

New To-Day.

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6 AND 7 per cent. Farm security. U'Ron & Schubel.

BUSINESS PROPERTY FOR SALE—One saloon, butcher shop with ice house, also confectionery stand, all in same building, together with three lots and a barn. A trade will be considered. For further particulars inquire of Enterprise Office, Oregon City, Oregon.

Local Events.

Popular hats at popular prices at Miss C. Goldsmith's.

A son was born Friday morning, October 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fleming at Maple Lane.

Our styles and prices win our customers. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Marriage licenses were issued at the county clerk's office Wednesday as follows: Maud H. Conway and Geo. H. Harding; Mary J. Burgess and W. J. Walsh.

Joe Goodfellow is preparing to install a bowling alley at his place of business on Main street. Such a resort will be largely patronized and appreciated by the young men of the city.

Low prices do not bar quality with us. You get both. Miss C. Goldsmith.

New stock of Henrietta Petticoats from 75c. Centimeter Kid Gloves $1.00. R. & G. Corsets from 50c. Ladies' and Children's Underwear—the cheapest in town at THOMPSON'S BARGAIN STORE.

Chris Schubel, secretary of the Republican county central committee, has received a number of large and small pictures of Roosevelt and Fairbanks that may be had by calling at Mr. Schubel's office.

Trimmed hats, tailored and ready-to-wear hats at Miss C. Goldsmith's.

Dr. L. J. Wolf on Wednesday accompanied Mrs. Harry M. Shaw to Portland, where Dr. Montgomery successfully performed an operation by which a foreign growth in Mrs. Shaw's throat was removed.

At the meeting of the city council Monday night, incandescent lights were ordered placed at the following places: Second and Center streets; Center and Third streets; and Seventh and Washington streets.

The United Brethren church, 8th and Taylor streets, will hold Quarterly Meeting next Sunday, the 23d of Oct., at 3 o'clock p. m. Business meeting Monday evening following at 8 o'clock.

A. J. WAHE, P. E.

Miss Winsor is having good success in her use of Palless Photography. Her new studio is on Main street, near Seventh. She will be glad to have you call and examine her work.

Nov. 14

Rev. J. W. Craig has been returned for another year to Oregon City charge by the Conference of the M. E. church, South, recently held at Harrisburg, Or., and will resume regular services at Ely, preaching next Sunday morning and evening.

H. A. Rands is in receipt of a letter from his brother, E. P. Rands who expects to complete his surveying contract in Idaho in about two weeks when he will return to this city. Mr. Rands is now working in the vicinity of Coeur d'Alene.

Don Meldrum has returned from Eugene where he went to participate in the annual game of football between the Varsity team and the Alumni eleven of the state university. In Saturday's game the alumni was defeated by a score of 29 to 0.

County Judge Ryan attended a meeting of Pomona Grange at Clackamas last Wednesday night and was initiated to the mysteries of the fifth degree, preparatory to taking the state and national degrees at the meeting of the National Grange at Portland, in November.

F. A. McCarthy in a divorce suit filed Thursday, charges Lena McCarthy, whom he married at Eugene, in April, 1902, with desertion in the following August. There are no children and the plaintiff asks to be legally separated from the woman. Grant E. Dimick is attorney for the plaintiff.

Because his wife celebrated the first anniversary of their marriage by beating him with her closed fists, a treatment he alleges was repeated at frequent intervals following the anniversary. J. E. Adcox is suing his wife, Hattie C. Adcox for a divorce. The parties were married at Portland in October, 1902.

An attachment suit was this week begun against Representative-elect J. N. Brumhall, of Alms, to recover assigned wage claims aggregating $115.97. The plaintiff in the case is Wm. Flomquist, and property of the defendant's at Alms has been attached by Sheriff Shaver.

Postmaster Randall this week received a number of pamphlets containing condensed form much information about domestic and foreign mail matter, classification, conditions, rates of postage, etc. These pamphlets are a handy memorandum to have in the office or at your home and can be had for the asking at the post office.

The matter of arranging additional facilities for the increased number of students in the Fifth and Sixth grades in the city schools, has been left to the chairman of the board of directors. It has been ascertained by the board that a portable building, such as the one proposed, will cost about $400 and an effort will now be made to find a convenient room in which the overflow of pupils can be accommodated.

