MR. LOVETT WINS SUIT -In the case of Harry Jones and J. W. McCay vs J. P. Lovett and the Bank of Oregon City, Judge McBride handed down a decision annuling the lien and dismissing the suit. This was a suit for the foreclosure of a mechanic's lien on the property in which the defendant's ice plant is located. copy of the lien was set out in the amended complaint, and the lien was attacked for the reason that it did not show who made the contract with Mr. Lovett for the construction of the ice plant and did not show to whom the materials were furnished, for whom the work was done nor by whom done. The court held that the authority of the supreme court on liens can be reconciled only on the theory that as to what arti-cles are lienable, the law is remedial. and therefore a liberal construction must be allowed. But as to the method of creating or enforcing a lien, it is in derogation of common law, and must receive a strict construction; therefore, the court held the lien void, as not showing with whom Mr. Lovett contracted, and there was nothing stated in the lien to show to whom the materials were furnished, who did the work, or for whom it was performed. Hedges & Griffith were the attorneys for the defendants in the ac-

Men's Banquet,

The executive committee of the Ore-gon City Board of Trade has decided to hold its Business Men's Banquet at Willcluding the issuing of invitations.

There will be a live and interesting bideous painting of the face. There will be a live and interesting programme of toasts responded to by prominent people of this city. The purpose of the banquet being to acquaint the business and professional men of the city with the plans of the Board of Trade in the interest of the city, no business man with an interest in the future of Oregon City and Clackamas county should fail to attend the banquet and encourage the forward movement that is to be inaugurated in behalf of this community.

Oregon City has long needed an active Board of Trade that would do something in the interest of the city. Now with such an organization and the long in the interest of the city. Now with such an organization and the prospect of something being accomplished, it would be a mistake for the people of the city not to show an appreciation and enthusiastically support and encourage the work to be undertaken.

"Red Men of Today," Past Great Sachem J. H. Howard.

The programme was followed by a speciacular Indian pantomine, dramatized by J. H. Howard, of this city, from Fennimere Cooper's "Last of the Mohitastically support and encourage the work to be undertaken.

Another of Oregon City's needed wants is to be supplied. Ed L. Johnson and Geo. M. Mr. Secrest is a practical laundry operator having had 25 years experience in the business while Mr. Johnson has for the last eight years served as local sgent for the Troy Launday Company, of Portland. Both gentlemen are reliable men and have the meads to put in a plant that will turn out as good work as can be done anywhere. They have the confidence of the citizens of this community who are convinced that this enterprise under such management will prove a success-

WHY HE DIDN'T MARRY.

Phil May's Story of an Australian Prisoner.

Phil May, the English artist, worked in his youth on the Bulletin of Sydney, Australia. Occasionally the young man would be assigned by the Bulletin people to the police courts, and from these assignments he would bring back sketches, now humorous and now pathetic, that were admirable.

One of the best of the Bulletin sketches portrays a thin, hangdog man in the prisoners' bar talking to a very mild and sympathetic looking judge. the prisoner had been dragged before the judge every few months for a number of years.

"Your face is familiar here," the latter now said. "It is, your honor, worse luck," returned the prisoner.

"Are you marr'ed yet?" "Not yet, sir."

"Not yet, ch? How long is it now that you have been engaged?" "Seven years, your honor." "So long as that? Why in the world haven't you got married in all that time?" "Because, your honor," the prisoner explained, "Ann and I haven't man-
