

New To-Day.

DR. C. S. SEAMANN, PHYSICIAN—Office over Harding's drug store.

WANTED—PASTURE FOR SHEEP—either grain fields or grass. Highest price paid for same. Address W. W. Irwin, Aurora, Or.

FOUND—LIGHT GRAY MARE HAS been here since last Sept. Owner of same may get her by proving trade marks and pay expense.

MONEY TO LOAN—I HAVE SEVERAL sums of money belonging to private individuals which I am authorized to loan, on long time at 6 and 7 per cent.

WANTED—SEVERAL INDUSTRI-ous persons in each state to travel for house established for 11 years and with a large capital, to call upon merchants and agents for successful and profitable line.

Local Events.

New collings just arrived at Miss C. Goldsmith's.

Beautiful line of tailor made hats, prices moderate, at Miss C. Goldsmith's.

Preaching next Sunday morning and evening at the Congregational church in Elv.

Spring opening of millinery goods at Miss C. Goldsmith's March 25-26 and following days.

Members of the Shakespeare Club are finding much pleasure in reading King Henry VIII.

Consult Dr. Cowles D. O. from Portland on the natural science plan of treating disease at the Electric hotel Tuesday March 22.

Misses Pratt and Pope will conduct their dancing class at Wilamette Hall Saturday evening this week instead of in the afternoon as heretofore.

If you want to get the news, all the news, fully and reliably reported, during the campaign, you should sign for the Enterprise. We are making a special rate of 25 cents from now until after the June election.

Mr. and Mrs. Linn E. Jones entertained the whist club on Tuesday evening at their home on the hill.

"The White Grave," the story in the Argonaut for March 21st, is the most striking tale that has appeared in that paper for a long time.

Geraldine Bonner's New York letters to the Argonaut are among the most pleasing features of that paper, and of interest to all classes of readers.

The people of Parkplace will have their fill of farces Saturday evening. There will be a double performance.

The entertainment and social that was to have been given tonight by the Circle, Women of Woodcraft, this Friday evening, has been postponed until Saturday evening, April 9.

E. C. Clement, a rural mail route inspector for the government, was in the city this week and has reported favorably on a third route to be operated from this city.

Evangelistic services are now being conducted at the First Baptist church in this city by the Rev. E. W. Neill. During this week twenty persons have confessed their sins and become Christians.

Father Hildebrand conducted High Mass, pronounced a sermon and gave a benediction at St. John's Catholic church at services held at 9 o'clock Thursday morning in celebration of St. Patrick's Day.

After discussing the project for several weeks, the ladies of the Salem Women's Club have determined to establish a public library and free reading room in this city.

Dress making that will please at the Red Front.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tool, Friday, March 11.

Spring opening of millinery goods at Miss C. Goldsmith's March 25-26 and following days.

Just arriving—Our new spring millinery under the efficient management of Mrs. M. A. Thomas.

Rev. E. S. Bollinger went to Clackamas Tuesday evening where he delivered an illustrated lecture on "Pilgrims Progress."

Bob, the well-known stallion, will make the 1904 season at the Oak Grove stock farm as he has in previous years.

Miss Olga McClure, of Green Point, was given a very pleasant surprise party at her home Tuesday evening by about twenty of her young friends.

County Superintendent Zinser has an appointment at Estacada next week when he will discuss the advisability of creating another school district in that section of the county.

Stephen A. D. Gurley, formerly of Canby, died on the 15th inst. at Arlington, Gilliam county.

Capitalists, whose names cannot now be disclosed, contemplate the erection on Main street in this city during the summer, a modern opera house of sufficient equipment and capacity to meet the requirements of Oregon City.

Attorney General Crawford yesterday rendered an opinion in which he holds that if a person dies in this state possessed of property of the value of $10,000 or over, whether in this state or any other such estate is subject to taxation under the inheritance tax law.

A mild sensation has been created at the University of Oregon by six men students attired in women's clothes witnessing the girls' freshmen sophomore basketball game in the gymnasium.

Game Warden Baker is looking for some interesting times about next fall on account of differences in the interpretation of the law in regard to the protection of upland birds.

What is perhaps the shortest street in the world is West South Division street in Buffalo.

"Yes," said the boarding school teacher, "I think that is a model letter for you to write your fiance. But of course you will copy it, leaving out those numerous spaces."

"Did her father show you the door?" "He did better than that. He showed me the door, the front gate and the corner drug store two blocks away."

The oyster at its best is inferior as a toothsome delicacy to the succulent clam.

