TERSILY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Annual School Election.—The annual election of the Oregon City school district for a school director to succeed Dr. W. E. Carl will be held June 20. Dr. Carl, who is the present chairman of the board, does not expect to be a candidate for re-election, although many of his friends desire his retention on the board.

Cascara Bark Sales.—There is considerable activity in the local market for cascara bark. Huntley Bros., a local firm, have in the last few days purchased 750 pounds, for which 5 cents was paid. The harvesting of this year's crop has just begun, but the product has not yet sufficiently cured for the market. Local dealers are paying the same price that can be obtained at larger points.

Locals Won Sunday Game.—The Oregon City Colts were successful in the game with the Oswego Ironworkers Sunday afternoon at Canemah park, defeating the visitors by the score of 7 to 5. Long and Jamieson, the battery for the home team, did effective work and had good support from the entire team. The Oswego lads made many errors, which shut them out of any chance to win the game.

Party at Mr. Ginter's.—An interesting party is reported to have been given at the home of Mr. Ernest Ginter in the Beaver Creek neighborhood last Sunday night. These present were Misses Amanda Doecher, Amanda Kiebs, Louise and Anna Steiner, Theresa Staben, Lizzie and Vina Moschke, Ilsebe Plum, Nora, Millie and Hazel Ginter, Messrs Ernest Hansen, Herman, Henry and John Moschke, Henry and Raymond Ginter.

Will Address Institute.—Superintendent J. C. Zinner will address the western division of the Oregon State Teachers' association at Portland Tuesday, June 28, on the subject, "Financing an Institute." Miss Kate Curie, of Milwaukee, will also deliver an address on the subject, "The Purpose of the Study in the Second Grade." Miss Porter, of this city, is also included among those who will participate in the discussions. The association is in session from June 28 to July 1.

Cuts Early Clover.—George H. Brown, a prominent farmer of New Era, has already harvested the first crop of clover from his large field, and has the provender in cocks in the field, already cured and ready to haul into his barn. The clover is of excellent quality and is of good length. The cutting was done just as the blossoms opened. This is considered remarkably early for clover hay, and another fine crop can be secured from the same field this season.

Committed to Asylum.—H. M. Boggess, aged 63 years, was taken to the state insane asylum at Salem last year for a year, after a resident of New Era, where he was entirely associated with the Spiritualists. Several weeks ago he was arrested on an insanity charge, and after an examination in this city he was discharged, when he went to San Francisco, where he created considerable excitement because of his eccentricities. While in California Boggess represented that he had abandoned his Spiritualist theories and was posing as a Holy Roller, the original member of that faith in Clackamas county. Returning to Oregon a few weeks ago, Boggess located at Belford, but his mental condition became such his commitment was considered necessary.

Scientist Rooms Desecrated.—Some miscreant seems possessed of the idea that the Christian Scientists of Oregon City should not have the right of freedom of religious worship and has inaugurated against that sect an annoying program. Last Saturday night some unknown culprit entered the Garde building, in which are located the Scientists' lecture rooms, and painted in an orange-colored mixture this inscription on the door: "Big 2, Holy Roller, Sun Worshipers, Christian Science." Beneath the wording in the same colored paint is an attempted drawing of a skull and cross bones. In compounding the mixture the culprit employed certain chemicals that are productive of an odor decidedly unpleasant. A few weeks ago some unknown person entered the same building and broke into pieces the door to the chapel occupied by the Scientists. The members of the Scientist congregation decline to discuss the matter and pay not the slightest attention to the work of their tormentors. It is known, however, that the Scientists claim to have well-founded suspicions as to the guilty party, and these suspicions involve a tenant of the same building.

