READY FOR OPENING

CHAUTAQUA WILL BE FORMALLY OPENED NEXT TUESDAY.

Grand Musical Event Scheduled for Wednesday Evening—Large Number of Campers on the Grounds.

All is in readiness for the opening of the Eleventh Annual Assembly of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association, which will be convened at Gladstone Park next Tuesday morning. There are more campers on the grounds already than ever before, and the indications are that the attendance this year will be the largest in the history of the Association. The program, as has been commented on, is the best that has ever prepared.

One of the principal musical events of the Chautauqua this year will be the concert Wednesday evening under the direction of Mrs. Walter Reed, of Portland. Miss Agnes Watt, who made such a pronounced hit at the operatic concert at the Empire Theater last spring, will sing, as will Miss Imogen Harding, of this city. Mr. N. C. Zan, baritone, of Portland, will appear twice on the program. Mrs. Walter Reed has promised two numbers with her double quartet from her Treble Clef Club. Prominent singers in this organization are Agnes Watt, Mrs. Louis McMahon, Mrs. Sanderson Reed, Miss Hilda Heggie, Mrs. Jordan Purvine, Miss Rita Hansen, Mrs. Ruth Hoyt and Mrs. Walter Reed. Miss Alice Juston, Miss Katharine Covach and Mrs. Walter Reed will sing a trio, "The Star of Love," by Bordess. A number of quartets will be sung by Miss Katharine Covach, Mrs. Walter Reed, Leon M. THE FOURTH AT HOME

DAY PASSED QUIETLY AT OREGON CITY.

Many Celebrations Held Throughout the County—Usual Number of Accidents.

It was a "sane" celebration at Oregon City Monday. That is to say, that in the absence of a formal celebration, the day was passed in as rational a manner by those who remained at home, as could be expected, and at the same time have an incessant firing of seasonal explosives by the younger generation. But the loyalty of Clackamas county people found expression at various other points throughout the county. Celebrations were held at Oswego, Milwaukie, Clarks, Canby, Wilsonville, Sandy, Maple Lane and Logan.

Probably the largest crowd attended the exercises at Canby. At Oswego, Mayor Grant B. Dimick delivered the oration, and there were other exercises, concluding with a grand ball at night. All of the farmers of the Clarks-Highland-Cotton neighborhoods, except those who were too busy gathering their hay crop, congregated at Clarks, where a genuine patriotic celebration was held. Mr. Larkins was chairman of the day, and the Declaration of Independence was read by Mrs. Ada Moehnk. Senator Brownell, of this city, delivered the oration. He advocated the need of less politics and more citizenship. The Maccabee quartette was in attendance and delighted the auditors with a number of its best selections. The exercises were held in the grove near the Grange hall. During the afternoon two games of base ball were played. Highland defeating Logan in a splendid game by the score of 4 to 2. Cotton also defeated Shubel, but the reporter left before the five innings were completed, so that the score cannot be given. Dancing at the hall at night ended a successful celebration.

COUNTY EXHIBITS AT ST. LOUIS

Lane County is Well Represented.—Oregon in 1905.

World's Fair Grounds, St. Louis, Mo., July 8.—Several Oregon counties have sent excellent advertising matter to be placed on display in the state exhibits at St. Louis, and the results they will obtain will be good. Too much cannot be said of the judicious publicity of county resources, for it will do more to secure new people for the state than any other form of advertisement.

Lane county and Eugene in particular have sent some fine pictures to the Oregon building, which will accomplish wonders for that particular section of the state. Baker county has a good pamphlet on distribution, while Yamhill has also sent some excellent reading matter that will doubtless be the means of increasing her population materially.

The pictures from Eugene are mounted on large mats and are hung in conspicuous places in the state building. They represent buildings, both business and residence, factories, farming and fruit growing scenes and in fact nearly every line of industry. A visitor can see at a glance just what he will be located with should he move to Lane county, much more than he can find out from reading matter.

How many people will move to Oregon on account of the state's display here in St. Louis is of course beyond estimation, but there will be great numbers. Many pass through the building every day with the announcement that they are coming to Oregon in 1905, and coming to stay.

Years of suffering relieved in a night. Itching piles yield at once to the curative properties of Doan's Ointment. Never fails. At any drug store, 50 cents.
