

DROPSY

YOU CAN GET IT

Do Your Ankles or Limbs Swell? Are Your Eyes Puffy? We are the Sole Agents for the Only Thing Known That Cures the Kidney Diseases That Cause Dropsy, viz.: Fulton Compounds.

It is now well known that dropsy is not a stiff disease, but is nearly always a symptom of kidney disease that accompanies the chronic stages heretofore incurable. Hence, up to the discovery of the Fulton Compounds, dropsy was incurable. It is now, however, curable in nearly nine-tenths of all cases. Here is an interesting recovery, to which we refer by permission.

Mrs. Peter Goyhenix of 225 Fillmore street, San Francisco, became alarmingly dropsical. Her physician had finally to tap her every few days. She was tapped nearly forty times and grew worse from day to day. The physician finally told her husband that she had Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, that it was an advanced chronic case and beyond medical aid. Her heart also gave her the usual trouble and she was in such a serious condition the relatives were sent for. They put her on Fulton's Compound. It stayed on the stomach, the first thing that had done so for a week. The second week the dropsy declined a little and the improvement was then gradual till her recovery was complete. This case was examined (sic) by representatives of the San Francisco Star and the Overland Monthly, and the genuineness of the case and the recovery were fully attested in their columns.

Mrs. Thomas Christol of 428 Twenty-seventh street, San Francisco, was also swollen with dropsy, as the result of chronic kidney disease to more than seventy-five pounds beyond her normal weight, and had to be moved in sheets and sent to death's door although she had for months. Three weeks showed improvement and in six months she was well, and permits the following:

"Dropsy don't temperize. There is no cure but to get behind it and that is the only way. The Real Compound for Dropsy, Chronic Kidney Diseases, etc. for Diabetes, Dropsy, etc. Fulton Co., 225 Washington Street, San Francisco, California. Send for a free copy. We are the sole agents for this compound."

INJUNCTION DISMISSED.—Circuit Judge McBride has dissolved the injunction suit of Jacob Kalbfleisch against Clackamas county. This suit was brought to enjoin the establishment of a road, regularly ordered by the county court, through the farm of the plaintiff. In finding for the county, Judge McBride holds that the plaintiff, having brought the same questions up in a writ of review proceeding, which was determined adversely to plaintiff's interest, has no right to raise the same questions in a suit of equity. Unless the case is appealed to the supreme court, the decision of Judge McBride finally decides the controversy over this road, which has been waged in the courts of Clackamas county for several months. Judge McBride also denied a motion for a new trial in the suit of A. E. Latourette against Henry Meldrum et al. This suit was tried in the circuit court last summer, when a verdict was found for the defendants.

REV. BEAVER RETURNS.—Rev. Jas. H. Beaver will be back again in his pulpit for this coming Sunday. He has been absent at Springfield, Oregon, holding special meetings with the Baptist churches there for the past two weeks. He will resume his series of sermons on the "Lord's Prayer" Sunday morning, and in the evening give another illustrated sermon. These evening services on Sunday at the Baptist church form a very pleasant attraction to those who are in the habit of going to church as well as to those who go largely because of the novelty. The pictures which are shown by the aid of electricity and a good lantern are often the work of the best artists and are always clear and distinct, far above the average, and we bespeak for him a good attendance as heretofore when the pastor resumes his work of entertainment and instruction with us again.

Are you a subscriber to the Enterprise? If not, why not? Pay $1.50 and get the best paper in the county for a year and at the same time venture a guess as to the contents of the prize money jar.

Nobody is Barred in Enterprise Prize Contest.

View the Money Jar at Howell & Jones' Drug Store and Make Estimate.

When you are down town stop at Howell & Jones' drug store, view the Enterprise money contest jar and then come to the Enterprise office, pay your subscription and make an estimate on the amount of money the jar contains. Some one is going to get the money when it is divided on the afternoon of Washington's birthday, February 22, next. Why should not you share in the division?

Payment of subscription money on the Enterprise is the only condition that is required of persons desiring to participate in the contest. For every $1.50 that is paid on subscription to this paper the subscriber is entitled to one guess as to the amount of money the jar contains. It matters not whether the payment covers back subscription or pays for the paper a year in advance, you get a guess anyway. This arrangement makes the contest fair for all old subscribers as well as those who may now become subscribers to the paper.

Another condition that makes the contest absolutely fair is the fact that the amount of money contained in the jar is unknown to anybody. The Enterprise placed the bulk of the money in the receptacle and the balance in unknown denominations and amount, was deposited therein by Mr. C. Schuebel, the attorney of Oregon City, and neither knows the amount in the jar, which has been securely sealed. On Monday afternoon, February 22, 1904, the seal will be broken and the money counted by Mr. Schuebel who will make the award of the money among the successful guessers. The manner of distribution will be as follows: 50 per cent to the person guessing nearest as to the amount of money in the jar; 25 per cent to the second best guesser and 5 per cent each to the next five persons guessing closest as to the amount in the jar.

