TOLD IN SIDEHEADS.

A BEAUTIFUL CLOCK.—Fred Hogg, of Parkplace, last week received direct from Switzerland a valuable Swiss cuckoo clock. The duty alone on the time-piece amounted to $17.

HAVE HALL OF THEIR OWN.—Abernethy Grange, which was recently organized with a membership of one hundred, has purchased the Herman B. Danchy property at Parkplace and will use the same for a hall.

TAKEN TO ARMY.—Lydia J. Shank, aged 40 years, of Canby, was adjudged insane Monday. She was taken to the asylum at Salem that night by Sheriff J. R. Shaver. The woman's insanity is the result of a protracted illness.

AN ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.—Rev. E. S. Hollinger, pastor of the First Congregational church, will tonight give a lecture at the church on the subject "In His Steps." The lecture will be illustrated by a series of sixty splendid stereopticon views.

WILL SING AT CHAMFORD.—The Macca-bee Quartet, of this city, has accepted an invitation and will sing at the anniversary exercises that will be held at Cham-ford on May 2, in celebration of the estab-lishing of the first provincial govern-ment in this state.

WILL WED THE 25TH.—Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Jennie B. Bestie, of Oregon City, to Hon. L. T. Harris, of Eugene. The wedding will take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cooke in this city, Thursday, April 28.

WILL FORM ROOSEVELT CLUB.—Members-hip lists and other stationery neces-sary to forming a Roosevelt Club in this city have been received in this city. Steps will be taken soon to form the Club which will be associated with the League of Roosevelt Clubs throughout the coun-try.

BARCLAY WINS FIRST GAME.—There will again this year be considerable ri-valry between the Eastern and Barclay schools in the way of athletics. Both schools have a baseball team and the initial game was played last Friday af-ternoon. The game resulted in a victory for the Barclay school, the score being 12 to 5.

WILL WED SOON.—The engagement of Miss Laura Conyers daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Conyers, of Clatskanie, Clatsop county, to Mr. Wm. F. Meyers, has been announced. The wedding was originally fixed for April 27, but because of the illness of Miss Conyers, who is sick with pneumonia, the wedding has been indefinitely postponed.

DECKHAND LOST FINGER.—A deckhand named Mione, employed on the Willam-ette river steamer, the Elmore, received a painful injury to the middle finger on the right hand, Tuesday morning. He was assisting in operating the locks when a passing pedestrian ran into him and his finger was caught in the cog and ground off at the second joint.

ADDRESSED WOMEN'S CLUB.—Mrs. H. B. Trumbull, of Portland, was the guest of the Oregon City Women's Club last Thursday afternoon and delivered an ad-dress on "Character Building." The talk was highly appreciated by the mem-bers of the local club who attended the meeting in large numbers. After the address, the ladies served refreshments.

CONDUCT IS EXEMPLARY.—"It has been three months since there has been an oc-cupant of the Clackamas county jail," said Chief of Police Burns the other day. This is a record-breaker for this city which is, however, as a rule a quiet and peaceful place. The same state of af-fairs has existed at the city jail, which has but seldom accommodated persons other than hoboes for many weeks.

GAROLINE WILL BURN.—In response to a fire alarm, the Oregon City volunteer fire fighters hurried to the cigar store of Sam Oldstein last Saturday evening but all danger of a conflagration had been done away with before the department arrived. Mr. Oldstein, in attempting to re-fill a gasoline lamp, started a fire, but the blaze was promptly extinguished be-fore any particular damage had resulted.

DIED IN PORTLAND.—Louise, the 17-years old daughter of Mrs. Laura Phil-lips, died in Portland Sunday, April 17, of quick consumption. The deceased was the grand-daughter of S. M. Bacon. The remains were brought to this city Monday morning and funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist church by Rev. J. H. Beaven Monday afternoon. Burial was had in Mountain View cemetery.

WANTS HER SHARE.—Myrtle L. Brown has brought a suit in the Clackamas county circuit court against Geo. Brown to secure a division of their prop-erty interests. The Browns were di-voiced in Portland several weeks ago and the decree of the court provided that the woman should receive a one-third interest to all the real property, which consisted of about 140 acres of land in Clackamas county.

SALMON NOT PLENTIFUL.—The open season for salmon fishing began on the 15th inst., but because of the high water local fishermen report little success. On account of the drift wood in the Willam-ette and Clackamas rivers it was impos-sible to employ nets with satisfactory results. It is also reported by fisher-men that there seems to be a scarcity of salmon this year, and in this relation the same reports are made from all points on the lower river.

PLEASANT DANCING PARTY.—Probably the most enjoyable dancing party of the season was that given at the Armory hall last Friday evening by Clackamas Chapter Royal Arcanum. About sixty couples attended the party which was not a success from a financial view-point. The hall was attractively decorated, the cory corner and punch booth being especially noticeable. Everett's orchestra of Portland, furnished the music and the party did not terminate until after mid-night.

