

DROPSY

De Your Ankles or Limbs Swell? Are Your Eyes Puffy? We are the Sole Agents for the Only Thing Known That Cures the Kidney Diseases That Cause Dropsy, viz.: Fulton Compound.

It is now well known that dropsy is not a local disease, but is nearly always a symptom of kidney disease that accompanies the chronic stages heretofore incurable. Hence, by the discovery of the Fulton Compound, Dropsy was curable. It is now, however, curable in nearly all cases.

Mrs. Peter Gerhart of 288 Fillmore street, San Francisco, became alarmingly dropsical. Her physician had finally to tap her every few days. She was tapped nearly forty times and grew worse from day to day.

Mrs. Thomas Ortolan of 227 Twenty-seventh street, San Francisco, was also swollen with dropsy as the result of chronic kidney disease to more than seventy-five pounds beyond her normal weight.

If you have dropsy don't temporize. There is only one thing known that will cure the chronic kidney disease that is behind it and that is Fulton's Compound.

Loucks, Room 11, 285 1-2 Washington St., Portland, Oregon. ROUND TRIP $1.00.

ADDITIONAL EDITORIAL. SECRETARY AND COMMISSIONER.

What the Oregonian said yesterday about Secretary Hitchcock has long been known. His earnestness and integrity are not doubted. He gives most laborious attention to the enormous business of his great office. But he suspects every one who attempts to exercise his lawful right to obtain public lands of being a swindler or a thief. Here was the basis of his difference with Commissioner Hermann. For Commissioner Hermann did not interpret the laws, nor undertake to administer it, on that principle. The laws under which public lands may be acquired by the citizen have many features, all designed for the purpose of enabling the applicant, if entitled, to obtain the land he desires. The laws were made expressly for the purpose of giving the lands away, or of enabling the citizen to buy them at low or moderate prices. Mr. Hermann did not think it his duty to "turn down" applicants lawfully entitled. But the secretary insisted on "holding up" the entries. Great numbers of our best known citizens who have applied for lands are in this class of suspects. The basis of difference between the secretary and the commissioner was here. The secretary ordered entries to be suspended that the commissioner knew were proper, and, as might be supposed, with not a few of those which the commissioner had passed, knowing them to be proper, the secretary was displeased, and ordered them revoked. These things will all be adjusted shortly, but hardly while the present secretary remains in office. His suspension of entries had called attention to the land office all along the line; newspaper correspondents telegraphed to all parts of the country that the secretary was saving the public lands from spoliation, and the president could not make an issue with the secretary without forcing him out of office. But this could not then be done, because it would have been asserted that the land office had been thrown open to the plunderers at last. These and other matters cannot now be adjusted, nor till after the election. But, as the Oregonian has said heretofore, it is not supposed that this secretary will be continued in office after the present term—Monday's Oregonian.

This is just the trouble. A great many voters in the First district, knowing that there was friction between Secretary Hitchcock and ex-Commissioner Hermann, have been disposed to place the blame entirely with Mr. Hermann, but the events of the last few months seem to indicate that Mr. Hermann was more nearly in the right than was the secretary. The Democrats and the opposition to Mr. Hermann have been making the most out of this. But it is a fact, not to be disputed, that during all of his public life Hermann has done everything he could for the state. Oregon never fared better than during Mr. Hermann's service in congress. His worth to the district at this time entitles him to the vote of every man in the district who has faith in the growth and development of this section of the state. Clackamas county Republicans are actively at work in the interest of Mr. Hermann, who will carry the county in June.

"GIVE US A CHANCE."

Turn the Republicans out and give us a chance. That is the burden of the argument that is being advanced by the Democrats as a reason why their ticket should be elected at this time. But why should there be a change? The present Republican officers have demonstrated their ability to conduct the county at a minimum expense and materially reduce the county's obligations. Then why should a change be made—that the Democrats may appropriate the credit to themselves for bringing about the relieved condition of affairs in the county? The present officers have inaugurated the good work with good results, and it is certainly but right that they should be given another term in which further to pursue their policies. In fact, provided no contingency arises, by careful management, the present officers will be able to perhaps entirely eliminate the indebtedness of the county during the next two years. We give the voters of Clackamas county credit for more intelligence and business judgment than at this time to fail to reward the faithful services of the Republicans by refusing to retain them for another term and substituting therefor a Democratic administration and the uncertainty that always attends such a change in local and county as well as in national affairs. The best interests of the county can be best served, particularly at this time, by the election of the entire Republican ticket. Every citizen of the county who appreciates good government can conscientiously support the Republican ticket from top to bottom.

