Some years ago there was exhibited in London a beautiful picture of an eighteenth century interior, perfect in every detail but one, for on a wall of the interior was a small picture of a very up to date locomotive, and in the same year the writer saw among the academy pictures a presentment of a cavalier, evidently waiting impatiently for his lady to keep the tryst, consulting a watch which would have done eredit to a twenfleth century watchmaker, while on another canvas a pen-Insular veteran, who was fighting his battles over again for the benefit of admiring rustics at the village inn, was wearing an unmistakable Victoria cross about forty years before this badge of valor came into existence.

In his magnificent picture in the Royal Exchange of scared Londoners escaping in boats from the horrors of the great fire of 1666 Stanhope Forbes introduced vessels of a type which, it is said, the Thames has never known. and another artist of replite armed the children of Israel with guns, presumably for self protection, while they were occupied in gathering manna .-Stray Stories.

MANY ATTENDED BANQUET.

Work of Board of Trade.

Genuine enthusiasm was generated in the proposed work of the reorganized Board of Trade at the Merchants' and Business Men's banquet held at Willamette hall Wednesday evening. Following the feast of good things same an intellectual treat in the shape of a programme of sixteen toasts on timely subjects, touching on the past and present of this historical place and the future prospects of Oregon City and Clackamas county. As toastmaster, Mayor Grant B. Dimick was especially brilliant in the introduction of the varions speakers, each of whom said many pleasant things about the city and its possibilities which depend largely upon the extent to which the people of this was unanimous for the upbuilding of the etty and Clackamas county and if the enthusiasm is not allowed to subside, much good will be accomplished through this organization The published programme of toasts was carried out with but few exceptions. Wednesday and this subject was discussed by G. L. Hedges. Judge Gordon E. Hayes, because of illness, was absent and his tossts on "Reciprocity" was omitted. J. E. Hedges offered the toast, "The Ethics of the Medical Profession." in place of F. T. Griffith who could not attend the banquet. Because of the late-ness of the hour, Barvey E. Cross, the energetic secretary of the Board, who worked so faithfully in arranging the banquet and who was in large measure responsible for its successful consummation, declined to detain the banqueters in his sesigned subject: "Future Pros-

Lack of space prevents giving a digest of each of the toasts, but suffice it to re-mark that each was to the point. Senator Brownell, C. B. Oregon City People Enthused With E. E. Charman Writes of Arizona And Reports Health Improved.

> Harvey E. Cross, secretary of the Oregon City Board of Trade, is in receipt of a letter from E. E. Charman, who left this city about four months ago for the benefit of his health. Mr. Charman writes that his health is slightly improved. The following excerpts are taken from the letter:

This is a wonderful climate for sunshine. The desert is badly in need of rain and the irrigation canals are short rainy days in four months and less than building with fruit, grain, mineral and wood exhibits, but when a person visits the board there is no one to explain the exhibit or to give them (strangers) the nix consists of one or two men and they have it all to do. The business men are Aurora pickles willing to contribute to maintain it, but have not the time to promote it. The same thing seems to be so in Los Angeles.

"I see by the Oregonian that on the 22d the business men are going to have a banquet, and I am sorry that I cannot be present with you. I sincerely trust that it will bring the business men of the city it will bring the business men of the city it will be business men of the city it will be business men of the city in the Brandenstein's Caron Knew What He Was Doing.

The affability of a candidate for par liamentary bonors has a great effect. and many a vote is secured by means of it. But it would seem that effusiveness and affability are sometimes indulged in for quite a different reason when men are woolng a constituency, An incident in an east end election proved this. One of the candidates was extremely gushing, and the election agent, when in conversation with a keen supporter, said:

"It is a grand idea, that of Mr. He is not only not satisfied with shak ing hands with the voters in the ordicommunity labor in its behalf. The ing hands with the voters in the ordisentiment expressed in the several toasts mary way, but whenever he meets them he grabs both hands and shakes them effusively.

"I see," said the supporter. "But don't you think that that's rather over doing it?

"Well, it may look like that," return ed the agent, "but Mr. — knows his Judge Wm. Gallowsy, who was to have ed the agent, "but Mr. — knows his responded to the toast: "The Lewis & business, and he knows that so long as Clark Fair," was called to Cottage Grove he holds on to both of their hands his watch is safe."-London Tit-Bits.

> A Striking Presentiment. It is curious how future events are occasionally prefigured by some an ticipatory token which, unlike presentiments and premonitory dreams, makes perhaps no impression at the time on those whom they concern.

Here is a striking example; One of Charles Dickens' sons, from some childish oddity of expression in his large, wondering eyes, was given by his father the very unique sobriquet of the "Ocean Specier," by which he was Wood, the season of toasts was intro-duced, responses being made in this or-er knew of the weird significance his

There stands on Chatham hill in Eng land a colossal structure known as "Jezreel tower," which was erected some years ago by a religious sect, now extinct, called verreelites. Their leader preached a faith which promised im mortality to all its believers. Money flowed into its exchequers, and the Temple of Jezreel was begun "for the housing of 144,000 persons who were not to taste death." Before it was completed the faith of the Jezreelites re ceived a double shock from the disap pearance of their money and the death of their leader. But the great mass of bricks and iron still remains, a monument to latter day credulity.

There is need for some such an organization of the young voters of Clackamas county, not only for the good that would be accomplished in advancing the inter-ests of the party in county, state and national affairs, but for the advantage that would be thereby gained in securing for the young men the recognition to MILES & McGLASHAN, Props. which their active services in every campaign entitles them.

For exhibits of this character, illustrating the resources, indus-tries and progress of communities, the following regulations have been pro-

Ciackamas county, being so closely located to Multnomab—the place for holding the fair—will derive a liberal share of the benefits that will accrue from such an exposition and should make an effort to be properly represented at that time. That Dr. Miles is one of the most suc-cessful and reliable of physicisms, is proven by hundreds of testimopoles from well-known people. One patient cared after failure of eleven Grand Rapids physicians, two after having him given up by six or seven Chicago physicians, another after nine of the leading doctors in New York City, Philadelphia and Chicago failed. Thousands of testimonials sent on request.

The late Prof. J. S. Jewell, M. D., editor of the Journal of Nervous and Mental Diseases, published at Chicago, advised Dr. Miles to "by all means pub-Hab your surprising results." Prof. J. P. Ross, M. D., president of Rush Medi-cal College, wrote in 1874: "Dr. Miles has taken two courses of my 'private' instruction in diseases of the heart and lungs." Col. N. G. Parker, ex-treasurer of South Carolina, says: "I believe Dr. M. Tucker, late general manager of N. Y., L. E. & W. system of railways, says: "Dr. Miles' success as a physician has been phenominal." Col. E. B Spileman, of the Ninth Regulars, U.S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Your Special Treatment has worked wonders when all else tailed. When an experienced and wealthy physician offers to prescribe free $4000 worth of trreatment for discuss of the heart, nerves, stomach or dropsy, it is liberality is certainly worthy of serious
