The Great Green Tag Sale Begins Saturday

If you'll visit our store during this sale you'll find hundreds and hundreds of articles marked with a green tag. A green tag on an article means that we are anxious to get rid of that particular article and that we are going to sell it at a price utterly regardless of cost or value. Not that there is anything wrong with the various articles on sale. But we have made it an invariable rule never to carry goods over from one season to another. Hence these extremely low prices on the very best of Summer merchandise.
