Mrs. Mahala B. Inett, aged 73 years, died last Friday at her home near Clackamas.
The deceased had resided at the place of her death since 1869. Funeral services were conducted at Clackamas Sunday, Rev. P. K. Hammond of this city, officiating.

In the severe rain and wind storm of Saturday evening, a barn in Kansas City adjacent to this city was blown down, demolishing the owner's buggy and killing his horse. A frame residence at Gladstone, the property of Mrs. Hackett, was also blown down.

Justice of the Peace Liver Stipp officiated at the ceremony Saturday afternoon that united in marriage John Hughes and Annie Heinbothen both of this county. The ceremony was performed in this city. The bride is a well-known school teacher of Clackamas county where the groom has also resided for a number of years.

On Saturday evening, March 19, at the home of Mrs. Sunderland on the West Side, Mr. Lester Dieker and Miss Dollie Walker were united in marriage. Rev.
E. S. Bollinger officiating. A number of the immediate friends and relatives were present and all united in wishing a happy voyage to the young people so happily setting forth into life.

The first basket social that has been held in this city for some time was conducted by the Oregon City Lodge of The Fraternal Brotherhood, at the Woodmen hall Tuesday evening. After a number of fine baskets had been auctioned and the contents thereof disposed of, the gathering enjoyed dancing until midnight. There were in attendance a number of visitors from Portland.

John W. Loder, the good looking Democratic lawyer, has been wearing a broader smile than usual the past few days, and no wonder. A bouncing baby boy, weighing ten pounds, arrived at his home Wednesday morning. Loder says he will try to so train the young man that he will become a creditable acquisition to the Democratic forces of Clackamas county.

The services at the Congregational church next Sunday will be especially appropriate to Palm Sunday. The pastor's themes for the day will relate to thoughts pertaining to the entrance upon Passion Week. Special music is being prepared. In the morning the choir will sing "God's Love Shown." V. Harris will sing "Palms" at the evening service and the choir will render Danks' "The Green Hill Far Away."

Elizabeth J. Eoff wants to be divorced from Jos. J. Eoff whom she charges with abusive treatment and allegations of infidelity. They were married at The Dalles in 1888. The woman asks for the custody of two minor sons, aged 6 and 8 years respectively. On the grounds of desertion, Nina D. Windom is suing for a legal separation from James L. Windom to whom she was married at Portland in 1902.

Early next month Huntley Bros. Co., of this city, will establish a branch drug store at Mulalia. J. H. Voren, an old employee of the company in this city, will have the management of the branch store which will meet a much needed want in that prosperous and growing section of the county.

Friday evening, April 15, is the date set by the local lodge Royal Aramum for its dance at the Armory. Everett's orchestra of Portland has been engaged and with the completeness of the arrangements that have been made, the party promises to be one of the most pleasant ever held in this city. Invitations are being prepared and will soon be distributed for the party which will be a semi-annual affair in that the ladies will have the privilege of selecting partners for one-half of the dances.

Because he claims to have been unfairly beaten out of the nomination for sheriff by the Multnomah county Republicans at the recent county convention, Sheriff Storey has dismissed seventeen deputies employed in his department.
He suspected them of betraying him at the recent primaries and subsequent convention. Storey declares that he will vigorously oppose the election of the Republican candidate Storey, and may decide to run for sheriff on an independent ticket.

County Judge Ryan and Commissioner Kilian have just completed a tour of the county on a road and bridge inspection tour. Several bridges were ordered constructed across Rock Creek and the roads in many sections of the county were ordered improved. Judge Ryan says the condition of the roads of the county are not as bad as they have been pictured.
"With but a few exceptions," says the judge, "and then the stretches of bad road are not of any length, the roads of the county are in surprisingly good condition, considering the severe winter we have had."

A contest over a homestead in Linn county is being heard before the Oregon City Land Office that is being more vigorously fought than is usually the case.
Robert F. London is contesting the claim of Nora Pearl Cameron in township 2 south, range 1 east, on the grounds of abandonment and failure generally to comply with the provisions of the homestead law. The contest has already occupied two days and the taking of testimony will likely take the remainder of the week as both sides have a small army of witnesses. John Draper appears for the contestant while the interests of the contestee are being attended to by T. F.
Gowing.

At a meeting of the athletic council, held yesterday afternoon, Francis Galloway, '07, was elected assistant manager of the football team for the season of 1904. Mr. Galloway is registered from McMinnville, and is a brother of Hon.
Charles Galloway, '07, who was promi-nently identified with the management of athletic teams during his college course. The selection of Mr. Galloway for the position of assistant manager meets with general approval. He has good executive ability and will be in line for manager in 1905.—Eugene Register, March 22. Mr. Galloway is the son of Hon. Wm. Galloway, of this city.

The jury selected by Coroner Pohl to inquire into the death of Sandra Vilen, whose name heretofore has been given as Hilda Willen and Alexandra Willen, which might render a verdict which will have the effect of holding 14-year-old Willie Cook to the circuit court for trial. The verdict was reached after about two hours' deliberation on the part of the six men, and to the surprise of Mr. and Mrs. Cook came as a great surprise, as it was generally expected the lad would be exonerated of guilt of crime. A large crowd of persons gathered in front of the office of Coroner Pohl and waited there until 9:30, when Coroner Pohl threw open the doors of his office and read the verdict to the waiting throng.—Astorian, March 22. Young Cook is the lad who, in a playful mood, pointed a revolver at the servant girl at his home, pulled the trigger, instantly killing the young woman.

Martha Kinnaird, aged 71 years and the mother of D. W. Kinnaird, of this city, died at her home on East Eighth street, Portland, at 10 a. m. Tuesday, March 22, 1904. Last Sunday Mrs. Kinnaird suffered a stroke of paralysis from which she did not recover, death resulting at the time indicated. The deceased was a native of Ireland and had resided in Oregon for about 15 years. Until about three years ago she lived at Oregon City where she has a host of friends.
The deceased is survived by three sons and one daughter as follows: D. W.
Kinnaird, of this city; Thos. J. Kinnaird, O. R. & N. Agent at Hood River; W. H.
Kinnaird, Portland and Miss Louise Kinnaird, Portland. Funeral services were conducted at the First Presbyterian church at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Rev. A. J. Montgomery, of Portland, and burial was had in the Masonic cemetery.

At the age of 79 years, 5 months and 14 days, Mrs. Julia A. Parker passed away at her home at Gladstone Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A remarkable coincidence of the death was that Mrs.
Parker was married just 60 years previously to a day, and at almost identically the same hour at which her death occurred. Her husband, Asa Parker, survives. The death was the result of a stroke of paralysis and diseases incident to old age. Mrs. Parker was a native of the Buckeye State, and with her husband came to Oregon 11 years ago. There are three living children—A. F. Parker, of three city, Rev. Gilman Parker, of Alabama, Cal., and Mrs. Rachel Fisher, of Demorest, Ga. Neither the daughter nor Mr. Gilman was present when she died. The funeral services were conducted at the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. J. H. Beaven, pastor of the Baptist church, of which she had been a consistent member for the past 35 years. Burial was had in Mountain View cemetery.

There is A Big Difference in

Sewing Machines

It is easy enough for a salesman to show a sewing machine and say: "That's a fine running machine." But, how is it after a year or so? That's when the quality of a machine shows.

WHITE'S MACHINES

will not only stand for one year, but for twenty-five years and even longer. This machine makes less noise, runs easier, has better finished woodwork than all other makes. It has all the latest improvements, is very simple to operate, and you don't pay any more than for other machines. Prices $35.00, $40.00 and $45.00. Other makes as low as $20.00. Needles for all machines.