WARNER GRANGE TO MEET.—Warner Grange No. 117, Patrons of Husbandry, will hold its regular meeting at New Era Saturday. There is considerable busi-ness to be transacted. The order of en-tertainment will be somewhat reversed at this meeting. The men will provide the dinner and they declare that they will show the women folks how to get up a good meal. It is the opinion of the re-porter, who at one time partook of a din-ner prepared by the ladies of Warner Grange, that the men will take second money.

PARENTS WERE ALARMED.—Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, who reside near the Southern Pacific railroad bridge across the Clackamas river just below Oregon City, were greatly frightened the other day by the strange disappearance of their five-year-old son, Creighton Fitz-gerald. The lad disappeared early in the forenoon and the parents suspected that he had fallen through the railroad bridge and into the Clackamas river. Sheriff Shaver and Chief of Police Burns were notified of the missing boy who returned home in the evening greatly to the relief of his relatives and quite un-mindful of the worry he had caused them. He had been spending the day at a neighbor's.

ODD FELLOWS WILL CELEBRATE.—Sod-ay evening Rev. E. S. Hollinger, pastor of the First Congregational church, will conduct services in celebration of the 85th anniversary of the institution of Odd Fellowship. The members of the lodge in this city and also the Rebekahs will attend the service in a body. The anniversary that will be celebrated at this time does not really come until the 26th inst and at that time Judge T. F. Ryan and Grant B. Dimick will go to Needy to assist the local lodge celebrate the day. On the same evening, Mrs. Claud Gatch, of Salem, Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of the Order of East-ern Star, will pay the members of Pio-neer Chapter of this city, an official visit.

RAPP WRESTLES AGAIN.—J. E. Rapp, of New York, and recently of Oregon City, last Saturday night won from Deacon Smith, of Vancouver, in a wrestling match at La Camas, Wash. It was a free-for-all catch-as-catch-can contest, and was refereed by a La Camas man. Rapp gained the first fall over his op-ponent in four minutes. It required just seven minutes for the New York lad to deposit Smith on the mat, scoring the second fall and winning the match. It was stipulated that the winner should take the gate receipts, which amounted to $125. Rapp weighed 128 pounds while Smith weighed 139 pounds. Rapp has accepted a challenge from the champion light-weight wrestler of Montana for a purse of $500.

ALL THREE MADE GOOD.—E. Calif, Ed Rapp and Ward Lee, all of Oregon City, successfully made the try-out on the Salem baseball team in the Oregon State League and have been assigned to places on the team. The Salem aggre-gation now numbers fifteen men and these will be carried until June 1 when by the terms of the league the team must be reduced to eleven men for the remain-der of the season. Calif will be carried as one of the five pitchers, Lee has been assigned to his favorite position at left field and Rapp will look after the center field position. The other men on the Capital City team are as strong in their respective positions as are these three Oregon City lads, then Salem must have a strong team.

FOR DECORATION DAY.—At the regular meeting of Meade Post No. 10 G. A. R. last Saturday, arrangements were made preliminary to the proper observance of Memorial Day in this city. Comrades Harding, Dauchy, Ingram, McCarver and Dorener were constituted a commit-tee on general arrangements. Captain Jap Slover, as usual, was assigned as superintendent of the cemetery and that gentleman will direct visitors to the cemetery and assist them in locating the graves of departed friends. At the meet-ing of the Post Saturday a resolution was also adopted indorsing the move to or-ganize a military company in this city and assuring the state of the support of the local Grand Army if such an organiza-tion is established at Oregon City.

WERE MARRIED SUNDAY.—A quiet home wedding was celebrated in this city at high noon Sunday, April 17, 1904, when Dee Wright, of Meadowbrook mar-ried Miss Cora A. Ross, of Drain, South-ern Oregon. The ceremony was per-formed at the residence of the groom's mother, Mrs. A. Nelson, by Rev. R. C. Ramsby in the presence of only the im-mediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few friends. The bride is an estimable young woman of Drain while the groom is known to all parts of Clackamas county as an aggressive and successful young farmer. Mr. and Mrs. Wright will begin housekeeping on the farm of the groom's at Meadowbrook, carrying with them the very best wishes for much happiness and prosperity.

IN THE ARGONAUT.—Among the not-able features of the Argonaut for April 15th will be "From Generation to Gen-eration," a remarkably strong Indian story by Marguerite Stabler; a Tokio letter from Helen Hyde, who writes most interestingly of present conditions in Japan; "The Humorists of Congress," an article containing extracts from some of the humorous speeches made during the present session, and describing some amusing incidents that have occurred; a New York letter giving a vivid sketch of Judge Alton B. Parker; a London letter of which the late Duke of Cambridge is the subject; and criticisms of Mrs. Fiske in "The Doll's House," at the Grand Opera House, and Mme. Schumann-Heink, at the Alhambra by Josephine Hart Phelps.

SAVE TWO FROM DEATH.—"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bron-chitis," writes Mr. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Des-perate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for coughs and colds. 50c and $1 bottles guaran-teed by Charman & Co. Trial bottles free.