Personal Mention

Bishop Seelye, of Wilsonville, was in the city Friday.

Miss Motta Finley has returned from a short visit at Salem.

A. W. Cook, of Damascus, was in the city last Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Parsiful have returned from a visit at Albany.

Miss Echo Samson has returned from a visit with friends at Silverton.

Miss Millie Ginther, of this city, is visiting her parents at Schoebel.

Robert Ginther, who teaches the Needy school, was in the city this week.

Mr. Wallace, a farmer residing near Springwater, was in the city Monday.

Mrs. Carl Roberts, of Portland, has been visiting Miss McIntyre in this city.

Mayor Wm. Schindler, of Milwaukie, transacted business here last Saturday.

J. W. Dowdy, of the Oak Grove stock farm at Eagle Creek, was in the city this week.

Miss Anne Midlam, of Portland, visited Mrs. Wayne Howard at Canemah Sunday.

E. B. Andrews was called to Seattle Tuesday because of the critical illness of his mother.

Mrs. Lizzie Ropple, who owns a large hop farm near Aurora, spent Wednesday at her ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Canfield and Mr. Moore, of Portland, spent Sunday with friends in this city.

William Shively, a student at Pacific University, Forest Grove, visited his parents here Sunday.

Senator A. C. Marsters, of Roseburg, spent Sunday with Senator Geo. C. Brownell in this city.

Rev. I. C. Elliott, of Portland, conducted services at the Methodist church at Clackamas Sunday.

Roy T. Bishop, of Salem, was in the city Monday evening, visiting his old friend, J. W. Cochran.

J. F. Osborne and son Frank, of Portland, were doing business at the Oregon City land office this week.

H. E. Hayes, of Mt. Tabor, was the guest of his son, Hon. G. E. Hayes, of this city, Tuesday of this week.

Miss Vesta Knight, one of the instructors in the Canby public schools, visited Oregon City friends this week.

A. Vetch, of Gresham, was an Oregon City visitor Monday when he renewed his subscription to the Enterprise.

Mrs. Herbert Thorn and son, of Portland, spent this week with Mrs. Thorn's brother, Ira R. Wishart, in this city.

Miss Laura Conyers was last week the guest of Miss Ethelwyn Albright, returning Saturday to her home at Clatskanie.

Major Grant B. Dimick attended the district convention of the Knights of Pythias at Albany the latter part of last week.

Wm. Jack, of Silverton, this week visited with his brother, J. E. Jack, in this city.

John Linnville, a merchant at Newberg and an old friend of Senator Brownell and family, spent Monday evening in this city.

T. F. Cowing, Jr., has gone to Seattle, where he has been offered employment in the Western Union Telegraph Company's office.

Alexander Tice, of Canby, was in Oregon City the first of the week en route to Cowitz county, Washington, on a business trip.

A family named Zaune, recently arrived from the East, has moved into one of the Cheney houses near Jefferson and Ninth streets.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Church of Oregon City came up on last night's local to attend the funeral of Judge Finn.

Judge Wm. Galloway, Miss Ethel Graves, Miss Jessie Bibee and Miss Zilpha Galloway visited at McMinnville the latter part of last week.

Mort Cockrell was at Corvallis Tuesday, where he attended the funeral of Ed Rosendorf, an old friend who died recently at Philadelphia.

J. B. Mitts, a prominent farmer residing near Aurora, was in the city Monday.

Prof. A. T. Winches, the efficient principal of the Canby public schools, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barlow left Monday for the Hot Springs near LaGrande, Union county.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Talbert, of Clackamas, were in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Talbert, of Clackamas, were in the city Monday.

You Bet You Can.

You can be a strong man or woman by buying the great nerve tonic, Palma Tablets, sold by Howell & Jones.

Drs. Beattie & Beattie Dentists. Rooms 16, 17, 18. Weiland building.

The Enterprise $1.00 per year.

There is A Big Difference in Sewing Machines. WHITE'S MACHINES. We also carry a large stock of String Instruments. BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS

WE HAVE MOVED THE OREGON CITY JUNK AND SECOND HAND STORE. Rapid Growth Groceries

In every department of banking, the BANK OF OREGON CITY is prepared to serve you in a satisfactory manner.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Bluestone, Coal Oil, Bulk Arm & Hammer Soda, etc.

Are your eyes troubling you? I. R. WISHART Charman Bros. Block. Includes image of an eye.

The Red Front E. C. HAMILTON Oregon City Oregon. Includes image of a horse-drawn carriage.

Superior Work Lowest Prices. That is what you get when A. Muhlstein does your plumbing work.