General Crop Summary.—The past week has not been altogether favorable for the growing crops, the days were warmer than usual, but the nights were cool and several frosts occurred, but the damage done by them was slight and confined principally to tender vegetables, such as beans, tomatoes, etc. Some fruit however, was killed in the Grande Ronde valley, and a few other localities east of the Cascade mountains. The rains early Tuesday morning occurred after the following reports were made. They were not only timely, but well distributed, and give promise of continuing for another day or so, in which case they will be sufficient for all needs and greatly stimulate the growth of late crops. Late wheat is coming up to poor stands, and corn, potatoes and gardens are growing slowly. Forage crops, except timothy, are doing well, and the first crop of alfalfa is being harvested with satisfactory yields. Stock everywhere is in excellent condition. Fall wheat, barley and rye are heading nicely, and these crops are generally in a very promising condition, notwithstanding that some lowland wheat in Umatilla county was badly damaged by freezing weather earlier in the season. Hops are growing nicely and the hop men have now caught up with their work so that the yards generally are well cultivated. Strawberries are ripe, and home grown berries will be plentiful in the markets during the week. Apples have set well. Prunes will be light, but peaches, pears and cherries are turning out better than expected earlier in the season.

Sent to Asylum.—Henry Ott, aged 17 years, of Bunsbyde, was committed to the state insane asylum at Salem Tuesday. The unfortunate young man has been an imbecile from his birth. He was taken to Salem by Deputy Sheriff Nehren.

To Fish in Alaska.—C. R. Kelly, J. Baxter, T. McGettich and W. Aibee left Tuesday night for Wrangell, Alaska, where they will perform a fishing contract for the F. C. Barnes Cannery and Packing company. These young men have been fishing in the vicinity of Oregon City this season, and report that the run of salmon has been very small, while the catch has consisted principally of small fish. They expect better success fishing in Alaskan waters.

Officers Elected.—At the annual meeting of the Oregon State Grange held at Corvallis last week, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: R. G. Leedy, master; Jacob Clem, overseer; Mrs. Wadde, lecturer; Mr. Shaw, steward; Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Young, assistant stewards; Oliver Eaton, chaplain; Mr. Hershberg, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Howard, secretary; Mr. Warfield, patchkeeper; Mrs. Boyd, Ceres; Mrs. Craswell, Pomona; Mrs. West, Flora; Austin Huxton, executive committee; Mr. Vorhees and Mr. Hilberry, legislative committee.

Oregon City Won Again.—Those Oregon City Colts are becoming rather difficult to handle. After defeating the Oswego nine Sunday afternoon they went up against the Eighth Battery team from Vancouver at the Canemah Park grounds Monday afternoon and shut out the visitors to the tune of 7 to 0. Letto and Jamieson constituted the battery for the local team and did good work, Letto pinning the soldiers with his mysterious curves. The other members of the home team played an almost errorless game, while the Vancouver aggregation was badly disorganized and made numerous errors. There was a large attendance at the game, which was pronounced among the best ever seen at Canemah park. Since the boys are really playing good ball they are deserving of good crowds and Oregon City people who enjoy this sort of sport will not be disappointed if they attend.

Brownell at Grants Pass.—Hon. Geo. C. Brownell, of Oregon City, spoke at the opera house on Tuesday evening in behalf of Ringer Hermann, Republican candidate for congressman. Mr. Brownell is one of the foremost politicians of the state and a very able speaker. The attendance was not large. The Demaree orchestra gave several enjoyable numbers, after which Mr. Brownell was introduced by Hon. Geo. C. Colvig. Mr. Brownell is a very fluent and easy speaker, with a good voice and a pleasing delivery. The principal theme of his address was the tariff, to which he attributed the prosperity which he stated was always associated with Republican rule. He was gentle in his attitude toward the Democrats and refrained from using any harsh terms, saying that they were mistaken in their views. In conclusion, he urged the voters to support Ringer Hermann, whether they liked him or not, as his experience and knowledge make him the most valuable man for the place that could be selected. He gave a glowing tribute to President Roosevelt and predicted his re-election next fall by the biggest majority ever given to any presidential candidate.—Grants Pass Courier.

HONORED SOLDIER DEAD.

