An Ovegon City bank cushler who is real mean trick on an unsuspecting friend one night this week. In the absence from the city of the cashier's wife, who is visiting in Portland, he has been spending the nights with relatives at Gladstone Park. The other night at this young man, who cashes only good checks, started for this suburb-some two and a half miles from the bank-he met an acquaintance to whom he proposed a walk before retiring for the night. The friend acquiesced and the two walked to Gladstone. As the bank representative reached the gate at his relative's home at East Gladstone, he stepped within the yard and to the great astonishment of his companion, said. "Well ----, I guess I will spend the night here; what are you "I shall take the middle of the read and walk back to Oregon City," responded the young man of Populistic inclinations, who is now lying awake nights scheming how he can get even.

William Swift was arrested here Tuesday by Chief of Police Burns on information brought here by Detective Weiner of Portland, who was looking for the man on a charge of larceny that was preferred against him in Senttle. An officer from Scattle was here and took charge of Swift, who was found working across the river for the Paper Mill company.

Monday, John Albright, of Canemah, found a strange row boat at the Canemah dock. The find was reported to Chief of Police Burns who learned that the boat which was named "Loma" was stolen at Salem by a tramp who added to his misdemeanors at Newberg by pur letning a value from the steamboat dock. The value is the property of W. S. Hogenson, 431, Queen Avenue, Scattle, trace of the thief has been found after he started from Canemah.

GORTON'S MINSTRELS.

An attractive feature of Gorton's Milestrels this season, are the specialties of Miss Cleone Penri-Fell, the brightest child actress in the specialty class. This dainty little entertainer has a very amusing monologue, perfectly suited to her talents and her dancing can be described as truly wonderful. As a monologuist, she possesses the rare faculty of being an excellent story teller, her witicisms asger falling to score with her audience. In her dancing she executes woth the most remarkable skill and precision all the intricate steps of closs buck and was dancing, besides a variety of other fanciful terpischorean divert-isements. She takes part also with Welby and Pearl in their comedy dancing sketch and is competent in every way to share in the responsibility of success with those of established reputations. Miss Pearl-Fell will be seen with Gorton's Minstrels on Friday night, September 28, at Shivley's Opera House Oregon City. Tickets will be on sale at

The Most Wonderful System of Athleties in the World.

More than 2,500 years ago there spearing into existence in Japan an order of Ettights who were known as the samural. To them was imparted all the learning, the polite breeding and the forms of superfority that mark the gentleman. They were skilled in arms and versed in the arts of war, for they were the emperor's fighting men, and none but they were allowed to bear

As there could not always be war on hand, and as it was considered beneath the dignity of the samural to go. into any ordinary callings, it came about naturally that these little knights found much idle time on their hands. Being men of war, they turned their attention to athletic feats.

One among the samural conceived the idea of learning by practice the location of every sensitive nerve and muscle in the body. After that he dis covered all the joints of the bones that could be seized in such a way as to give momentary power over the muscles of an adversary. He practiced with his fellow samurai, and thus by degrees was developed the most wonderful system of athletics known in the world.

The Japanese call this work jiu-jitsu. The deft pressures applied in the practice of flu-jitsu produce only momentary pain, but do not really injure the muscles or nerves. In all other things the Japanese are the most polite people in the world. So it follows that even in their fighting they have dealso one of the city officials, perpetrated veloped a humane yet effective method of self defense. They do not strike out with the clinched fist and seek to bruise, as do the Anglo Saxons in their boxing contests.

A knowledge of jlu-jitsu enables one almost instantly to convince his oppotent that it is useless to fight. There are now schools of jur-jitsu everywhere lu Japan. Every soldier, sailor and policeman is obliged to perfect himself and to take to the police station four sturdy sailors of a foreign Asiatic squadron.-St. Nicholas.

GIRL'S SECRET.

"Aunt Cassie came to visit us and she saw I was nervous, had the fidgets all the time, and she asked me many questions, time, and she asked me many questions, and finally said. 'Why, you dear, sweet girl, it's not your temper that's bad, it's your constitution that's out of kilter. You sit right down now and write a letter to Dr. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., tell him all your symptoms'—and so I did. It wasn't long before I had a long reply, carefully going over my case and telling me just what to do. I date my present happiness and little Cupid's return to the very day I sat down to write that letter to Dr. Pierce, for his advice was so good and his 'Favorite Frescription' worked such a complete change in me that now my former cheerfulness and good health—not to say anything of good looks—are restored to me. I have summoned Tom back to my side and we are to be married in june.'

Prolapsus, or Falling of the Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. It is natural that a woman who has been cured of womanly disease by "Favorite Prescription" should believe that it will cure others. It is natural too that she should recommend to other women the medicine which has cured her. It is such commendation which has made the name of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a household word for the past thirtyeight years. eight years.

Bismarck's Best Cigar. Unlike Napoleon, Bismarck was a hard smoker. He once told this story the family home. to illustrate his love of the weed:

"The value of a good cigar is best understood when it is the last you pos sess and there is no chance of getting another. At Koenlegenetz I had only one cigar left in my pocket, which I carefully guarded during the battle as a miser guards his treasure. I did not feel justified in using it. I painted in glowing colors in my mind the happy hour when I should enjoy it after the victory, but I had miscalculated my chances. A poor dragoon lay beinless. with both arms crushed, murmuring for something to refresh him. I felt in my pockets and found only gold, which would not be of the least use to him But stay!
