Local Events.

Famous Olympia beer on draught at J. W. Cole's.

Hats way below cost, at Miss C. Goldsmith's.

A daughter was born last Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lamar, of Parkplace.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church served dinner in the parlors of the church on Tuesday.

Willamette Falls Camp No. 148 installed their newly elected officers at their meeting last Friday night.

Kid Gallagher will go to Vancouver Saturday night, where he has been matched to meet Spider Murphy in a boxing bout.

Coughs and colds, down to the very bottom of consumption, yield to the soothing healing influences of Dr. Wood's Sore Throat Syrup.

Frank Cross, an employee at the Crown Paper Mills, received a bad fall last Friday, sustaining painful injuries in the region of the abdomen.

Teachers examinations were concluded last Saturday, and the results will be known the last of this week. About 40 applicants took the tests.

What was it you wanted? Something in the way of the very latest novelties in Spring dress goods? You will find them at Adams' Golden Rule Bazaar.

A marriage license was issued on Saturday to Orin Hammond and Anna Ridings. Miss Ridings is the daughter of the well-known Marquam merchant.

If you purchased that new dress at Adams Bros., you may rest assured that it is just as represented. That is the principle on which this firm does business.

Marriage licenses were issued at the courthouse on Monday to J. W. Watson and Anna Yoder; Joseph Pettit and Rosa Schock; and Bertram Jewell and Mary Reiling.

H. H. Eyman, recently from Sherwood, where he was engaged at the undertaking business, has located at Estacada, where he will follow the same business.

Next Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. G. Miller will entertain the members of the Dorthick Musical Club in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, of Bend, Eastern Oregon.

Mr. Lovelace, formerly located at Springfield, where he was engaged in the general merchandise business, has removed to Estacada, where he will conduct a similar business.

There will be no postponement. This is positive. The Enterprise prize money jar will positively be opened February 22, when the result will be made, and the award of prizes announced.

Hardly a week passes but the Enterprise receives communications that have no signature. This paper will positively refuse to publish all such contributions except when they are properly signed.

New Era Grange will meet Saturday, February 27, when the quilt raffle will take place. There will be an interesting programme during the afternoon and outsiders are invited to attend this meeting.

John Finnucan appeared before Judge Curry Tuesday to plead to the charge of allowing his cow to run on the city streets. His attorney, Senator Brownell, pleaded not guilty for him. The trial of the case was set for Thursday at 10 a. m.

The committee of the State Grange, which was in session here last week, finished its work Saturday. The committee revised the by-laws of the organization, and will submit them as amended to the state meeting in May for adoption.

The new machinery for the ice factory now completed on Twelfth street arrived this week and is being installed. As soon as the machinery is put in, the plant can make ice in 15 days. The date of starting the factory is not yet known.

Now is the time to get a hat at your own price, at 351as C. Goldsmith's.

Are you a subscriber to the Enterprise? If not, why not? Pay $1.50 and get the best paper in the county for a year and at the same time venture a guess as to the contents of the prize money jar.

Passing down Main street one day this week, the reporter found Adams Bros. unpacking a large shipment of new goods. He inspected the contents and found them to consist of a big assortment of the very latest novelties in Spring dress goods and the prices are right.

Fun in liberal quantities was provided by the Oregon City lodge of the Fraternal Brotherhood, which gave a sheet and pillow case social and dance at the Woodmen Hall Tuesday evening. More than one hundred persons came properly costumed, and a very enjoyable evening was the result.

Oregon Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F. of this city, recently accepted an invitation from Occidental Lodge No. 50, of McMinnville, to attend a meeting of that lodge at McMinnville tomorrow, Saturday night. There will be initiation and a banquet and a number of the local three linkers will go.

The ladies of St. John's Ahar Society gave a pleasing social at the Woodmen hall last Monday night, which was largely attended by the members and friends of the congregation of St. John's Catholic church. A short musical programme was rendered after which cards were played. Refreshments were served.

F. W. Humphry and Young Vernon, who were recently operated upon at a Portland hospital for appendicitis, are recovering very satisfactorily and will soon be able to return to their homes in this city. Mr. Humphry's illness was of a very serious character and his recovery is the cause for offering congratulations.

Work on the new steam laundry building, which will soon be put in operation by Messrs. Johnson & Seacrest, is steadily progressing. The machinery will not arrive for several weeks, but changes in the building, preparatory to installing the machinery, are being made, and soon after the apparatus arrives, the plant will be put into operation.

Chairman J. U. Campbell, of Clackamas county Republican Central Committee, today called the committee to meet to the county court room in this city at 11 A. M. Saturday, February 27. At that time the dates will be determined for holding the primaries and the county convention and the apportionment of delegates will be fixed.

Judging from the amount of new goods that is being received daily by Adams Bros., it is quite certain that the ladies of Oregon City are to be congratulated. A fairer or more complete stock of seasonable and up-to-date dress goods and all sorts of novelties was never before offered the people of Oregon City than that carried by this firm. And the best of it all is that their prices cannot be beat.

Fire Company No. 4 held an annual election Tuesday night in the engine house on the hill. No candidate was put in the field for chief, but Al Fairclough was nominated for fire commissioner. The officers elected were: president, Fred Kerns; secretary, Frank Albright; treasurer, J. Luelling; foreman, Carl Fredericke; second foreman, George Everhart.

Commendable enterprise is best demonstrated by progressive action on the part of the individual himself. When a merchant strives to keep his store stocked with the very latest and up-to-date goods he is the man that is deserving of your trade. This is what Adams Bros. are doing and they are entitled to your custom. You can make no mistake in purchasing at the Golden Rule Bazaar. Both the goods and the prices are right.

Local real estate men say there are many demands to rent and buy Clackamas county farms at this time, the demand even exceeding the supply. The old Gantenbline place at Sandy, containing over 300 acres, was sold this week to an Easterner for $60000 cash. The settlement of Eastern farmers in this county during the present winter has been steady, and the number of newcomers large.

The Thomas Jefferson Democratic Club of Clackamas county met in the Willamette hall Tuesday evening, but the attendance was small. The membership committee was called on to report, and they stated that the club now numbers 120 members. It was voted to secure permanent quarters for the club in a vacant office in the Garde building. Hereafter the club will make its headquarters in this room, where democratic literature will be placed for distribution. Another meeting of the club will be held next Saturday evening in the new quarters.

Exercises in celebration of the nineteenth anniversary of the founding of the order were held in this city Wednesday night by the local lodge of Knights of Pythias. After a programme of musical and literary numbers, including selections by the Maccabee quartette, a banquet was served, toasts offered and dancing indulged in. Mayor Grant B. Dimick presided as toastmaster and among the responses was one on "Pythian Brotherhood," by I. De Vritz, of Portland, Cooke's orchestra furnished delightful music for the event which was quite largely attended by members of the order from Portland.

Have you seen it? What? The Enterprise prize money contest jar. If not, you should do so at once. If you are not a subscriber, become one. If you are now a subscriber, renew your subscription and take a guess on the jar. Remember the only requisite to making an estimate as to the contents of the jar is the payment of $1.50 on subscription to the Enterprise in order to make the contest absolutely fair to both old and new subscribers. It was decided at the beginning of the contest to allow one guess for each $1.50 that was paid on subscription. When in the city, if your solicitor has not already seen you, call at the office of the Enterprise and liquidate your subscription.
