A brass band was in attendance and genuine Roosevelt enthusiasm was everywhere in evidence.

At the Congregational church next Sunday morning the pastor will speak on a subject of vital importance. Recognizing that there is a change in the beliefs that many people hold about the fundamentals of the Christian religion the theme, "How Should We Believe About the Bible" is a most appropriate one. In the evening after a praise service by the congregation and choir, Rev. Bollinger will speak on "Immediate Results of a Bad Bargain."

F. M. Manning, a pioneer resident of Clackamas county, died at his home at Mullino, Wednesday afternoon after an illness of several months. He was 59 years, 8 months and 8 days old, death resulting from dropsy. The deceased served as city marshal for East Portland before the East and West Sides were consolidated. He is survived by a wife and seven children, as follows: Mrs. Mary Daniels and Frank Manning, of Cathlamet, Washington; Mrs. Kate White, of Oregon City; Maud, Marguerite, Callie and Edith, of Mullino. Funeral services will be conducted at Graham's cemetery this afternoon.

The Congregational church of this city is preparing to celebrate its 10th anniversary during the third week in November. There will be special services during the celebration week and a number of the leading ministers of the state will be invited. The pastor desires that the occasion may become a great up-lift to all the members and friends of the church. The church is assuming its usual fall activity. The Saturday Club will again conduct the popular "Thanksgiving Market" just previous to Thanksgiving for which greater preparation than ever will be made. And the Ladies' Aid Society is in a great hum with the preparation for a Fair to be held during the evening of the Saturday Club's Market day.

TEN WEEKS' PLEASURE TRIP.
 S. Selling, accompanied by his niece, Miss Lippitt, returned this week from a ten weeks' pleasure trip through the East. Mr. Selling reports a most enjoyable trip, having visited all the principal places of interest. While enroute Mr. Selling observed political conditions and says that everything is for Roosevelt, this sentiment being particularly true in many of the states that are generally pronounced doubtful. He says the Republican nominee will easily have a safe majority in New York State.

The first place of interest visited by the Oregon City tourists was Yellowstone National Park which they found to be the place of great and indescribable beauty pictured by F. G. Carpenter, the traveler. The World's Fair at St. Louis, Chicago, New York, Boston and its many places of historic interest, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, Philadelphia and the National Capital, were in turn visited. A day was spent at West Point where a visit was had with Arthur Gallogly, of this city, and whose record at the military institution, the commanding colonel spoke flatteringly.

An Overcoat Chat

Why not get that Overcoat off your mind and on your back. If you want a short top coat to come above your knees we have it; if a Chesterfield long enough to cover your knees we have it; if a Ryton to come just above the ankles we have it. If its something else the chances are we will have it. Our stock is complete in every detail. You will also find our prices within your means. Our overcoats are made by Hart, Schaffner & Marx, whose authority on overcoat making can not be disputed, as the making of the garments are combined with grace and beauty and the style, fashion and fabric can not be excelled.
