

DEMOCRATS HOLD MEETING.
Will Hold Primaries April 4—County Convention April 9.

The Democrats were in town Wednesday. That was the day set for the meeting of the Democratic County Central Committee of Clackamas county. It is reported that 21 of the 37 members of the committee were in attendance at the meeting, which was held at the club rooms of the Thos. Jefferson Democratic Club of this city in the -sarde building. It was decided to hold the primaries on Monday, April 4, and the county convention on the following Saturday, April 9. The apportionment of delegates to the county convention was made on a basis of one delegate to every ten votes that were cast for Governor Chamberlain. This will make a convention of 172 delegates. An informal banquet was held at Willamette Hall in the evening. Chairman Beatie presided at the meeting. Just what the Democrats propose to do at the June election in this county is an unknown quantity and one which the most vigorous questioning failed to disclose. The members of the minority party either do not really know what they intend to do, or, having a well defined programme of action, are lying low and saying nothing, at least none of the Democratic leaders that were seen at the committee meeting would divulge any thing as to the many things contemplated by their party. The reporter interviewed both Chairman Beatie, O. D. Eby, president of the local club, and Jim Lovett, a recognized local leader of the Democracy, but he was unable to hear enough from these gentlemen, so far as prospective candidates are concerned, to make a respectable item. When asked regarding probable legislative timber, Jim Lovett looked wise and remarked: "We may decide not to have a legislative ticket in the field this year." And this was about all of the satisfaction that could be gained by interrogating members of the untiered organization in this county. But, speaking about candidates, it is generally known that Bon Beatie would like to be sheriff. He declares that he is not an avowed candidate for the nomination, but then it is believed that he would not hesitate to accept the nomination if he thought he could be elected to that office. Frank Bidings, of Marquam, and Irel Trullinger, of Union Mills, will probably contest for this nomination from the Democrats. The only name that has been suggested as a probable candidate for the nomination of county clerk is that of O. D. Eby, of this city. Mr. Eby is president of the Thos. Jefferson Club of Oregon City. With these few exceptions, it was impossible to ascertain from any source the names of Democrats who have political aspirations.

SO DECEPTIVE.

Many Oregon City People Fail to Realize the Seriousness

Backache is so deceptive. It come and goes—keeps you guessing. Learn the cause—then cure it. Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it. Cure every kidney ail from backache to diabetes. Here's a case to prove it. Mrs. D. Murphy, widow, who lives at 395 Ivon St., Portland, says: "Years when living in Kansas I was greatly troubled with kidney complaint. At that time, I was, I might say, perfectly helpless for months, but in time it wore away as mysteriously as it came. It did not bother me again until last fall when there was every symptom of its return, and knowing what I had suffered formerly I began to look around for something to check it, and on looking over the paper I noticed Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended so I procured them and took them as directed. It only required a few days' treatment to ward off the attack. Since then I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a number of my friends."

Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call at C. G. Huntley's drug store and ask what his customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Condiments and Digestion.

People with weak digestions will always be found to be fond of condiments, as the tendency of these things is to stimulate the glands of the stomach and cause them to produce a larger supply of digestive juices. Pepper, mustard and other like spices stir up the liver and are useful to people who from necessity or other causes lead sedentary lives. Vinegar dissolves the cellulose in raw vegetables, and that is why it tastes so well with cabbages and salads, for there is no better judge than the palate of what is good for the stomach. The oil is added because it protects the stomach from the biting acid.

The Thumb.

Thumbs have been appreciated ever since the world began. The ancients used to call the thumb the other hand. Barbarous kings used to swear and make compacts by their thumbs. In Rome it was a sign of favor to wring and kiss the thumb and of disfavor or disgrace to lift it up or turn it outward. A man who was hurt in his thumbs was excused from serving in the Roman wars. Some of the scoundrelly citizens used to cut off their thumbs so as to remain at home and get rich. Teachers used to punish their pupils by biting their thumbs.

Encouragement For the Boy.

Patsy—Mom, won't yer gimme me candy now? Mrs. Casey—Diddn' Of tell ye Of wouldn't give ye anny at all if ye didn't kape still? Patsy—Yer'm, but— Mrs. Casey—Well, the longer ye kape still the sooner ye'll get it.—Philadelphia Press.

Burning of Iroquois Theater

At the last meeting of Warner Grange, No. 117, held at New Era, William Gardner read a poem on the burning of the Iroquois theatre, December 30, 1903. The verses follow:

Mark! The wail of lamentation,
Floating on the evening breeze,
Over lofty hills and valleys,
Through among the leafless trees.
'Tis a cry of bitter anguish,
From Chicago's city fair;
Fathers, mothers, sisters, brothers,
Wring their hands in dire despair.
For the loved ones that have perished
In that charnel house of death;
Scorched by fire and choked with gases
Till each victim's latest breath.
Many mothers with their children
Left their homes that fatal noon,
Little thought that ere the sunset,
They should meet their final doom.
See them sitting in the theatre,
Joy and pleasure fills each breast;
Little thought of coming danger,
Pleasure all their thoughts possessed.
But their pleasure soon was ended,
For the theater was on fire;
How to save their lives from danger,
Now was all their heart's desire.
Then with screams of fear and terror,
Each one rushed toward the door,
Hundreds fell overcome with gases,
And were trampled on the floor.
Cries of men and women, too,
Resounded through the place;
And mothers with their children dear
Locked in a fond embrace.
Were struggling hard to save their lives,
But struggled all in vain;
For many more fell to the floor,
And never rose again.
But trampled on by hurrying feet,
Until their latest breath;
Oh, let us draw the curtain down
On this sad scene of death.
And now their friends and relatives
Mourn the loved ones gone;
The smiling faces that they loved,
No more they'll look upon.
Their families prostrate with grief
And mothers in despair,
When they look around their homes
And see
Their loved one's vacant chair.

THE EARTH TREMBLED.

Seattle People Experienced An Earthquake Wednesday Evening.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 16.—The most severe earthquake shock ever experienced in the Northwest rocked buildings in Seattle tonight and drove frightened women and children into the streets. Patients in the hospitals leaped from their cots in terror. On the upper floors of the taller business blocks bookcases swayed to and fro, crashing into the walls with a report that could be heard in adjoining rooms. Business men working in a rush from their offices along floors three and four fell with the motion of a vessel at sea in a storm. The disturbance was felt in other Northwestern towns with practically the same violence. At Tacoma, Everett, Bellingham, Victoria, Port Townsend, Port Angeles and the smaller towns of the Northwest, buildings were shaken, windows rattled, doors burst open and frightened people impelled to flee from their homes. The shipping on the Sound felt the disturbance and people on the boats were disturbed. There were two shocks, the first light, but the second of violent force. In Seattle they seemed to pass at 8:18 P. M. from east to west, Tacoma and Snohomish reporting a similar movement of the earth's crust. Further north the shocks passed either from northeast to northwest or from north to south, and on the west side two reports insist that the movement was from west to east. Reports from North Yakima and points in the southwestern part of the state show the earthquake was not felt there.

In Hungary, when the question of the baby's future comes up for discussion among the gypsies, there is no time wasted in argument. A blanket is held by the four corners and the baby is thrown into the air. If it comes down on its little stomach it is a sign that it is going to be a musician; if it falls on its back it is to be a thief, and the education of the child is begun as soon as possible in one of these two time honored professions.