Egbert N. and Elsie J. Foster are suing J. M. Lyons for the annulment of a contract into which they had entered for the sale of a tract of real estate.

Mrs. Mary Himler, who owns property on the banks of the Clackamas river near this city, is suing to recover $1800 damages from the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company. The defendant company is charged with constructing an embankment twelve feet high and fifty feet wide across a right of way belonging to the plaintiff and which provides the only means of ingress and egress to the plaintiff's property. The fill was made in connection with the extensive improvements recently made near this city by the street railway company. Attorney E. E. Cross appears for Mrs. Himler.

The Oregon City Manufacturing Company has completed the installation of oil burning machinery at its woolen mills in this city and commencing next week will use this more satisfactory and economical fuel in the operation of its large mills in this city. The substitution by both of the paper mills and the woolen mill of crude petroleum for wood as fuel reduces to a large extent the demand for cord wood in the vicinity and dealers will have to find another market for their product. Fully 5000 cords of wood have been required annually for the operation of the manufacturing institutions that have within the last six months arranged to use oil.

The Oregon City Manufacturing Company has completed the installation of oil burning machinery at its woolen mills in this city and commencing next week will use this more satisfactory and economical fuel in the operation of its large mills in this city. The substitution by both of the paper mills and the woolen mill of crude petroleum for wood as fuel reduces to a large extent the demand for cord wood in the vicinity and dealers will have to find another market for their product. Fully 5000 cords of wood have been required annually for the operation of the manufacturing institutions that have within the last six months arranged to use oil.

Personal Mention

F. M. Gill of Garfield, was in the city Thursday.

Adam Knight, of Canby, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Cooper, of Sandy, was in the city Tuesday.

Dr. E. T. Parker spent Sunday with relatives at Albany.

Miss Gertrude Bashor visited Sunday with relatives in Salem.

Mrs. E. E. Latourette visited this week with relatives in Portland.

Mrs. C. G. Miller visited this week with friends near Newberg.

Dr. C. B. Smith, of Eagle Creek, was in the city one day this week.

Mrs. J. W. Loder and child have returned from a visit at Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Canfield spent Sunday with relatives at Albany.

Miss Edna Canfield was the guest of friends in Portland over Sunday.

F. A. Cochran, a capitalist of Woodburn was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

Walter Little has gone to Central California where he will spend the winter.

Mrs. F. J. Meyer has returned from an extended visit with friends at Portland.

S. T. Richardson, dean of the Oregon Law School of Salem, was in Oregon City last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, of Vancouver, Washington, have been visiting Oregon City relatives.

Miss Gale, who has been in Washington and Idaho for several months, has returned to Oregon City.

Miss Sophie Wolf, of Silverton, was the guest of her brother, Dr. L. J. Wolf, the latter part of the week.

Miss Marian Eastham, of San Francisco, is visiting at the home of her brother, O. W. Eastham in this city.

John Sommers, formerly a resident of Oregon City, but now an attorney located at Portland, was in the city last Thursday.

C. Schubel this week attended the meeting of Presbytery at Fairview, being a delegate from the local Presbyterian church.

Mrs. John Adams was a visitor to Mt. Angel Saturday where she saw her son Allen, enrolled as a student at the Mt. Angel College.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marshall were in the city Monday on their way from Highland to Russellville, Multnomah county where they will reside.

H. M. Harnden has returned from Kelso Washington. He was accompanied by his daughter, Elsie, who will visit for some time in Oregon City.

G. A. Fletcher and N. G. Fletcher, of Salem, were in the city this week visiting their sister, Mrs. Claud Matheny.

Phillip Boos returned Sunday evening from New York City where he went a few weeks ago for medical treatment. He returns much improved in health.

Judge J. E. Magers, of Portland, and C. G. Miller, of this city, left Monday morning for Halsey and other up Valley points where they will hunt pheasants for some time.

Mrs. E. M. Burmeister returned this week from a five months' visit to her old home in Germany. The extended visit proved of great benefit to Mrs. Burmeister's health.

