costs you nothing to find this out as I make no charge for EXAMINATION. Have your children's eyes attended to as many are obtaining their education at the expense of their general health. I grind my own LENSES for each case and repair broken LENSES at a moderate charge.

I. R. WISHART Manufacturing and Refracting Optician. Room 1, Charman Bros. Block

Personal Mention

Richard Scott, of Milwaukie, was in the city Tuesday.

Linnwood E. Jones is quite ill at his home in this city.

Judge Galloway returned the first of the week from a trip to McMinnville.

Ed Lamport, a young business man of Salem, was a visitor to this city Sunday.

Mrs. E. H. Cowling, of this city, spent the past week in Albany visiting friends.

W. F. Gilstrap, managing editor of the Eugene Register, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. R. W. Wittshen, of Portland, was the guest of friends in this city Sunday.

J. H. Paine, one of the prominent farmers of Carus, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moores returned Sunday evening from a visit with friends at Salem.

Miss Ethelwyn Albright visited this week at Salem, the guest of Miss Lucia Cochran.

Miss Vera Stuart has returned to Albany after a visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Norris.

M. C. Young and Postmaster Elmer Jones, of Graeme, were in the city this week on business.

Webster Holmes, a Salem attorney, was doing business in this city a couple of days this week.

J. M. Tracy, of Lozan, was in the city last Saturday, having just recovered from a serious illness.

Lloyd Shaver, of Molalla, visited last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shaver, in this city.

Walter Johnson, of Woodburn, is visiting in Oregon City at the home of his brother, E. L. Johnson.

John Miley, of Wilsonville, was visiting his uncle, Wm. Miley, in this city, the latter part of last week.

Miss Minerva Gleason, of Los Angeles, Cal., visited relatives here Sunday and is now visiting at Hubbard.

Mrs. J. I. Vosburg, lately from Nehalem, visited the family of H. L. Kelly of this city the first of the week.

T. G. Jonsrud, of Kelso, justice of the peace for that district, was a business visitor in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Lawrence, of Portland, were the guests Sunday of their daughter, Mrs. Linnwood E. Jones.

Miss Myrtle Dixon has returned to her home at Roseburg after a visit at the home of her cousin, Sheriff J. R. Shaver.

Austin Craig, editor of the Hillsboro Times, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. G. A. Heinz visited with friends at Salem for a few days this week, while Mr. Heinz made a trip to his timber claim at Siletz.

Mrs. Ella Kinsman Mann, who was the soloist at the public school graduating exercises in this city last week, was the guest of Mrs. C. W. Pope while in the city.

Ora Taylor, chief trainmaster of this division of the Southern Pacific system, passed through Oregon City yesterday. Mr. Taylor is an Oregon City boy, he having been raised in this place.

V. G. Willison, formerly of this city, but now foreman of the Pendleton East Oregonian, was in the city this week. Mr. Willison was formerly employed on the mechanical force of the Courier.

Judge Ryan, Sheriff Shaver, Clerk Sleight, Sol Walker and W. A. Hedges were among the three linkers from this city who assisted in the organization of an I. O. O. F. lodge at Garfield Saturday night.

Miss Martha Sturchler, who is employed as teacher in the West Side school, has offered her resignation to the school board, which will take effect in two weeks. She will then go to Mt. Tabor, where she will accept a position in the schools.

Mrs. Allan Ellsworth, of Portland; Mrs. Axel Eckstrom, of London; Mrs. C. G. Huntley and Mrs. J. P. Lovett were the guests last Friday afternoon of Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith. The ladies are old school mates and the afternoon was very happily passed.

Kenneth Latourette, who is attending the McMinnville college, was in the city Saturday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Latourette. He was on his way home from Albany, where he attended a meeting of the executive committee of the intercollegiate oratorical association, of which he is a member.

Constable Amos Beach, of Woodburn, was in the city Wednesday looking for burglars who entered a dwelling at Woodburn last week. Mr. Beach later located the two men who committed the crime in the woods near the scene of the robbery, and attempted their capture. The two took his revolver away from him and drove him back to the town. He is now after them with hopes of revenge for the trick they played him.

