"Oh, yes, we should have a Young Men's Republican Club all right," is the reply of those to whom the suggestion is made, but no one seems sufficiently interested in the matter to take the initiative, circulate a paper for signatures preliminary to calling a meeting and effecting an organization. This should be done without further delay. It will be but a short time until the county campaign is on in earnest, and then there will be abundant opportunity for good and effectual work for some such an organization. By all means let's have a Young Men's Republican Club.

The six year-old son of Barney Dolan, of the West Side, met with a distressing accident Tuesday afternoon. He playfully held a "small dynamite cap in his left hand and applied a match to the cap to see if it would explode. As a result of the explosion, the little fellow is now minus the thumb and the two neighboring fingers of the left hand. He was brought to this city immediately and the injury was treated by Drs. Carl and Lowe. A companion, named Deaver, who was with the Dolan boy at the time of the explosion, came nearly being injured also. As it was, parts of the exploded cap struck him in the face, badly scratching the lad.

The Wait of the Victim. "You can't get something for nothing," said the man who affects proverbs. "No," answered the easy man; "I can't. But the people with whom I do business seem to manage it every now and then."—Exchange.

Social Tact. Mrs. Chic—in the closest analysis, what is social tact? Mrs. Au Fuit—My dear, it is getting familiar with all sorts of people without letting them get familiar with you.—Indianapolis Journal.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequence. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. For sale by G. A. Harding.

The Funny Side.

At an "at home" a young man came in and made his way to the hostess, greeting her and apologizing for his lateness. "Awwfully glad to see you, Mr. Blank," said the hostess; "so good of you to come. But where is your brother?" "I am commissioned to tender his regrets. You see, we are so busy just now that it was impossible for both of us to get away, so we tossed up to see which of us should come." "How nice! such an original idea! And you won't?" "No," said the young man, absently, "I lost."

In the Senate, the other day, while Bailey and Tillman were both on their feet arguing heatedly, Senator Warren tipped to Tillman's side and took from the South Carolina senator's pocket a bottle. It contained a colorless liquid. Warren removed the cork, smelled the contents of the bottle, then restored the latter to Tillman's pocket. Tillman did not know why the Senate and galleries were in uproars of laughter, but Bailey, who had seen the by-play, exclaimed: "When this vaudeville performance has ceased, I shall be glad to go on!" So the chair rapped the Senate to order.

A story of quick wit comes from Holland. Barend Vet, of The Hague, was arrested for calling a constable a monkey, and was sentenced to forty-five days' imprisonment. The judge informed him that he must not insult the police, and that to call a constable a monkey was a serious offense. The culprit reflected, then inquired, "Would it be any crime to call a monkey a constable?" "Certainly not," replied the judge, "if it would give you any satisfaction." Yet turned to the prosecuting attorney, and, with an elaborate bow, said, "Good-day, constable."

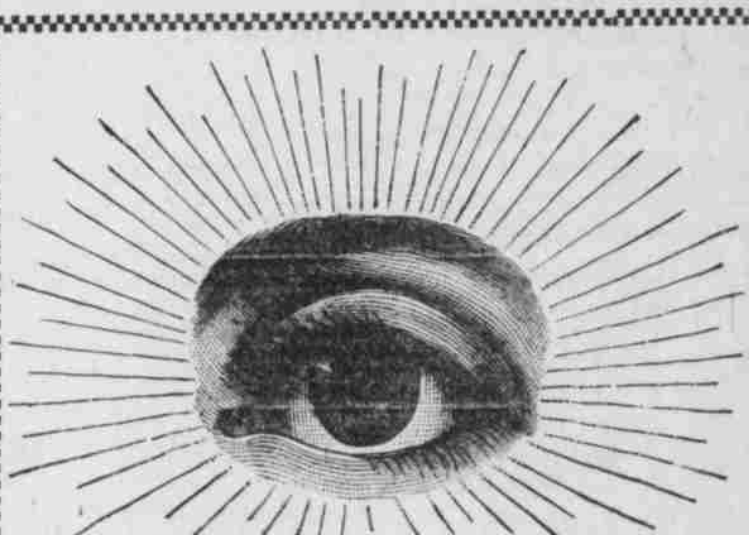

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength. Sold by Geo. A. Harding."

The building season will be lively. To buy doors and windows right, you must see Frank Busch.

A BUSINESS LUXURY

A CHECKING-ACCOUNT is indeed a business necessity; and he who tries to get along without one is at great disadvantage. It is not required that a person should have a large bulk of business in order to open an account. Professional men, farmers, and even many women, are running checking-accounts. If you have never done business in this way, and are not familiar with the plan, come to us and we will get you started.