MORE UNFOUNDED CHARGES. ANOTHER MIS-STATEMENT.

The dirty ring taken last week by the Courier at members of the last session of the legislature plainly shows how hard up the Democrats are for campaign thunder. The statement "that the Republican members were good enough men as neighbors go, but wants to know if any one ever heard of any vigorous and effective protest being raised against the appropriations that have so greatly increased our burden of taxation?" The Courier might have added, if it cared to be honest, that three out of the four members from this county did protest with their vote against the large appropriation of $500,000 for the Lewis and Clark Fair, and all four members voted against the Portage Road appropriation of $155,000. In fact C. G. Huntley, of this city, was a member of the committee to which was referred the latter bill, and it was due entirely to his protest in the committee-room that the bill was finally referred back without recommendation, although on that committee there were three members who worked untiringly for the measure; but rather than have a minority report against the bill, as there would have been, they consented to report the bill without recommendation. This at least shows something of a vigorous protest. Every member from Clackamas county voted to repeal the scalp bounty law—a saving to the state of thousands of dollars. It might also be mentioned in this connection that Mr. Huntley was a member of the committee that reported favorably and succeeded in passing the corporation and inheritance tax laws, which are now adding $100,000 per year to the state treasury, and adding it not out of the pockets of the farmers and the laborers, but out of the pockets of the corporations which can well afford this special tax. It is also a well-known fact that Mr. Huntley voted and worked against employing an excessive number of clerks. For all this the members from Clackamas county in the last legislature are deserving of credit, but the Courier, as in every other way, is carrying on a campaign of insinuation without the slightest thought or attempt to substantiate their claim. We believe that every unprejudiced person will admit that to give up 40 days to the state legislature was and is a personal sacrifice on the part of a business man, and when Mr. Huntley did this it was because of a desire to do his duty as he saw it. The charge of the Courier against the members of the legislature from this county naturally falls upon Mr. Huntley, as the only member up for reelection, and this seems rather flat in the face of such honest and conscientious work as was rendered by him in the recent session.

While the local editor of the Enterprise is not touring the county on a speech-making expedition in the interests of the Republican candidates, who require the services of no one to espouse their candidacy at this time, still the Courier did us an injustice in its last week's issue. In reporting the opening of the Democratic campaign at Molalla, that paper says, among other things: "He (Chairman Eby) showed that figures produced by the opposition were not correct, and gave its representative present a chance to explain, which chance was not taken." This is an absolute misstatement. The representative of this paper was not given any opportunity to reply. And again by insinuation that paper gives out the impression that the statements of Mr. Eby were not only unanswerable, but were not replied to when an invitation was given. The fact of the matter is that every statement as regards county affairs and the administration of the different departments by the present officers that has appeared in the Enterprise is absolutely correct and is substantiated by the records and reports at the court house. It is from these very same records that the Democrats have made their distorted deductions.

We have heard a great deal of late concerning the administration of Judge White. Reference to the conditions under which the county's business was conducted at that time does not show a sufficiently wonderful state of affairs to justify the frequent reference by the Democrats to that time. Invariably during Judge White's administration we find that the levy for county purposes, on an assessment that was considered ample at the time, was from 15 to 16 mills for county purposes alone. For instance, in 1889 the levy was as follows: County 15, state 6, school 5. Compare these if you please with the levy of 1903: County 6, state 5, school 5 1/2, road tax 1/2. The complaint is being made that the present administration during the last year has expended no money in the building and improvement of roads and bridges. This contention is not supported by the facts in the case. During the year 1903, Clackamas county expended on this account $21,000, or more than was spent in the entire eight years of Judge White's administration. "If the taxpayers of Clackamas county will allow me to make the same levy for but a single year that was made during the administration of Judge White," said County Judge Ryan this week, "I will agree not only to meet all of the current expenses of the county, but will also wipe out all of the indebtedness of the county in one year."

It Will Be to Your Interest. If you contemplate visiting the St. Louis Exposition, to secure reliable information as to railroad service, the lowest rates and the best routes. Also as to local conditions in St. Louis; hotels, etc., etc.

By exaggerating the high tax situation, charging the Republicans with misrepresenting figures, and appealing to the independent voter, the Democrats of Clackamas county hope to land one or two of their candidates in office at the June election. But with such allegations, and none of them substantiated by actual facts or conditions, theirs must be a hopeless cause.