All guesses must be forwarded or deposited at the Enterprise office previous to 12 o'clock noon, Monday, February 22, when the contest will close. More than one hundred guesses varying from $75 to $700 have been received and each week we are enlisting many new subscribers. Persons desiring to guess should lose no time in making their estimate. Your chance is just as good as your neighbors and some one is going to win. Why not you?

As we have announced, the Enterprise had the misfortune a few weeks ago to have stolen from the office another jar of money that was to have been given away on the same conditions as will this one. The second jar is an exact counterpart of the stolen vessel and contains approximately the same amount of money as did the original jar. Subscribers who ventured guesses on the first jar will have the privilege of changing their guesses if they will call at the office or notify us of the change desired.

The Enterprise speaks for itself. It is the only Republican paper in the county. It contains every week a complete report of the news of interest of the entire county and its country correspondence service is not duplicated. It contains all of the news all of the time and gives the same accurately and reliably. With two campaigns next year—the county election in June and the general election in November—the average citizen of Clackamas county should keep informed as to affairs in his county. He can receive the best service in this respect by taking the Enterprise. We pride ourselves on our market report and see that it is corrected every week. The farmer depends on a reliable market report and by making corrections every week we are prepared to supply his wants in this particular.

King—Dills.

Miss Nevada Alma Dills, of Liberal, and Mr. William P. King, of Portland, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Monday evening at eight o'clock at the home of the groom's brother, Mr. Frank E. King, of Portland, Rev. D. D. Gray officiating. The bride is the well known and highly esteemed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Faunt, of Liberal, and the groom is a promising young gentleman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. King of Portland.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only a few invited guests being present. A wedding supper was served.

The bride looked very charming in a becoming costume of brocaded white silk. Mr. and Mrs. King are at home to their friends at 915 East Sixth street, North, Portland.

BIG LAND SLIDE.—A big land slide occurred the last of last week about 12 miles up on the Clackamas river, about one-half mile above the old Capt. Norton place. A high bluff reaching up from the edge of the river became loosened by the recent rains, and slid into the river. The slide came down with such a rush that it carried rocks and trees across the stream, throwing them out on the other side. The swift current of the river quickly worked through the obstruction, but the result was that the usually clear waters of the stream were muddy about a week at all points below the slide. The county road to Springfield runs near the slide, but farther back on the hill, and was not damaged.

AT THE POULTRY SHOW.—James Morrow & Son, local poultry fanciers, last week shipped several coops of blooded fowls to the Portland poultry show, where they were placed on exhibition. The stock sent were barred Plymouth Rocks, Dr. Strickland and other local poultry raisers would have exhibited, but made a mistake in the date upon which the entries closed.

You cannot possibly lose anything, and at the same time you have a chance to get more than your money back. How? By subscribing for the Enterprise. There is no reason on earth why you should not have the Enterprise in your household. In fact, if you are to be kept informed as to the news of the county, it is imperative that you read the Enterprise.

BIRTHDAY PRESENTS

FOR

Readers of the Enterprise

ON Monday afternoon, Washington's Birthday, February 22, 1904, The Enterprise will distribute a snug sum of money among its subscribers. We have placed on exhibition in the show window of Howell & Jones, the druggists, a glass jar filled with coin of all denominations and this money will be given away to the readers of The Enterprise the afternoon of February 22, next. If you do not receive a cash gift on your birthday, manage to share the distribution of this money on Washington's anniversary.

Guess and Get the Money

The best guesser will get the bulk of the money but in this contest all will have an equal chance. Payment of subscription money on The Enterprise is the only requisite condition for those desiring to participate in the contest. In order that the old readers of The Enterprise may have an equal chance to share the division of the money with new subscribers, it has been decided to allow One Guess for each $1.50 in subscription that is paid for The Enterprise, whether the payment covers a delinquent subscription or is paid for the paper in advance.

Get Your Thinking Cap On

Somebody will get this money. Why should not you? No one knows the actual amount of money on deposit in the Jar. The Enterprise placed the bulk of the money in the Jar and the balance, in various denominations, was deposited therein by a person not connected with the paper, the amount so deposited by each being unknown to the other. The seal of the Jar will be broken on the afternoon of Monday, February 22, 1904, and distributed among the successful guessers.

50 Per Cent

OF MONEY TO PERSON making closest guess as to contents of the Jar.

25 per cent to the person making the second closest guess and 5 per cent each to the next five persons guessing in closest to the amount.

In case of a tie, the amount involved will be divided.

The contest will positively close at noon on Monday, February 22, 1904.
