There was an indignant gang of Italian laborers, numbering 25, in this city Wednesday night. These men had paid their fees to a Portland employment agency and had been shipped to this city on the representation that there was awaiting them a job on the construction work at the paper mills with pay at $2 per day. Arrived here, the foreman of the gang made application at the mill and learned that the promised work could not be provided for another two weeks. A part of the force was offered night work, but the offer was rejected, as the men were given to understand by the Portland employment agent that the job would consist of day work. Mark Dyer, foreman of the gang, was spokesman for his fellow men and declared that they would compel the Portland agent to reimburse them for all expenses, aggregating $300, or institute an action against him for obtaining money under false pretenses. The dissatisfied men returned to Portland on the last car Wednesday night, where they will seek to get satisfaction.

Court Robin Hood, Foresters of America, will hold an installation of officers. George R. Peck, the railway attorney, was once in South Dakota arguing a case before the Federal court. After making his argument, he walked to the hotel with a judge of the court, who highly complimented his effort. Peck was delighted, and confided to a friend that he knew, on account of the judge's manner, he would win the case. His friend was not so sanguine—he knew the judge. In support of his pessimistic view, he told this story: "Once there was a lion tamer whose duty it was to go into the cage and put his head in a big lion's mouth twice a day. One day, after he had gotten his head in the animal's mouth, he asked the keeper in a low voice, 'Is the lion wagging his tail?' 'He is,' replied the keeper. 'Then I'm gone,' said the tamer, and the next moment the lion closed his jaws and killed the tamer." It was both a story and a prophecy. Mr. Peck lost his case.

WHAT THIS MAN SAYS.

Only Re-echoes the Sentiments of Thousands in Our Republic.

The Oregon City reader is asked to thoroughly investigate the following. This can readily be done, for the gentleman whose statement is published below will only be too pleased to answer any communication mailed to him if the writer really suffers from the annoying consequence which always attends inactive or weakened kidneys.

A. L. Maney, gripman on the Portland Heights cable line, residing at 554 Elm Street, Portland, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills disposed of an acute attack of backache in a very short time. Last fall I was operating on one of the electric lines and it was then that I first felt the symptoms of kidney complaint. At first I thought it was caused by the constant jarring of the car, and perhaps it was, but I know that one box of Doan's Kidney Pills effectually cured me of my backache in a most radical manner. My advice to all who suffer from backache or kidney trouble is to procure Doan's Kidney Pills and give them a fair trial."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitably inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities.
