May Yet Have Militia Company. - The

bances for Oregon City for the organiz ng of a military company are looking etter since the maneuvers at American Lake, for the reason that General Mc-Arthur is said to have gone record as say ing that he did not favor cavalry companies and batteries beng enlisted in the state national guard unless the state was able to own and train the horses, says the Journal correspondent. He does not mean that he does not think the cavairy and battery are not efficient, but he thinks that they would be more efficient if the state owned and trained the horses, Should the cavalry company at Albany Wright for clearing and grading one mile of Riggs and Damm road: be mustered out Oregon City would have the best chance possible to organize the military company that was petitioned for last winter, as this city has the first petition before the military board of the state. In the matter of material for the company, it is said that Oregon City could organize one of the best companies points, of any city in the state, as there are again. Then there are some promising marksmen in town who would enlist. Shooting practice is to be encouraged to In the matter of the appointment of and is hereby instructed to employ great extent, and there is one well-known competent experts to examine and reshoot in any company. Each company in the state will have tryouts for marksmanship and a team will be selected from the best in the state to attend the national contest at Fort Riley. The marksmen who go to the national contest would have all expenses paid, and this fact would be In the matter of the contract with a strong factor in getting good marks-the Buffalo Pitts Co. for road roller: men to join the company.