You Bet You Can.

You can be a strong man or woman by buying the great nerve tonic, Palmo Tablets, sold by Howell & Jones. They make you sleep and grow fat.

Drs. Beattie & Beattie Dentists. Rooms 16, 17, 18. Weibard building.

The sacred cantata "Eather" will be given in Oregon City in a few weeks under the direction of Prof. M. E. Robinson, who has been secured by the Saturday Club of the Congregational church for that purpose. All the singers of Oregon City and vicinity are invited to take part and are requested to meet at Congregational church for practice next Monday evening.

The choir of the Congregational church will give a praise service on Sunday evening. The morning theme will be "Social Honesty."

Will C. Hoyt, the famous baritone singer with Prof. Robinson, will sing a solo next Sunday evening at the Congregational church.

Photography Is simplest with a Kodak and Developing Machine. The Kodak Plan. Load and unload Kodaks anywhere. Develop without dark room in Kodak Developing Machine. Print by day or night. Kodaks $5.00 to $75. Kodak Developing Machines $6.00 and $7.50. Brownie Cameras $1.00 and $2.00. Brownie Developing Machines $2.00. We have all Kodak Supplies. For Winter work try Kodak Plates. Eastman's Flash Sheets make flash pictures that haven't the ordinary "flashlight look." Price, 25c. On February 3d, between 2 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon we will have a demonstrator from the Eastman Kodak Co. to show the Kodak Developing Machine. Bring your films. BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS

WHEN YOU SEE IT IN OUR AD ITS SO. J. E. SEELEY The People's Grocer. WHAT! A 10-lb sack of Pure Buckwheat Flour and a quart of Genuine Maple Syrup for 75c. Why didn't I know that before. I'll send an order at once. You always get the best that's going and its promptly delivered at. J. E. SEELEY The People's Grocer OREGON CITY. Births. Monday, January 18, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dauchy, a son. Friday, January 22, to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lynch, a daughter. Saturday, January 23, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Andresen, a daughter. Saturday, January 23, to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Williams, a son. Monday, January 25, to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Walter, a son.

JUST OPENED THE FARMERS' STORE. Bargains every day in Lace, Embroideries, Notions, Capes, Shoes, Pants, and Stationery. M. LEIBOWITZ, Manager. Opposite Barlow's Grocery. Main Street OREGON CITY.

A BUSINESS LUXURY. A CHECKING-ACCOUNT is indeed a business necessity; and he who tries to get along without one is at great disadvantage. It is not required that a person should have a large bulk of business in order to open an account. Professional men, farmers, and even many women, are running checking-accounts. If you have never done business in this way, and are not familiar with the plan, come to us and we will get you started. BANK OF OREGON CITY OREGON CITY, OREGON.

Bids Wanted. Proposals for building a school house at Oak Grove, Clackamas county, will be opened at 7:30 p. m., Saturday, February 6, 1904. Plans and specifications may be seen at the residence of Daniel Calkins at Oak Grove. A certificate of 5 per cent of the amount of the bid must be deposited with each proposal submitted. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved. E. WETZLER, Chairman of the Board of Directors. DANIEL CALKINS, District Clerk. Feb. 5. Christian Science. First Church of Christ Scientists, Garde building, corner Seventh and Main streets, Sunday at 11 a. m. Subject, "Spirit." Children's Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. Testimonial meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Reading room open Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, from 2 to 4 p. m. Chief Ruonich of the fire department made a personal investigation this week in regard to complaints throughout the city as to insufficient protection against fire owing to the carelessness of certain property owners. At Nash's wood yard and the Reddaway place on Seventh street, he recommended the building of new chimneys. This was also found necessary at the feed stable on lower Main street. Begin the New Year right by signing for the Enterprise, the best paper published in Clackamas county. The subscription price is $1.50 per year. If you wish additional reading, we have a clubbing rate whereby we furnish the Weekly Oregonian and the Enterprise for $2 per year, or $2.25 including the World's map that we are offering as a premium. Subscribe for the Enterprise.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.