TERNELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Wants To Be Separated.—Alleging drunkenness and failure to provide, Jessie B. Ringland has filed suit for divorce from David N. Ringland, whom she married in Colorado in 1894. Plaintiff asks for the custody of two minor sons, aged 3 and 5 years.

Passed Examination.—W. A. Dimick, Fred J. Melndi and O. D. Ely have received word that they successfully passed the examination to the bar in this state. The young men took the examination before the supreme court at Salem Tuesday of last week.

Meeting at Estacada.—A big Republican meeting will be held at Estacada tomorrow, Saturday afternoon, in which all of the people of the east end of the county will participate. Senator Brownell of this city, and E. H. Tongue, of Hillsboro, will be the principal speakers.

Will Make Shingles.—L. E. and A. E. Bonney have built a shingle mill on Clear Creek, three-fourths of a mile south of Longs and have the same in operation. The mill has a daily capacity of 60,000 and the owners expect to help supply the demand for this building material in Clackamas county.

Deepening the Channel.—The government dredger is performing needed work in deepening the channel of Willamette river at the Clackamas rapids just below the junction of the Clackamas river with the Willamette. During the last summer, the river steamboats found navigation over the rapids difficult.

Has Gone to Goldendale.—Miss M. E. Lilbker, of this city, left a few days ago for Goldendale, Washington, where she may remain for several months. Miss Lilbker is thankful to her many friends here for the many acts of kindness shown her during her residence in the city. Her address for the next few months will be R. F. D. No. 2, Goldendale, Washington.

Mayor Dimick to Speak.—Mayor Grant B. Dimick, Republican presidential elector, will address the people of Independence, this Friday evening, will speak at Dallas tomorrow night. Subsequent to these appointments, Mr. Dimick will make a tour of Southern Oregon. Mr. Dimick is an effective speaker and as a storyteller is hard to equal.

Potato Crop is Short.—A. P. Todd, a leading farmer of the Sherwood neighborhood, was in the city last Friday. Mr. Todd says the "welcome" rain would have been received with greater thanksgiving by the farmers had it arrived a month or six weeks earlier. He reports that as a reason of the protracted dry season the potato crop in his locality is quite light.

Band is Improving.—One of these days Oregon City will have a band to be proud of and that date is not far distant if the present membership of Oregon City's only musical organization continues to improve as it has grown both in membership and efficiency in the last few months. An instructor has been employed from Portland and surprising progress is being made by the band boys. Some arrangements should be made early next year for the building of a band stand as an expression of appreciation on the part of the public which will be glad to hear the band resume its playing.

Land Brought Good Price.—Eight and three-quarters acres of land adjoining the town of Eagle Creek were sold at public auction in this city Monday to Dr. C. B. Smith, of Eagle Creek, the price paid being $117.50 per acre. The sale was made at a guardian's sale. The land is well improved and has a house.

Met Negro With a Gun.—Last Saturday evening, M. Lewis, a young man of Canemah, was held up near the Canemah Park steps by an unmasked negro who readily persuaded him to contribute $1.75, all the money he had, to the support of a transient hold-up artist. The coon's persuasive manner was supplemented by a large revolver and the argument was decidedly convincing to Lewis. The negro disappeared immediately following the theft and no trace of him has been found.

Oregon Press Association.—At the Annual meeting of the Oregon State Press Association, held at Hood River, last Friday and Saturday, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, R. J. Hendricks, Salem; First vice-president, J. C. Hayter, Dallas; Second vice-president, A. D. Moe, Hood River; Secretary, Albert Tozier, Hillsboro; Treasurer, Frances E. Gottshall, Portland; Historian, George H. Himes, Portland. Next year the Association will meet at Portland.

Death Claims Young Girl.—Lula, the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hibbs, died at the family home, Green Point, at 2:30 o'clock Monday morning, October 17. The cause of death was consumption from which the little one had suffered for months. Many resorts were visited by the anxious parents and everything that could be done to defeat the almost sure consequences of the wasting disease, but without any material improvement in the little one's physical condition and, her case becoming hopeless, she was brought home from Bingham Springs last week. Lula was an extremely bright child, of a sweet and lovable disposition that made her dear to her parents and a great favorite among her young acquaintances. The remains were taken to Sheridan, where burial services were conducted Wednesday.

May Be Preserved.—Joe Buchtel thinks he will have to employ a private secretary to answer the letters that have been pouring in concerning the movement to preserve the old home of Dr. McLaughlin, since he made the suggestion last Monday. He hardly hoped for such a response to follow so quickly, and did not know how his suggestion that the building and ground at Oregon City be purchased and preserved in memory of Dr. McLaughlin, would be received. Now that so much interest has been displayed he will push the organization of an association whose object will be to preserve the old home. Among the many who called to commend the movement was William Abernathy, son of ex-Governor Abernathy. Others have also endorsed the movement. Having received this encouragement, Mr. Buchtel proposes to hold a public meeting at Oregon City for the purpose of forming a permanent organization. Mr. Buchtel suggests the names of Mrs. C. H. Dye, John McCracken, E. D. Kelly, Mrs. Theodore Wygant, F. X. Matthieu and some others to head the movement for permanent organization, which should take up and carry out the details in the way of raising funds to secure the building and grounds.—Oregonian.

A New Scheme.—As a final resort, delinquent subscriptions to all publications are usually placed with a collection agency, but Editor Irvine, of the Corvallis Times has conceived of a new idea. With what success it will meet is as yet an undetermined quantity. The plan is out lined in the following clipping that is taken from the last issue of the Times:—Bill—"It's all off between us, Angelina; you're nothing more to me." Angelina—"What's that, dearest Bill; is our engagement broke?" Bill—"Yes, Angelina, it's broke." Angelina—"Oh, Bill; my Bill; this cruel, cruel blow; why, oh, why, this thudness, Bill?" Bill—"It isn't because I do not love you, Angelina. You are the apple of my eye. But, go, girl, go and look at the date in the address on your father's Times. Look at it, girl, and therein learn why you are nothing more to me." She fainted, and with a cold stein look on his face, Bill rolled up his pants, walked out into the raw night air and went away forever.

Goods Sold Not His Own.—Monday evening a warrant was issued out of Justice Stipp's court for the arrest of F. J. Merry on a charge of larceny by bailee. Some time ago Merry purchased an invoice of household goods from W. L. Block on which a balance of $45.00 remained unpaid. Monday afternoon Merry called on Mr. Block and stated that he desired to leave the city, failing to agree on a settlement, was warned by the furniture dealer not to sell the goods or otherwise dispose of them. Instead Merry went at once to his home, loaded the goods into a wagon and delivered them at the store of W. W. Bradley, where a sale was effected. Merry receiving $32. He then went to the Southern Pacific passenger depot and purchased a ticket for Portland. He left a wife and two children in this city. The Portland police were promptly notified and it is expected Merry will be of months Merry was employed at the woolen mills, afterwards working as a salesman for Mr. Block.

A Thoughtful Man.—M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25 cents at Howell & Jones' drug store.