Fred J. Meindl, O. D. Ely and W. A. Dimick went to Salem Monday evening where on Tuesday they took the examination before the state supreme court for admission to the bar.

Rev. J. H. Beaven, D. C. Latourette, Mr. and Mrs. J. Booker and Mrs. A. S. Dresser have returned from McMinnville, where they attended the sessions of the Baptist conference.

Rev. W. B. Moore, pastor of the Methodist churches Clackamas and Oswego, was in the city yesterday. Rev. Moore was formerly located at North Yakima, and will reside at Clackamas.

Dr. J. W. Powell, who for the last fifteen years has been a practicing physician in Oregon City, removes this month to Molalla where he will continue the practice of his profession.

John Fairclough and A. C. Beaulieu have gone to St. Louis for a visit at the Fair. They also will visit a number of other prominent Eastern cities before returning to Oregon City about a month hence.

Judge and Mrs. Ryan last Wednesday evening attended the wedding of Captain Becher's daughter, Bell, to Wm. Ballis, in Portland. On Friday evening of the same week, they attended the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Haines, of East Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Moody, who departed Sunday for St. Louis and other points in the East, will not return until Christmas. They will spend some time visiting with Mr. Moody's relatives in New York state, whom Mr. Moody has not visited for sixteen years.

E. T. Fields, assistant agent for the Southern Pacific Company in this city, left Sunday for San Francisco, where he will spend a two weeks' vacation. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Fields and daughter who have been spending a month at California's metropolis.

J. S. Purdom, of Oregon City, is in the city in the interest of the attachable ball bearing hub, a new invention that makes bugles ride easier and last longer. It is an Oregon invention and manufactured in Portland. * * * John Moehnke, of Oregon City, came up last evening for a day's visit. He leaves today for Detroit, where he owns a fine tract of land, valuable as a water power, and is going to estimate its present value with a view to selling it.—Albany Herald, October 6.

Dr. Beattie & Beattie, Dentists; rooms 16, 17, 18, Weinhard building.

Drowned Today.

You can drown your sorrow today by going to Howell & Jones, the druggists, and buying a box of Paino Tablets. They make you strong and happy! Price 50 cents; six boxes $2.50.

Social Events

Last Friday evening, Miss Anna Alldredge was given a very pleasant surprise party at the home of Mrs. M. W. Randall on East Seventh street. There were present a dozen of the young lady's friends.

The members of the Derthick Club will hold the first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. L. L. Porter on the West Side, tomorrow, Saturday afternoon. All of the members are requested to attend.

Mr. Grafton Cheney and Miss Elizabeth Walker, both of Oregon City, were married at San Francisco, Sunday, October 9, 1904. Mr. and Mrs. Cheney will reside in San Francisco, having the best wishes of their many Oregon City friends for much happiness.

Alfred Levi Joy and Miss Lucy Lovelace, both of Oregon City, were united in marriage at St. Paul's Episcopal church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 9, 1904. Rev. P. K. Hammond officiating. Miss Echo Samson played Lohengrin's wedding march, Miss Nettie Bradley served as bridesmaid and a brother of the groom's was the best man. Mr. and Mrs. Joy will reside on the West Side.

Last Wednesday evening a large representation of the First Baptist Church and congregation, surprised Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Beaven in the honor of the beginning of the sixth year of Rev. Beaven's pastorate of the Oregon City church. A very enjoyable evening was passed by the callers who numbered nearly 100.

No such thing as "Summer Complaint" where Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Cherry is kept handy. Nature's remedy for looseness of the bowels.

Administrator's Notice

Notice is hereby given and published that the undersigned has been appointed Administratrix of the estate of George L. Hostetler, deceased, by an order made by Hon. Thos. F. Ryan, judge of the county court for Clackamas County, State of Oregon, and entered in said court on the 10th day of October, A. D. 1904; and that all persons having a claim or claims against the estate of said George L. Hostetler, deceased, are required to present the same, properly verified, within six months of the date of this notice, to said Administratrix at her residence in Needy, County of Clackamas, State of Oregon.

Dated this 13th day of October, A. D. 1904.

NORA A. HOSTETLER, Administratrix Estate of Geo. L. Hostetler, Deceased.