WANTED A PAIR OF PANTS.—Mike Finn, a young farmer residing near High-land, this county, was detected Tuesday afternoon in the act of purloining a pair of trousers from the store of Adams Bros., in this city. With the stolen goods still in his possession, the lad was seized by one of the proprietors and held until an officer arrived. He was after-wards taken before Justice Stipp, who suspended sentence pending the good behavior of the prisoner. Finn has been guilty of similar offenses before and was only let off after making some strong promises.

WAS LEAP YEAR AFFAIR.—The mem-bers of Oregon City Assembly No. 7 held an enjoyable social session last Thursday evening. It was a sort of a leap year affair the following named ladies having charge of the programme: Miss Lena Curran, Miss Grace Edwards, Mrs. Doty, Mrs. G. W. Church and Mrs. Doolittle. In the proper observance of the season the task of preparing lunch devolved on the gentlemen. In arranging this part of the programme Max Bollaack as chief bottle washer, was assisted by J. R. Shaver, G. W. Church, R. J. Goodfellow and W. J. Gemmel.

WILL GIVE LEAP YEAR PARTY.—"Die Lustigen Maedchen" is the name of a club that was recently formed among some of the young ladies of Oregon City. Being translated, the term means "The Merry Maidens." The membership in-cludes Misses Pope, Pratt, Marjorie Can-field, Lewistwaite, Draper and Miss Can-field. Invitations have been issued by the Club for a dance that will be given at the Armory in this city Friday evening, April 23. The invitations have been addressed to the young ladies of the city and the party will be strictly a leap year affair. Everett's orchestra has been en-gaged and a very pleasant time is in pros-pect. The patrons will be: Messrs. C. G. Huntley, J. E. Hedges, L. L. Fickens, F. T. Griffith, E. A. Sommer, and C. D. Latourette.

SOCIALISTS HAVE A CONVERT.—The So-cialist party has acquired one convert in Yamhill county according to a letter re-ceived this week by Sheriff Shaver from a resident of Dayton. The communication follows: "Enclosed find check for $8.18 in payment of balance of taxes. I overlooked this matter for ten days and had to pay $1.42 for the oversight. In my estimation both interest and penalty is highway robbery under another name. But as 'wars and rumors of wars' are the forerunners of the Millennium, I take comfort in the fact that the grafting policies of the twins—the Republican and Democratic parties—are the forerunners of the Socialist party which is fast gaining ground; and for which I shall work with might and main for the rest of my life and thank God there are thousands of others in the same boat." While the fact is of little consequence, Sheriff Shaver says the indignant tax-payer unnecessarily imposed on himself in remitting interest and penalty charges at this time for the reason that having paid one-half of his tax assessment in March, the man has until the first Mon-day in October in which to pay the re-maining one-half without costs being added. The amount that was remitted for interest and costs will be returned to the Yamhiller, together with a receipt in full for his taxes.

WAS PROMINENT IN STATE.—L. T. Barin, an attorney of Portland, died sud-denly Monday morning aged 62 years. The deceased was at one time a prom-inent figure in the politics of this state. He resided at Oregon City for a time where he served as register of the United States Land Office. He was also chair-man of the Republican state committee. Burial took place at Portland. The fol-lowing biographical sketch of the de-ceased was published in Tuesday's Ore-gonian: "Louis T. Barin was born in Providence, R. I., March 14, 1842, and after being educated in the public schools in Providence, R. I., and Boston, Mass., he went to New York City, sailed for the Isthmus of Panama and made his way to San Francisco. Here he followed clerking, mining and the livestock business until 1862, when he enlisted in Company E, First Regiment Oregon Cavalry. After two years' service he was appointed First Sergeant and held that position for over one year until honorably dis-charged. He was next on scout duty, skirmished against the Indians through-out the Northwest, and received an hon-orable discharge at Vancouver, Wash., August 31, 1865. On going to Oregon City he settled on United States govern-ment land in that vicinity. In 1869 he took up his residence in Oregon City and began to study law, and was admitted to the bar by the supreme court of Oregon in 1872. The same year he was elected by the Republican party a member of the House of Representatives from Clackamas county. Two years later he was elected prosecuting attorney, and was re-elected to that office in 1875. During 1876 and 1877 Mr. Barin was mayor of Oregon City, and in 1878 was appointed register of the United States Land Office, filling this position until 1880, when he was elected a member of the State Senate. While holding this office he was a member of many impor-tant committees, being chairman of the judiciary committee, and did great ser-vice for the fish interests of Oregon as chairman of that committee. For years he had been prominent in politics, and in the convention of 1888 was elected chairman of the State Central Commit-tee. His worth was recognized by the presentation of a solid silver service from the Republican electors of Multnomah county. In 1890 Mr. Barin was appoint-ed United States marshal, and in later years he has been engaged in the active practice of his law business. His law office was in the Coambers of Commerce. Mr. Barin was also a farmer and gave special attention to the breeding of high-grade horses and cattle, which was his favorite recreation, and he was a prom-inent member of the Portland Whist Club.