Appropriate Exercises Held at Oregon City—Graves Decorated.
Fitting honor was paid the soldier dead of the nation at Oregon City Monday, Decoration Day, by the surviving members of the Grand Army of the Republic, whose ranks are being greatly thinned with each succeeding anniversary. Flowers were perhaps never more plentiful, nor were they ever more lavishly used for the decoration of graves than were they this year. In both the Mountain View and Catholic cemeteries the silent sepulchres of departed ones had been transformed into beds of flowers. The decorations were both beautiful and extensive.

The members of the Grand Army Post and their faithful auxiliaries, the Women's Relief Corps, were active early. School children in countless numbers also participated in the day's exercises. After striding flowers in the Willamette river from the suspension bridge in honor of the sailor dead, the procession marched to Shively's opera house, where the main exercises were held. Dr. W. F. Carl was officer of the day. The other members of the staff participating in the exercises were: C. H. Dauchy, grand marshal; Lieut. J. W. Burks, chief of staff; aids, John Heurth, C. E. Burns, Jr., Harvey Hickman and F. L. McFarland; bugler, Frank E. McArthur, Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R.; Commander, J. Doremus; adjutant, C. A. Williams; officer of the day, Dan Calkins; general committee, G. A. Harding, L. W. Ingram, C. A. Williams, C. H. Dauchy and J. A. Tufts. Meade Relief Corps No. 18; President, Mrs. Margaret Williams; secretary, Mrs. Mary L. Bradley; committee, Mrs. Pauline Schwartz, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Mary A. Ingram and Mrs. Henrietta Doremus.

At the opera house the oration of the day was delivered by Rev. E. S. Bollinger, pastor of the First Congregational church. He discussed the greatness of the American nation and briefly reviewed its marvelous growth and accomplishments. The scarlet in the stars and stripes, said he, is symbolic of the continuous successful struggle of the American people that was initiated by the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock and culminating in the engagement at San Juan Hill. The scarlet represents all that is pure and good in civilization and nothing but the consecrated blood of heroes in the past. The stars radiate the glory of our country, while the white stands for the purity of the lives that have been sacrificed. Reference was made to the high and noble purpose for which the lives of soldiers were sacrificed, and this the speaker urged was the true ballast with which the ship of state is made secure. This ballast can be best retained by instilling in the youth of the land a true appreciation of the sacrifice that was made and the trust that has been committed into them. A continued realization of true manhood and true womanhood, concluded the speaker, can only be had when the American people have in their natures that which consecrates the memory of the noble dead and the principles for which they fought. The program at the opera house was as follows:

- Musical selection—Band.
- Remarks—President of the Day.
- General Orders—Adjutant.
- Address (Ritual)—Post Commander.
- Vocal solo, selected—Miss Imogen Harding.
- Recitation—Miss Gertrude Oswald.
- Oration—Rev. E. S. Bollinger.
- Song, "America"—Audience.
- Reading—Miss Dorothy Cross.
- Tape—Miss Imogen Harding.

At the cemetery the usual ritualistic exercises were carried out, including an eloquent eulogy to the "Unknown Dead" by the Rev. P. K. Hamond.

Mr. Aschoff Congratulated.

Editor Enterprise:—Since the department has appointed Adolph Aschoff forest supervisor over the heads of the entire Oregon delegation, please allow me and others of his many Clackamas county friends to publicly congratulate him. The merited honors, which have long been due, but yet unthought by him, are now being bestowed. He is qualified in every respect for the position. He is not a schemer, but a man who would say, Judge me by my works; give me what I am worth. The department has so judged him, and has certainly made no mistake in the matter. I do not admire Roosevelt as some do, but if he favors the merit system, as reported in this case, he is so far commendable.

CITIZEN.

A Correction.
To the Enterprise:—Kindly allow me space to correct a misinformation concerning Mr. Zinner, the Republican nominee for school superintendent. Some good Republican has informed Mr. Zinner that in my Barlow speech I stated that the present superintendent had violated school law, I emphatically deny any such report, and only wish to add, in all justice to Mr. Zinner, that personally, I esteem him very highly, though differing politically.

Socialist nominee for school superintendent.

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not been sick a day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney Troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50c at Charman & Co., druggists.
