

Miss Rose Peterson, Secretary Parkdale Tennis Club, Chicago, from experience advises all young girls who have pains and sickness peculiar to their sex, to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many beautiful young girls develop into worn, listless and hopeless women, simply because sufficient attention has not been paid to their physical development. No woman is exempt from physical weakness and periodic pain, and young girls just budding into womanhood should be carefully guided physically as well as morally. Another woman,

Miss Hannah E. Merston, Collingswood, N.J., says:

"I thought I would write and tell you that, by following your kind advice, I feel like a new person. I was always thin and delicate, and so weak that I could hardly do anything. Menstruation was irregular."

"I tried a bottle of your Vegetable Compound and began to feel better right away. I continued its use, and am now well and strong, and menstruate regularly. I cannot say enough for what your medicine did for me."

—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure any woman in the land who suffers from womb troubles, inflammation of the ovaries, and kidney troubles.

BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

Oregon City People Receiving the Full Benefit.

There have been many cases like the following in Oregon City. Every one relates the experience of people. These plain straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

C. Pratt, carpenter, residing one and one-half miles from Albany, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly spoken of to me by a friend who had used them that I decided to give them a trial and procured a box. I overtaxed myself and brought on severe backache. I paid little attention to it at first, but it gradually grew worse. When I did anything which caused a strain on my back or took a slight cold, I was sure to suffer from severe pain across my loins. I started using Doan's Kidney Pills as directed and they helped me from the first. By the time I had finished taking them the pain had entirely disappeared."

Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call at C. G. Huntley's drug store and ask what his customers report.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

SHE WAS NOT THERE.

In a curiosity is, perhaps, only rivalled by man's gullibility when a member of the fair sex is involved. An Oregon City lady found convincing proof in this fact one night this week to the great amusement of a number of his companions who were responsible for the embarrassing situation into which the gullible youth permitted himself to be enticed. Tuesday the victim of the practical joke, which is too good to keep, received in the mail an endearing note, presumably written by a fair maiden, for it closely resembled the penmanship of a girl and besides, the signature was in initials, which only further aroused his curiosity.

The note was cleverly written. It related that the author had been desirous of forming the young man's acquaintance ever since she had seen him at a dance some weeks before. A number of times she had sought to effect a meeting with him, but each attempt was without successful result. In view of these facts, the writer entreated the object of her adoration to excuse her apparent boldness in addressing a note to him under the circumstances, assuring him that her action was prompted merely by an unusual desire to make his acquaintance. She urged him to meet her on Singer Hill at 8:30 o'clock that evening. The love sick girl included a detailed description of herself so that the recipient of the note could possibly make no mistake.

The young man became intensely nervous. At the dinner table he spilled half the contents of a plate of soup on the clean linen. Subsequent to the meal, he confided in an associate, who being a party to the joke, urged his feeble companion to fulfill the appointment. This the young man decided to do. And at the appointed hour, clad in the best his wardrobe afforded and wearing his most enticing smile, the youth proceeded to Singer Hill. When he had reached the appointed place of meeting, he was greeted with a storm of potatoes and other vegetables in such quantities and of such a variety of quality as would do credit to the products of the average Chinese garden. But he was not to be disappointed. He retreated to Main street where he invited the Night Officer to accompany him, but on the second ascent of the hill his assailants had disappeared and the girl with a "long light coat" was also a missing quantity. It was not until then that he realized how thoroughly well-done he had been treated. He is now conducting a quiet search for the villains.

Can You Eat?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Chilesman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by G. A. Harding."