Every body liable to itching piles, Rich and poor, old and young—terrible the torture they suffer. Only one sure cure. Doan's Ointment. Absolutely safe; Can't fail.

Quarterly Conference.

The 28th session of the Columbia Conference, M. E. Church, South, just closed at Harrisburg, was one of the most interesting and profitable in its history. The presence and labors of Bishop H. C. Morrison, both in the pulpit and chair of the Conference, contributed largely to this result.

Rev. Dr. Reed, Superintendent of Missions on the Coast; Dr. U. E. Vaughn, editor of Pacific Methodist Advocate, and S. H. Shingle, representing Milton College of Eastern Oregon, increased the interest of the occasion.

ADDITIONAL CORRESPONDENCE.

(Continued from page 2.)

Sister Mrs. Lizzie Priester, died about three years ago from a tumor, which weighed 32 pounds.

People find this a good time to clean wells and in some cases dig deeper. Everything but thoroughly cultivated potatoes are drying up.

Pastures are very dry for cows, sheep and horses do better.

Farmers are doing this and that waiting for rain so as to plow for fall grain. Hens are eating their winter stores of honey.

Mrs. Widdle has been having a bad tooth treated for some time. It is nearly ready to be filled now.

Sharp's are having their house repainted.

(Last week the Stafford correspondence reached the office too late for the paper of the 30th ult and had to be carried over a week.)—Editor.

UNION HALL.

Mrs. B. J. Heivy called on Mrs. John Burns last Thursday.

Mr. Edward Hilton of Canby, came out here last Friday and moved his mother and brother to Canby. Grandma Hilton has been quite ill for some time past.

Mr. John Burns made a business trip to Oregon City last Friday.

Mrs. R. R. Peebler and Miss Eliza Burns were the guests of Mrs. L. G. Riggs last Wednesday.

Miss Gem Burns is staying with Mrs. John Robbins.

Mrs. Otto Stryker and Miss Louisa Perringer were calling on Mrs. J. H. Burns one day last week.

Mrs. Rosa Peebler who has been visiting her mother for the past two weeks, returned to Portland last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thomas went to Canby last Friday on business.

Mr. Johnnie McIntosh returned to his home in Mystic, Iowa, last week.

Messrs. J. D. Wilkerson and John Molzan, have celled and painted the school house.

School started last Monday, Oct. 10th, with Miss Eliza Burns as teacher.

Miss Amelia Molzan of Portland is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Molzan.

Grandma Burns was visiting friends in Macksburg last week.

Mr. D. R. Dimick of Canby is working on his farm at present.

Miss Louisa Perringer is staying in Canby.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

The welcome rain maketh the heart glad and settles the dust.

Crushed rock has been placed on the drive way of Molalla Ave., a much needed improvement.

Everhart & Co., have started a meat market, and will build an addition to the store for this purpose.

P. D. Curran is still adding on to his residence, the latest being a porch and lattice work.

Mr. Stevens, south of town, has built a neat little barn and almost completed a cozy little cottage.

Morris Rilly, who has been suffering five months with an injured limb, is some better. Dr. Sommers last Sunday grafted his leg, and it appears now to be healing. Kind neighbors gathered together one day and cut and hauled him several loads of wood, a surely commendable act and should be repeated again as winter is coming and Mr. Rilly unable to work.

A daughter of Mr. Henrley is very sick with typhoid fever.

Mr. James Good, of Denver, visited his cousins this week. Mr. and Mrs. Smalley. Several houses on Molalla Ave. have been repainted this fall and adds much to their appearance.

The new arch light at the intersection of Molalla Ave. and Duane Ave. will be very acceptable.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Osterhouter, on Tuesday morning, a daughter.

GARFIELD.

Wm. Oatfield has completed the laying of the first half mile of plank road in Garfield precinct. This is an excellent start in the right direction.

Mrs. Stubbe and D. F. Warner had a flatic encounter on the latter's premises in which the former received a discolored eye.

J. E. Stubbs is teaching the Garfield school. He will undoubtedly teach a successful school.

I. H. Palmateer will go to Eastern Oregon Monday on a visit to his brother.

F. M. GILL.

ELDORADO.

Fred Moore of Carus, visited with Ern Jones Monday night.

John and George Heivey have gone to Eastern Oregon for the winter.

Clyde and Cardon Smith are working for E. Schubel.

Frank Schoenborn has returned from Chinook.

Ern Jones has gone to St. Louis for the Fair, and Fred Moore is working for him while he is away.

John Martin is somewhat disabled since he tried to ride his new colt.

Bill Smith has returned from Marquam, where he has been hunting birds.

Winnie Howard was home Sunday on a visit.

James Oliver of Milwaukie was out to his farm Sunday.

PARKPLACE.

The carpenter's hammer is heard ringing in the village; Lon Hemler is putting up a house in his beautiful little grove East of the store. Wonder who is going to live in it. Ask Lon.

Hal Brown and wife have rented the Hamilton house and are going to move into it this week.

Miss Hainel spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends in Portland.

Some fine strings of trout are being taken out of the Clackamas now-a-days. The eighth grade pupils have organized a debating club and will soon have a lyceum started.

Mrs. Brayton has been quite sick for several days with quinsy.

The Congregational church has organized a choir of eight voices which adds greatly to the interest of the services.

The Rev. Mr. Clapp, missionary, assisted in the services Sunday night, it being the Lord's Supper.

The people of Parkplace wear a smile again on account of the rain.

PARKPLACE.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rutherford and daughter Eva, of Highland, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mitchells this week.

School is progressing nicely under the management of Prof. Reed and his able assistants. About two hundred pupils in attendance.

The Seventh and Eighth grades of Park Place school are organizing a debating society.

Mr. John Straight, a former resident of this place, was shaking hands with his many friends last week.

Mr. Mitchell will leave for Eastern Oregon Wednesday.

Miss Edna Garde, of Highland, is visiting her sister, Miss Essie, this week.

Lewis Hemler is erecting a new house on railroad avenue, opposite the park.

Born, Thursday, October 6, 1904, to the wife of Mr. Charles Straight, a nine pound girl.

R. C. Ingram received a shipment of five thoroughbred Homer pigeons last week.

SHUBEL.

School started last Monday with Mrs. Moehnke as teacher.

Farmers are almost through digging potatoes, which are a rather poor crop.

Philip Mangler has rented W. D. Hill's farm.

Messrs. Charles and David Moehnke have rented a farm at Clarks.

W. D. Hill intends leaving for Eastern Oregon soon.

Will Hettman is prospecting in the mountains.

Grandpa Ginter of Ely, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ginter and Grandpa Ginter spent Sunday with the former's son, Robert, at Macksburg.

Mrs. James Hettman and Ginter called on Mrs. Wager last Thursday.

BEAVER CREEK.

The dry weather still keeps on. Relations are visiting the Martin family at present.

Jessie Blank called on the Hughes family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. KleinSmith of Ely, are visiting the Strudman family this week. Relatives called on John Bohlender this week.

J. Willis is preparing to leave for Portland.

A Blum has finished tearing down his old building.

The Sunday school was well attended in both churches last Sunday.

The Beaver Creek school started last Monday under the management of Miss Elmore Ginter.

There will be an English sermon at the Welch church next Sunday night by Rev. R. H. Owens. Everybody is invited.

Subscribe for the Enterprise.

Adams Brothers

OREGON CITY'S LARGEST AND BEST STORE

Sole Agents for

McCall Dress Patterns
Black Cat Stockings
W. B. Corsets
Brainerd & Armstrong's Silks
"Sorosis" Underskirts
Dr. Wright's Underwear
Strauss Bros., Tailors

Crouse & Brandegee Clothing
Monarch Shirts
Arrow Brand Collars
Seiz Royal Blue Shoes
John B. Stetson's Hats
Banner Brand Shirtwaists
and

The Famous

Queen Quality

Shoe for Women

Special Sale this Week

of Children's Strong School Shoes

Adams Brothers

OREGON CITY'S BIG CASH STORE

The Good Old Quaker

once said to his boy:
"Nathan, it is not what thee reads that makes thee smart; it is not what thee eats that makes thee fat; nor what thee earns that makes thee rich, but what thee SAVES."
This saving habit may be acquired by opening an account or taking an interest-bearing certificate at

The Bank of Oregon City
Oregon City, Oregon